 The Christmas Tree on Monday evening last was the best we have ever seen in this village. The hall was crowded to excess. The tree was literally covered with presents, upwards of 500 having been presented. A very noticeable feature of the affair was the fact that but few trashy articles were to be found among the gifts, the majority of them being useful and ornamental articles. A very fair programme was rendered. We observed quite a large attendance from neighbouring towns, especially Beaverton, Lindsay, Cambay and Oakwood.
 Just opened out a assortment of the popular Crompton Corsets together with a lot of fancy Woollens at A. C. Campbell's, Woodville.
 In our issue of last week we had intended to announce the arrival in this village of Captain Walters, of the Canada West Land Agency. The visit of the Captain to this locality was with the object of locating several of the Society apprentices. Many of our readers are possibly not aware of the operations of the above named Company. The Canada West Land Agency has been established for the purpose of inducing English farmers of means to locate in Ontario, and to this end the Company have placed in their hands a list of lands for sale in the various counties of this Province. In addition to the sale of lands the Company undertake to bring young and active men to Canada and find them good homes, with families where they may secure a thorough knowledge of our system of agriculture. That such a society must be of incalculable value to this Province is apparent and we certainly wish it every success. We believe several apprentices are to be placed in this locality, Captain Walters having expressed himself as much pleased with this locality. Those desiring any information in reference to the above schemes should apply to Mr. J. C. Gilchrist of Woodville.
 To arrive, a case of Fancy Boxes, Japanese, also Handkerchiefs, Silk and Mestlin Ties, and Lace Collars, all in fancy boxes with mottoes at A. C. Campbell's Woodville.
