A DISTINGUISHED naturalist says a bear is ordinarily no more than a woodchuck. That may be all very true, but in a square hug the bear is far more tenacious.

WE have had a "snap." It struck us on Saturday night, when the thermometer fell to 6°. This must have been the tail end of the blizzard which has been frisking about the west for some time.

A nice lot of Farey Woollens, less than regular prices, at A. C. Campbell's, Woodville.

Witherow's Scriptural Baptism for sale at J. C. Gilchrist's, Woodville.

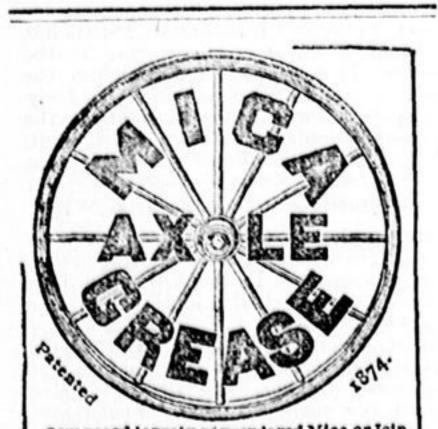

THE Concert advertised for last Friday evening came off and was a fair success. The programme was well selected and fairly executed. We understand it is the intention to furnish the hall with the proceeds.

OUR annual Christmas Number is now in course of preparation. An issue of 4,000 copies will be circulated. This is a grand medium for special (hristmas and Holiday advertising. Orders for space should be handed in early to insure insertion.

WE would call attention to the new advertisement by Mr. C. H. Jewell in another column. Mr. Jewell informs us that he has been much delayed in business by the nonarrival of his stock. The factories are so extremely busy that it is with difficulty late orders can be tilled.
