LOCAL MATTERS.

No clue yet to the burglars who stole the money from the "Queen's."

Fat is not conducive to long life in the case of turkey.

Wood is in great demand in this village at present.

The favorite expression amongst newspapers just now is: Canada is all for Lorne.

Nobody wants board in our new Lock up, and the hinges are getting rusty.

Personal.—We were visited on Saturday by a gentleman soliciting subscribers for the London Advertiser. He reports business as rather dull.

Resumed.—Dr. McKay has resumed his practice in our midst with renewed vigor and skill since his walk through the hospitals of the Old Country.

True.—A correspondent of the Lincoln Post, writes:—"No Use in telling you that money is scarce." There is no use telling us anything else, for we wouldn't believe it.

Praise a man and he will blush; tickle him and he will laugh; hurt him and he will cry; but when you shove a contribution box under his nose he will double up with anguish.

Teacher's Convention.—A Convention of the Teachers of West Victoria will be held in Woodville, on Friday and Saturday, 13th and 14th inst., in the School House.

"Tell me, ye angelic hosts, ye messengers of love, shall swindled printers here below have no redress above? The shining angel band replied, to us is knowledge given; delinquents on the printer's books can never enter heaven."

That Early Winter.—We may now take it for granted that however severe winter may be when it does come, we are not going to have what is known as an early winter this season. Here is December and not enough frost yet to make more than about a quarter of an inch of ice. Plenty of rain, and lots of mud but no frost.

Personal.—Mr. Crawford, general agent for the Uxbridge Organ Co. was in town on Friday afternoon and had one of their superb organs at the station for inspection. Those who saw and heard the organ say it cannot be beat for the price. Any one wishing to purchase an organ at a great reduction and on easy terms, will do well to call at this office before going elsewhere.

The Roads.—If any one can name a worse road than that leading from Oshawa to the harbor he can "speak now." An occasional correspondent describes the routes as "bottomless" and the sides a "quagmire." He suggests to our town fathers that "now is the time to place broken stone upon that much travelled road." The only question in our mind is about the quantity of stone requisite to fill those bottomless ruts; we suppose it would take an unknown quantity. He also suggests that a municipal law be made compelling teamsters and draymen to use four inch wagon tires.—Oshawa Reformer.
The very thing we have been preaching to our Township fathers for the last year and a half.

Should be Stopped.—The general impression is that children should not be allowed to play with hand sleighs on the sidewalks, as they have been doing. One gentleman was rather unceremoniously thrown down the other night by being run into by one of those institutions, and another individual narrowly escaped the same treatment shortly afterwards.—Omnes Herald.

The same thing is applicable here.
Boys, and pretty big ones too, are running and racing up and down our sidewalks every evening after dark, to the danger of pedestrians. This should be stopped, more especially as our sidewalks are so narrow that people have to step into the ditch, or be knocked over by the boys with the sleds. Constable McSweyn should give the matter a little of his attention.

Gaelic Proverbs.

Tir nam beann, nan gleau sna'n gaisgeach.
Cho gear ri sgian, cho maol ri ord.
Cho cruaidh ri spor, cho bog ri im.
Cho ban ri tonn, cho dubh ri gobha.
Cho gear ri eala, cho dearg ri fuil.
Na doir breith a reir coltais.
Feudaidh cridhe math a bbi fodh chota "Hermit," the New York correspondent of the Troy Times, a close observer of things there, in his last letter philosophically remarks:—"The autumn trade is now in full activity, and business men are exerting every effort to improve the harvest. One method is the handbill system, by which the hotels are daily inundated. During the business season one boy after another will go the rounds, and in this way an attempt is made to obtain trade. Of these, however, the greater part are wasted, since the waiter generally picks them up and throws them into the street, and the next day a fresh inundation takes place. Experience has clearly demonstrated that the most efficient method of advertising is found in the judicious use of the newspaper columns.

The ground on which newspaper advertising, as a system, is based is human confidence, since we cannot avoid believing that which we constantly read.
This confidence is sometimes abused, but still it is evident that a good advertisement will, if sufficiently repeated, carry popular opinion. Men who advertise with the greatest persistency eventually reach success. There is a military principal involved in this method, since the article advertised should be pressed on the public by repeated assaults. The correct view, which experience brings to each man is that advertising should be included in the general estimate of expense, as regularly as store rent, clerk-hire, and insurance. It is often said a good stand at a high rent, is better than a poor one rent free. Well, advertising brings a man before the public in a way that makes any 'stand' good. The best stand you can have is to be in the newspaper."

CANNINGTON.

Mr. D. CAMPBELL, the proprietor of the Queen's Hotel, with his load of "Campbells" was unavoidably prevented from visiting his relative, the Marquis of Lorne, but will meet him at Toronto, on his visit to that place. Dan is big on the "Campbells are Coming." He whistles it in his sleep.

New Editor.—Our readers will be pleased to learn that we have engaged, at an enormous expense, a new Editor for our present issue. He is very ambitious and has already worn out two pair of old boots looking for items. We hope his efforts, as shown in our columns to-day, will be appreciated by the public, so as to allow of a permanent engagement.

Mr. PETER SCOTT, long a resident in the township of Brock, started yesterday with his family to become a resident of the State of Maryland. He had previously visited the locality, and reports the land as being remarkable productive and well adapted to the growing of fall wheat. On the farm he has purchased there are 1,400 peach trees, and we are sure that Mr. Scott will remember his friends during the peach season.—

PATENTS

Obtained for Inventors, in the United States Canada and Europe, at reduced rates. With our principal office is located in Washington, directly opposite the United States Patent Office we are able to attend to all Patent Business with greater promptness and despatch and less cost, than other patent attorneys, who are at a distance from Washington, and who have, therefore, to employ "associate attorneys." We make preliminary examinations and furnish opinions as to patentability, free of charge, and all who are interested in new inventions and Patents are invited to send for a copy of our "Guide for obtaining Patents," which is sent free to any address; and contains complete instructions how to obtain Patents, and other valuable matter. We refer to the German-American National Bank, Washington, D. C.; the Royal Swedish, Norwegian, and Danish Legations, at Washington; Hon. Joseph Casey, late Chief Justice U. S. Court of Claims; and to the officials of the U. S. Patent Office, and to Senators and Members of Congress from every State.
