The snow shovel which has been lying around the cellar all summer, perfectly destitute of dignity, is now beginning to brace up and put on more airs than a newly elected councillor. Anybody buying fifty cents worth at Gunn Bros., will get a Christmas card. Gunn Bros. have the finest line of Bibles ever brought into Woodville.

Accident.—As Mrs. Clifford, mother of Mr. J. Clifford of the "Queens," was returning home from a neighbor's, on Saturday evening, she slipped off the sidewalk and dislocated her shoulder. The old lady—she is about 72 years of age—suffered considerable, but was able on Monday to be taken home.

Women's Balmorals at $1.00; at Rod. Campbell's.

Snow.—It snowed on Sunday and Monday, a little. Hardly enough to make good sleighing, though the number of sleighs that came into the village gave an idea of what trade would be if we had about six inches more snow. It is to be hoped we will have it before this paper is printed. Later—and we have.

During the holidays we calculate to sell cheaper than ever. Call and secure bargains at Jas. A. Mitchell & Co's.

An application is to be made to the Ontario Legislature for a charter for the "Toronto and Nipissing Northern Extension Railway," to build a line from Cobocok north to Trading Lake, and a charter for the "Toronto and Nipissing Eastern Extension Railway" for a line east through the counties of Victoria, Peterborough and Hastings; to the River Ottawa.

Wm. Henry is selling his large stock of Millinery and Mantles, at and under cost.

That Log Heap.—At the last meeting of the Eldon Council complaint was made of that heap of logs on the townline, in front of Mr. Donald Jackson's farm. The clerk was instructed, if Mr. Jackson did not have them removed at once to indict him for obstructing the public highway. We have no doubt Mr. J. will comply with the request of the Council and not force them to use harsh measures.

Look out! You may fail to get one of those handsome Photograph and Autograph Albums, so cheap at Sherman's.

That is an erroneous idea that prompts a man to rush to the newspaper office to prevent the publication of facts concerning some misfortune that has befallen him. Matters which have become the subject of comment upon the streets are better explained by the reporter in public than by street corner gossip. The newspaper gets at the bottom facts of the case and makes them of record, so that exaggerated accounts seldom get in circulation.

Child's Felt Shoes at 25 cents, at Rod. Campbell's.

On Friday last, Mr. Peter McCorkquodale, while transacting some business at the farm of Mr. Whetter, on the 3rd Con., Eldon, suddenly feeling unwell started for home across the fields, but he had not proceeded far when he was seized with a cramp. He managed to crawl on his hands and knees for over a quarter of a mile to the nearest neighbor's, where he was taken in and medical assistance procured. At the time of writing he was in a fair way to recover.

Wanted, at the "Regulator," every kind of Poultry, between now and Christmas.

Bad Brid es.—The Rev. A. McKay, applied at the last meeting of the Eldon Council for $25 for damage done to his buggy and harness through falling over a defective bridge over the creek, near Argyle. It came out in course of conversation that nearly all the bridges in our township are in a bad state of repair. Surely they ought to be fixed, so that, at least, it would be safe for a man to drive over them on a dark night without smashing his rig and risking his life. Whose duty is it?

Gunn Bros. wish all a merry Christmas and a happy New Year. Cards! Call and see them.

Some time last spring Mr. Jas. Armstrong, of this village, caused to be seized and sold some shingles manufactured by Messrs. McGimsie Bros., for, as he alleged, rent due for the mill. The latter gentlemen claimed that at the time the shingles were sold their rent was paid up in full, and accordingly entered an action against Mr. Armstrong to recover the price of the shingles. The case came up before His Honor Judge Dean, at Lindsay, last week, and a verdict given for the plaintiffs for $180 and costs.

Infants' Shoes at 15 cents, at Rod. Campbell's.

Christmas Trees.—The annual Christmas Tree, under the auspices of the Good Templars, of this village, is announced to be held in Spencer Hall, on Wednesday evening, 24th inst., when a good programme of songs, readings, &c., will be given. Any one desiring to place presents on the "Tree" can leave them at the residences of either member of the Committee—Miss H. G. Stott, Miss S. J. Stuart or Mr. W. C. Gilchrist. It is particularly requested that the presents be all in the hands of the Committee by noon on Wednesday, so as to give them time to place them to advantage on the "Tree."

An exchange says:—Now is the time to pay your indebtedness to this office, all who have not already done so, we have waited a long time for some, but we must be paid now. We have worn our old clothes 'till we can bear the piercing winds of winter no longer, we must have new and comfortable garments to protect us and unless you PAY UP we must still shiver in the cold while we are getting news for your benefit. Some whose subscriptions have run for years are heartless enough to think we can do without money and say "its only a few dollars we owe the printer.. If two or three hundred were to be in the same mind we would never get our bills paid. Long credits will not be given in future. In plain words we MUST BE PAID IMMEDIATELY!"

Shooting Match.—Some of those crack shots from Bolsover thinking perhaps that we folks in Woodville couldn't shoot, sent us a challenge for a Pigeon match, six a side, to take place here. Perhaps they thought we wouldn't accept it. But we did, and the match is to take place in front of the "Eldon House," on Tuesday next, 23rd inst. The six crack shots of Bolsover are to be pitted against the best six that Woodville can produce (they won't shoot each other, never fear) and the pigeons are to be sprung from a trap—well, not more than a hundred yards away. The committee of management are Messrs. Arch. Carmichael, Jas. White and Thos. Edwards, and while we don't know a great deal about the shooting abilities of the first two gentlemen, we have a nickle to bet that "Mine Host" Tom couldn't hit a pigeon if it was tied to the muzzle of his gun. However, a big-time is expected and anyone who has pigeons to slaughter can get it done for nothing by bringing them in on Tuesday. Come on Bolsover! "Who's a scared?"

Concert.—The first concert of the season was given in Spencer Hall on Friday evening last, under the direction and for the benefit of Miss Hezzlewood, and was a decided success. The hall was comfortably filled by an appreciative audience. Mr. G. W. Millar filled the position of Chairman in a happy manner. The Woodville brass band opened the programme by a fine selection, and were followed by a glee, "Hail Smiling Morn," by Miss Hezzlewood, Miss Stoddart, Messrs. M. Morrison, A. Morrison, and Bick. The Messrs. Morrison and Bick sang some very fine duets during the evening, and Mr. A. Taylor a comic song. Miss Susie Stoddart sang, "Names upon the Sand" very nicely, and Mrs. H. McNeil rendered, "Keep Your Little Heart for Me," with fine effect. Mrs. E. Burnham, of Cannington, sang, "Come back to Erin" and "Till the clouds go by," and "The Bride" was ably rendered by Miss Fierheller, of Sunderland. The Cannington Quadrille Band was present, and materially added to the programme by some fine selections. Miss Hezzlewood presided at the organ and assisted in the choruses. The dialogues were good; "The train to Morrow" creating roars of laughter. Mr. L. Gilchrist gave a reading in his usual happy manner. "God Save the Queen," by the brass band, brought the proceedings to a close.

INVALIDS; do you wish to gather flesh, to acquire an appetite, to enjoy a regular habit of body, to obtain refreshing sleep, to feel and know that every fibre and tissue of your system is being braced and renovated? If so commence at once and use the Quinine Wine prepared by Northrop & Lyman, of Toronto, and in a short time you will feel the whole system invigorated and strengthened. It is a well-known fact that Quinine has been acknowledged by the medical faculty for many years as the best appetizer and tonic known. And for general debility this combination will be found superior to all other preparations. And combined as it is with fine sherry wine and choice aromatics, it is made an agreeable and pleasant invigorator to the whole system. The properties of Quinine are a febrifuge tonic and antiperiodic. Small doses frequently repeated, strengthen the pulse, increase muscular force, and invigorate the tone of the nervous system. The peculiar operation of this medicine in general debility and as an appetizer, has undergone long and close observation, and it is believed it will never fail, if properly and judiciously administered, unless other diseases predominate of a different character. Persons of weak constitution may take it without the least difficulty, as it strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, and seldom requires more than one, or two bottles to effect a decided benefit as it contains nothing injurious to the most delicate constitution. Remember to ask for the "Quinine Wine prepared by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto," and we are sure you will be satisfied that you have full value for your money. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.
