

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY

Latest News from All Over the World.

Canadian.

During the month of November 269 immigrants arrived in Ottawa, against 159 for a similar period last year.

The Ontario poultry show will hold their next exhibition in Toronto in February, commencing on the 7th and concluding on the 15th.

Four boys, while playing on the ice at Port Jarvis on Sunday afternoon broke through. The two younger ones, Beckley and Clanson, were drowned.

A statement has been made that some one forged the resignation of C. L. Eastbrook, postmaster at St. Mary's N. B., and sent it to Ottawa, where it was accepted.

It is anticipated that telegraph communication will be made with Qu'Appelle and Touchwood States, en route to Humboldt and Edmonton, next Monday.

Madame LaChapelle, of Montreal, took ill on the street on Saturday and was delivered of a child on the sidewalk. The infant was handed to a woman, who walked off with it and has not since been seen.

A colored youth named Ben Diggins was arrested and escorted to the police cells at London yesterday afternoon by Police Constables Crawford and Guthrie. The prisoner had knocked down several farmers near John Lewis' hotel. He states that they called him provoking names.

Through a misunderstanding of the switchman two freight trains collided at the Forest station on the main line. The pilots of the engines of the two trains were badly smashed. The front trucks of one of the engines are off the track. The connections of the car are also badly damaged. There was nobody hurt. There will be little or no interruption of traffic, as trains can pass through by the sidings.

George Kelsey and his wife, immigrants, who arrived in Montreal on Saturday, and are from the west of England, have twelve children, all born in six years. Mrs. Kelsey had triplets twice and twins twice in the time mentioned. This couple will make a valuable addition to the population. They are both young.

A young woman, giving the name of Mrs. Annie Abbott has been arrested at Montreal with her paramour named Plante, for robbing Matthew Connor, of St. Lawrence County, N.Y., with whom the female prisoner lived as servant, of $3,000 in greenbacks. Half of the amount was found on Plante, together with a large amount of jewellery and a gold watch.

On Saturday morning while Mr. Donkin, head miller in Ogilvie's mills, Seaford, was engaged in fixing a part of the machinery, he was caught between the revolving cog wheel and the wall, in such a position that the wheel cut a wound about two feet long, from the shoulder down to the middle of the back, and two to three inches deep, breaking the collar bone into several pieces, and tearing out some small bones of the back. He is still living but there are very little hopes of his recovery.

European.

A proclamation will shortly appear placing the suburbs of Dublin under the Curfew clause.

Dowling's counsel intend to plead that Detective Cox was shot by one of his own comrades.

There are extensive inundations in Holland, and large tracts of country are submerged. The rivers are still rising.

The Queen telegraphed to Dublin inquiring the condition of ex-juror Field, who was dangerously assaulted on the 27th instant, and expressing sympathy for his family.

John Pope Hennessey, Governor of Hong Kong, has been appointed Governor of the Mauritius, and Sir George Ferguson Bowan, Governor of the Mauritius, has been appointed Governor of Hong Kong.

The statement telegraphed from Portsmouth regarding the gun vessel Sea Gull is erroneous. The Sea Gull was ordered to call at Madagascar before the recent complications arose.

The French newspapers show increased bitterness toward England regarding Madagascar. A statement that the British Government had ordered a gunboat to Madagascar has caused a sensation. Great indignation is expressed at this action.

A Cairo correspondent believes that Arabi will plead guilty to the general charge of rebellion and that the Egyptian Government will not press the charges of massacre and incendiarism. Arabi will then be sentenced to perpetual exile, retaining his sword, rank and emoluments.

The military tribunal at Odessa found Colonel Stavratsky guilty of embezzling 125,000 roubles from the Government and sentenced him to banishment. A captain, lieutenant and two Jewish contractors were sentenced to various lesser penalties for complicity.

A Berlin despatch says the Rhine has fallen a foot and a half in the past 24 hours. There is six feet of water in the streets of Cologne, Coblenz and Bonn. At Bonn 400 houses are submerged and nearly all the provisions and fodder in the town are destroyed. There is much sickness in the flooded districts, especially among the children and poor.

There was great excitement in the Italian Chamber of Deputies yesterday by the refusal of Falleroni, Radical, to take the oath of allegiance. Having twice refused, the President ordered him to withdraw. Falleroni replied: "I have been here by the people and shall only leave under compulsion." The queators removed him.

Dawson has been re-elected Lord Mayor of Dublin.

The policeman who arrested Sophie Perowska, 1881 has been assassinated by the nihilists.

In the election, on Saturday to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons, Mr. Wigan defeated Mr. W. P. Woodcock, Liberal, Conservative.

The committee appointed under the migration clause of the Land Act recommends that emigrants be principally sent to the colonies.

SCARLET FEVER.

Something About the Disease and Its Treatment.

There are at present in Hamilton quite a number of cases of scarlet fever, and it is a fact that danger from a community are in most cases of varying degrees of severity, but in which all the forms are capable of conveying the severest type. A fever from associating with another who has had an attack of the disease as not to keep him in the house, much less in bed.

The disease is conveyed from one person to another by exhalations from the skin and from excretions. Upon whatever the contagious matter depends for its dangerous character it is capable of retaining its power to carry the disease for a long time—certainly many months, and possibly for a year or more—unless destroyed by food, clothing, sheets, whisks, hair, etc., all are means of communication, as also the exhalations from the dead body. The disease "manifests itself" in from six to ten days, but it may be as short as from several hours to three or four weeks. The discharges from the throat have been received which have been given under the head of diphtheria apply to scarlet fever.

Further directions may be given as follows: The breath should be kept as pure as may be, by cleansing gargles and washes for the mouth. The discharges from the kidneys and bowels should be disinfected with boiling water, to which carbolic acid may be added. The skin is usually more comfortable in feeling if cosmoline, etc., or sweet oil, with a couple of grains of camphor to the ounce, is used for anointing it; the scales of the epidermis are also thereby prevented, to a considerable degree, from escaping freely into the air. The bed clothes, towels, etc., when diseased, should be removed with proper care and be boiled for a couple of hours. The food left uneaten should never be carried where it may infect other persons.

After recovery, the patient should not mingle with other persons, use lounges, carriages, public rooms, etc., liable to be used by others until all roughness of the skin has disappeared, and until warm baths have been used for several days.

After the sick room is no longer needed as such, all the clothing and other matters used in it should be soaked in boiling water. Any articles of trifling value may be destroyed by fire. The ceiling should be washed with soap and hot water or scraped. The floor and wood work should then be thoroughly washed with soap and hot water.

Should the sick person die, the body ought not to be removed from the sick room until it has been sealed in the coffin, with carbolic acid, carbolized earth, or some similar agent. The funeral must be as private as possible and not attended by children.

Anything which deteriorates health tends to render the system liable to any disease; and in that sense filth may be considered to promote scarlet fever or to increase its mortality. Perfect cleanliness is enjoined. Sewer gas may bring to one person's chamber, if it has access thereto, the contagium brought from another chamber and not disinfected. Finally, fresh air is one of the best disinfectants.

Seaman Ninderman testified before the Jeannette Board of Inquiry at Washington yesterday. The witness thought the Jeannette was well fitted out at San Francisco for an Arctic cruise. Witness said there was no possible chance of getting the ship out of the ice pack on September 6th, 1879. If he had had charge of the ship he would have done precisely as DeLong did, that is, he wished to reach Wrangel Land, that is, the ship entered the pack, on September 4th, there was a fair prospect of forcing her through and reaching Wrangel Land.

A policeman was shot dead last night in the suburban district of Dalston, Ireland, while taking a man into custody. The affair has caused a sensation.

A Dublin despatch says eighteen persons have been arrested in connection with the firing at an agent and some policemen in Castle Island on Thursday evening.

A woman named Kathie, one of twenty-six arrested for poisoning their husbands, was hanged at Vienna yesterday. She confessed to murdering two husbands. Four other women have been convicted.

A court-martial in the case of the wreck of the British man-of-war Phoenix, on the coast of Prince Edward Island, found the vessel lost through negligent navigation. The Court severely reprimanded the commander, and dismissed him and the navigating lieutenant from service.

The London News believes the Government will send a British general to Egypt to take command of the force levied by Baker Pasha. As Baker does not hold a commission in the British army he is not competent to assume command over British officers.

Baker Pasha has arrived at Cairo, and has been officially informed that England declines to recognize or sanction his appointment as Commander-in-Chief of the Egyptian army. The Government is of the opinion that the services of Baker Pasha may be utilized in organizing and commanding the gendarmerie and police.

A duel with swords was fought yesterday morning near Paris by Andreux Latemon and M. Laurent, editor of the newspaper Paris. The latter was slightly wounded. The Paris accused Andreux of wearing the decoration of the Legion of Honor when in Spain, although he never received that order, and subsequently, when his conduct attracted attention, begging Grevy to confer it on him.

Near Charlotte, N. C., in Lemley's township, four drunken young men went to a prayer meeting and created a panic among the women by discharging their pistols and using profane language. Wm. Morshane, an elder, who endeavored to induce them to leave, was knocked down and fatally beaten. Great excitement prevails. The men have left the country.

At a French Cabinet Council on Saturday the foreign policy of the Government was discussed, to the exclusion of all other subjects. Duclero, President of the Council, made a communication respecting the negotiations proceeding with England in relation to the rupture between France and the Malagassy ambassadors. It was decided that the Government should make its rights respected by Sakalava's tribe, which had placed itself under French protection.

The Garfield monument fair closed on Saturday night. Most of the goods were disposed of. It is estimated that the receipts will reach $22,000.

The new chapel of St. Francois Xavier on Sixteenth street, New York, was dedicated by Cardinal McCloskey on Sunday, assisted by a number of bishops and priests.

The Garfield Board of Audit allows Dr. Bliss $6,500; Agnew and Hamilton, $5,000 each; Reyburn and Boynton, $400 each; Mrs. Edson, $3,000. The Board also allows different parties $5,929 for services and supplies.

On Saturday morning Elias Stern, proprietor of a shooting gallery at Cincinnati, sat on the bed, held a looking-glass in front of his face, and, placing a pistol to his temple, shot himself dead. Despondency was the cause.

The express train with the Langtry troupe aboard, struck a wagon at the crossing at Thompsonville, near Hartford, yesterday afternoon. Patrick Lord, aged 16, was killed, and Patrick Kane and another boy were so seriously injured that they died.

Kalamazoo is astir over the elopement of John Henry, a travelling salesman, and Miss Effie Cameron, of New York, said to be a grand niece of Simon Cameron, of Pennsylvania, who was visiting Kalamazoo. The parties had been acquainted only four days.

An Italian merchant in Naples, or rather, a man who pretends to be a merchant, has attempted to swindle some Halifax merchants in the fish trade. Some time ago he wrote to three or four of them asking quotations for cod fish, pretending that he wished to make some extensive purchases by way of speculation. Two Halifax merchants sent him their prices, and in reply orders being accompanied by bills of exchange for £900 and £500 respectively, payable at a banking house in Lombard street, London. The fish were to be forwarded to Liverpool by steamer and thence transhipped to Naples. If this trial shipment proved successful, further orders would follow. The merchants who received these orders from this somewhat unusual quarter happened to meet and talk over the matter, and they decided before shipping the fish to inquire as to the standing of the Neapolitan merchant. They cabled across, and in reply were advised to have nothing to do with the man.

A young law student named Pardival, son of a painter in Quebec, has defrauded Mrs. Theberge, a widow lady, out of $1,900, which she gave him to lodge in the bank, but with which he absconded across the line.

A bookkeeper named Hart, once respectable and well off in Montreal, fell into drink, redoubling himself to penury. His wife went with her child to her father's, and Hart attempted to commit suicide, but medical aid restored him.

The Socialists of New York's Brooklyn, with the different trade unions, yesterday met on Myrtle avenue. It is designed to educate the laboring classes there by lectures, etc. There will be a well-stocked library and school for the children of the working classes.

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

THE STORY OF ROBIN ADAIR

And the Earl's Daughter whom he Taught to Sing "Eileen Aroon."

A paper on "Songs and Song Writers" was read before the Long Island Historical Society in Brooklyn last Wednesday night by Chief Justice Charles P. Daly. He said Handel excepted, had been a great song writer, and Handel had said that he would rather be the author of the sweet Irish melody of "Eileen Aroon," now known as "Robin Adair," than all the other songs in origin of "Robin Adair."

A young Irish physician of the name of Robin Adair, walking to London, stopped at an inn, where there was a Countess whose leg had been broken by the overturning of a stage coach. His proffered services were accepted, and he performed his work so skillfully that she insisted that he should not leave her. Ultimately she took him to London and introduced him to the best social circles. He became enamored of an Earl's daughter, and taught her to sing "Eileen Aroon." After a while she was parted from her by a cruel song, using it for the refrain, and at length carried by a celebrated tenor upon the English stage, where it met with the same instantaneous success as did "Home, Sweet Home."

Justice Daly said that the tune of "Auld Vesper Hymn" had its origin in a Catholic vesper hymn; that "Yankee Doodle" was originally a sword dance, and that "John Anderson, my Jo" and "Cruiskeen Lullie" were the same tune written in a different time. This tune was that of an older song than either, which ran, "There was a little man who loved a little maid," and before that, in the time of Queen Elizabeth, it was a dance.

The Chicago, Burlington, & Quincy Railroad Company has just issued an illustrated treatise, "The Heart of the Continent," describing the wonderful growth of the Six Great States. The book is beautifully printed, and numerous engravings of high merit adorn its pages. Any one sending their name and address with two three cent postage stamps will receive a copy by return mail, by applying to PERCEAL LOWELL, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, Illinois. W 51

"What makes the milk so warm?" said Betty to the milkman when he brought the pail to the door one morning. "Please, mum, the pump handle's broke and missus took the water from the boiler."

At "change of life," we observe constantly a failure of constitutional vigor, owing to the large demands made on the vital forces incident to rearing children. Prolonged nursing, constant watchfulness, brain worry and work exhaust the nervous system and arrest the work of repair. At this critical period a large number of cases have experienced the remarkable restorative power of Wheeler's Elixir of Phosphorus and Calisaya, which energizes the nervous system and promotes the functions of nutrition.

An enormous bunch of grapes, carefully enclosed in a glass case, was shown through Michigan by a peddler, who had for sale sprouts from what he said was a vine of the same variety. The exhibit was at length discovered to be waxwork.

The only natural hair renewer is Carboline, a deodorized extract of petroleum, prepared without distillation or rectification, with acids or alkalis, containing no mineral or other poisons, delightfully perfumed and as clear and pure as spring water.

The true way to mourn the dead is to take care of the living that belong to them. These are the pictures and statues of departed friends that we ought to cultivate, and not such as can be had for a few guineas from a vulgar artist.—Burke.

A Fatal Mistake would be not to take Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" if you are bilious, suffering from impure blood or febrile consumption (serofulous diseases of the lungs). Sold by all druggists.

"What do you think of my train of thought?" asked a lecturer of a supposed friend. "I thought it lacked only one thing," replied the supposed friend. "Ah!" responded the delighted lecturer, "what was that?" "A sleeping car," was the answer.

Functional derangement of the female system is quickly cured by the use of Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." It removes pain and restores health and strength. By all druggists.

Twenty-six years ago, when James Buchanan was elected President, Mrs. Eggle of Harrisburg, put a bottle of wine aside in her cellar, and said it should not be opened until Pennsylvania had elected a Democratic Governor. Last Sunday the bottle was opened and drank with much enthusiasm.

Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. No cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. By druggists.

Seven-tenths of the mail matter dispatched at the Washington Post Office go free, under frank or in free envelopes.

Important to Travellers Special inducements are offered you by the Burlington route. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere in this issue.

It is announced that DeBrazza will probably be appointed Governor of Gaboon. A man named Crozier, while on a drunken spree early yesterday morning at Toronto, was shot in the groin, the bullet tearing away the flesh and injuring the bone. Crozier tells two or three different stories of the affair. It is thought, however, that he was shot at by a notorious woman with whom he was living. The police are making inquiries.

Worth their Weight in Gold. The only natural hair renewer is Carboline, a deodorized extract of petroleum, prepared without distillation or rectification, with acids or alkalis, containing no mineral or other poisons, delightfully perfumed and as clear and pure as spring water.

The true way to mourn the dead is to take care of the living that belong to them. These are the pictures and statues of departed friends that we ought to cultivate, and not such as can be had for a few guineas from a vulgar artist.—Burke.

A Fatal Mistake would be not to take Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" if you are bilious, suffering from impure blood or febrile consumption (serofulous diseases of the lungs). Sold by all druggists.

"What do you think of my train of thought?" asked a lecturer of a supposed friend. "I thought it lacked only one thing," replied the supposed friend. "Ah!" responded the delighted lecturer, "what was that?" "A sleeping car," was the answer.

Functional derangement of the female system is quickly cured by the use of Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." It removes pain and restores health and strength. By all druggists.

Twenty-six years ago, when James Buchanan was elected President, Mrs. Eggle of Harrisburg, put a bottle of wine aside in her cellar, and said it should not be opened until Pennsylvania had elected a Democratic Governor. Last Sunday the bottle was opened and drank with much enthusiasm.

Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. No cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. By druggists.

Seven-tenths of the mail matter dispatched at the Washington Post Office go free, under frank or in free envelopes.

Important to Travellers Special inducements are offered you by the Burlington route. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere in this issue.

It is announced that DeBrazza will probably be appointed Governor of Gaboon. A man named Crozier, while on a drunken spree early yesterday morning at Toronto, was shot in the groin, the bullet tearing away the flesh and injuring the bone. Crozier tells two or three different stories of the affair. It is thought, however, that he was shot at by a notorious woman with whom he was living. The police are making inquiries.

Worth their Weight in Gold. The only natural hair renewer is Carboline, a deodorized extract of petroleum, prepared without distillation or rectification, with acids or alkalis, containing no mineral or other poisons, delightfully perfumed and as clear and pure as spring water.

The true way to mourn the dead is to take care of the living that belong to them. These are the pictures and statues of departed friends that we ought to cultivate, and not such as can be had for a few guineas from a vulgar artist.—Burke.

A Fatal Mistake would be not to take Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" if you are bilious, suffering from impure blood or febrile consumption (serofulous diseases of the lungs). Sold by all druggists.

"What do you think of my train of thought?" asked a lecturer of a supposed friend. "I thought it lacked only one thing," replied the supposed friend. "Ah!" responded the delighted lecturer, "what was that?" "A sleeping car," was the answer.

Functional derangement of the female system is quickly cured by the use of Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." It removes pain and restores health and strength. By all druggists.

MRS. LANGTRY.

Renowned Dancers with Her Change-rout, Mrs. Labouchere—Mrs. Langtry to go to Boston A. etc.

A New York despatch says: As so many different versions of the rupture between Mrs. Langtry and Mrs. Labouchere have been set afloat, a reporter to day endeavored to get at the true inwardness of the matter. Mrs. Labouchere was about to depart on a visit to friends in Richmond, Va. She denied having had an animated dispute with the "Jersey Lily," and said that she had intended accompanying Mrs. Langtry to Boston. On being pressed, she admitted her reason for refusing was that she had occasion to reconstrue unsatisfactory acquaintances she had made during her stay in New York which appeared more than likely to interfere with her future success on the stage. Mrs. Labouchere saw that the warm friendship which had been formed would be unpleasant to herself as her friend and companion, and informed Mrs. Langtry that she could under no circumstances go to Boston unless the acquaintance go preferred to an end. The Jersey beauty go to Boston alone; consequently Mrs. Labouchere was found to-day packing her trunks alone in the city where both had been honored. She thought she would take a look at Congress in Washington, and after visiting her friends in Richmond return home to England. The names of several gentlemen were mentioned who gossip to-day as the objectionable acquaintances. Among them Mr. Gebhardt, who made the acquaintance of Mrs. Langtry since her first appearance at Wallack's and afterwards praised her in warm terms at his club. With so many conflicting statements on the subject it is impossible to ascertain the definite facts.

Mr. Henry E. Abbey made public last evening a statement of the receipts from Mrs. Langtry's four weeks' performances in this city. It was sworn to by James H. Falser, treasurer. The receipts first night, including the premium obtained by the auction sale of the boxes, were $6,549.75, making the receipts for the first week, $18,765.25; receipts second week were $15,567.38; the third week, $12,532; and fourth week, ending last evening, $14,938.50, making a total of $61,803.63. A comparison of these figures with those of the Bernhardt season in New York, the prices of the latter being one-third more, and the seating capacity of Booth's Theatre being more than one-third more than Wallack's, shows, Mr. Abbey says, that to have equaled the present engagement Mlle. Bernhardt should have played to over $120,000, and that Mrs. Langtry's season was the largest ever played by a theatrical star in America.

Sullivan, the prize fighter, says that in training he relies much on the salt bath. He also eats three or four bunches of celery a day for the benefit of his nerves and respiration.

"Political lines," says the Chicago Times, "have by nature nothing whatever to do with the profits and losses of production and exchange."

The Garfield monument fair closed on Saturday night. Most of the goods were disposed of. It is estimated that the receipts will reach $22,000.

The new chapel of St. Francois Xavier on Sixteenth street, New York, was dedicated by Cardinal McCloskey on Sunday, assisted by a number of bishops and priests.

The Garfield Board of Audit allows Dr. Bliss $6,500; Agnew and Hamilton, $5,000 each; Reyburn and Boynton, $400 each; Mrs. Edson, $3,000. The Board also allows different parties $5,929 for services and supplies.

On Saturday morning Elias Stern, proprietor of a shooting gallery at Cincinnati, sat on the bed, held a looking-glass in front of his face, and, placing a pistol to his temple, shot himself dead. Despondency was the cause.

The express train with the Langtry troupe aboard, struck a wagon at the crossing at Thompsonville, near Hartford, yesterday afternoon. Patrick Lord, aged 16, was killed, and Patrick Kane and another boy were so seriously injured that they died.

Kalamazoo is astir over the elopement of John Henry, a travelling salesman, and Miss Effie Cameron, of New York, said to be a grand niece of Simon Cameron, of Pennsylvania, who was visiting Kalamazoo. The parties had been acquainted only four days.

An Italian merchant in Naples, or rather, a man who pretends to be a merchant, has attempted to swindle some Halifax merchants in the fish trade. Some time ago he wrote to three or four of them asking quotations for cod fish, pretending that he wished to make some extensive purchases by way of speculation. Two Halifax merchants sent him their prices, and in reply orders being accompanied by bills of exchange for £900 and £500 respectively, payable at a banking house in Lombard street, London. The fish were to be forwarded to Liverpool by steamer and thence transhipped to Naples. If this trial shipment proved successful, further orders would follow. The merchants who received these orders from this somewhat unusual quarter happened to meet and talk over the matter, and they decided before shipping the fish to inquire as to the standing of the Neapolitan merchant. They cabled across, and in reply were advised to have nothing to do with the man.

A young law student named Pardival, son of a painter in Quebec, has defrauded Mrs. Theberge, a widow lady, out of $1,900, which she gave him to lodge in the bank, but with which he absconded across the line.

A bookkeeper named Hart, once respectable and well off in Montreal, fell into drink, redoubling himself to penury. His wife went with her child to her father's, and Hart attempted to commit suicide, but medical aid restored him.

The Socialists of New York's Brooklyn, with the different trade unions, yesterday met on Myrtle avenue. It is designed to educate the laboring classes there by lectures, etc. There will be a well-stocked library and school for the children of the working classes.

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT

THIS INCOMPARABLE REMEDY FOR ALL THE AFFECTIONS OF THE BOWELS, IS THE ONLY ONE WHICH HUMANITY IS BORE.

It purifies, regulates and improves the quality of the blood. They assist the digestive organs, increase the energy of the system, and remove all morbid humors.

Kissing as a Cure for Freckles. One fine evening recently Mr. B., a Government employee in the town of Brunns, when on reaching a less frequented portion of the park, he saw a young lady coming in the opposite direction. As they were about to pass each other, the lady suddenly turned towards Mr. B., threw her arms around his neck and kissed him; then, as if ashamed of what she had done, she covered her face with her hands and ran off as fast as she could. The gentleman, unable to account for this agreeable surprise, followed the young lady, and taking her by the arm, asked for an explanation of her strange procedure. "I beg a thousand pardons," was the reply of the blushing damsel; "you must be greatly shocked at my behaviour. I had been to consult a 'wise woman' as to the best means of charming away the freckles on my face, and she advised me to kiss the first gentleman I met, when they would be sure to disappear." The couple continued their walk together, and though we are not told whether the singular remedy proved efficacious or not, it may interest the reader to learn that, not many days afterwards, the two were joined together for better or for worse.—Osmbruck Gazette.

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Carlyle said: "There is always a spot in our sunshine; it is the shadow of our selves."

Worth their Weight in Gold. The only natural hair renewer is Carboline, a deodorized extract of petroleum, prepared without distillation or rectification, with acids or alkalis, containing no mineral or other poisons, delightfully perfumed and as clear and pure as spring water.

The true way to mourn the dead is to take care of the living that belong to them. These are the pictures and statues of departed friends that we ought to cultivate, and not such as can be had for a few guineas from a vulgar artist.—Burke.

A Fatal Mistake would be not to take Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" if you are bilious, suffering from impure blood or febrile consumption (serofulous diseases of the lungs). Sold by all druggists.

"What do you think of my train of thought?" asked a lecturer of a supposed friend. "I thought it lacked only one thing," replied the supposed friend. "Ah!" responded the delighted lecturer, "what was that?" "A sleeping car," was the answer.

Functional derangement of the female system is quickly cured by the use of Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." It removes pain and restores health and strength. By all druggists.

Twenty-six years ago, when James Buchanan was elected President, Mrs. Eggle of Harrisburg, put a bottle of wine aside in her cellar, and said it should not be opened until Pennsylvania had elected a Democratic Governor. Last Sunday the bottle was opened and drank with much enthusiasm.

Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. No cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. By druggists.

Seven-tenths of the mail matter dispatched at the Washington Post Office go free, under frank or in free envelopes.

Important to Travellers Special inducements are offered you by the Burlington route. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere in this issue.

It is announced that DeBrazza will probably be appointed Governor of Gaboon. A man named Crozier, while on a drunken spree early yesterday morning at Toronto, was shot in the groin, the bullet tearing away the flesh and injuring the bone. Crozier tells two or three different stories of the affair. It is thought, however, that he was shot at by a notorious woman with whom he was living. The police are making inquiries.

Worth their Weight in Gold. The only natural hair renewer is Carboline, a deodorized extract of petroleum, prepared without distillation or rectification, with acids or alkalis, containing no mineral or other poisons, delightfully perfumed and as clear and pure as spring water.

The true way to mourn the