The Exchange Bank at Montreal has gone to the wall, with direct liabilities of over $2,300,000, which, with the overdrawn and unsecured accounts, are more than twice the amount of the Bank. The Shareholders, but few in number, are likely to be called upon, under the double liability provision, to make the losses good. It is the old story of having too much confidence in the manager, who has decamped to parts unknown to avoid arrest.

Very Remarkable Recovery.

Mr. Geo. V. Willing, of Manchester, Mich., writes:—My wife has been almost helpless for five years, so helpless that she could not turn over in bed alone. She used two bottles of Electric Bitters, and is so much improved, that she is able now to do her own work.

Electric Bitters will do all that is claimed for them. Hundreds of testimonials attest their great curative powers. Only fifty cents a bottle at John McKinnon's, Beaverton.

Amelia A Royase, of Cincinnati, O., and Charles Traynor, of Utica, N. Y.; were married by Justice Freeman at Erie, Pa., Saturday, and immediately afterwards the bride intimated to the groom that he would lose his train if he wasted too much time.
As he did not seem in a hurry to move, she coldly informed him that he was to go about his business as quickly as possible. Traynor took his hat, bade the bride good day, and walked out. The lady, turning to the justice, said: I am simply putting it out of my power to say 'yes' to the only man on earth it would please and hurt me to marry.
The only man I love I can never marry without bringing great sorrow on both him and me. Therefore I have married a stranger, and so placed myself beyond the reach of temptation. It is not likely I shall see this man Traynor again. He was to marry me and then go about his business.

Pimples and Blisthes.

Call at J. C. Gilchrist's Woodville or John McKinnon's Drug Store, Beaverton, and get a package of McGregor & Parke's Car-bol' Cerate. It is composed of Vaseline, Carbolic Acid and Cerate, and has never failed to remove Pimples, Blisthes, Ulcerated Sores, Rough Skin. It cures when all others fail. Try it.

An Afflicted Clergyman.

The Rev. Wm. Stout, an English clergyman, of Wiarton, was for 23 years a terrible sufferer with Scrofulous Abscess, which the best medical skill failed to cure. The internal and external use of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him, and for nearly three years he remained hale and hearty.

Sir Charles Tupper had the honor of being presented to her majesty at Windsor castle on Nov. 30, Lord Lorne, making the presentation in the unavoidable absence of Earl Derby, the colonial secretary.

A Cure for Sore Throat.

Mrs. Wm. Allen, of Acton, speaks highly of Hagar's Yellow Oil as a household remedy for colds, sore throat, stiff neck, croup, etc., as well as for burns, scalds and other injuries of common occurrence in every family.

Prince Bismarck is described as looking very ill and feeble. His face is yellow from jaundice and terribly thin. He has lost nearly all his teeth, and the elasticity and vigour that used to characterize his gait are all gone.

The most discouraging Cough, as well as Brouchitis and Hoarseness, yield at once to the influence of DOWNS' ELIXIR. Pamphlets

Tox, Montreal, Que., or John McKinnon, Beaverton.

Dr. Abernethy's advice was to always eat salt with nuts. A lady once died from eating too many of the hard-shelled fruit.
Dr. Abernethy examined her stomach and found the nuts in a solid mass. Taking a little salt, he sprinkled it over the mass, which immediately dissolved.

How often do we hear of the sudden fatal termination of a case of croup, when a young life might have been saved by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Be wise in time, and keep a bottle of it on hand, ready or instant use.

"Man... below," wrote Oliver didn't stop to censing that the man who is going to build a house wants a lot.

Mr. C. F. Rigging, Beamsville, writes:
"A customer who tried a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery says it is the best thing he ever used; to quote his own words, 'It just seems to touch the spot affected.' About a year ago he had an attack of bilious fever, and was afraid he was in for another, when I recommended this valuable medicine with such happy results."

Ho Speaks From Experience.

R. N. Wheeler, of Everton, some six years ago was attacked with a severe form of inflammation of the lungs, leaving him with a severe cough. He speaks highly of Hagar's Pectoral Balsam, which cured him, the complaint not having troubled

This and That

The English liberal public have recently been paying high honors to John Bright.
The great quaker orator has now been in Parliament a quarter of a century, and unlike other public men, he has not grown more Conservative with advancing years.
He is as ardent a liberal as he was when he first entered public life. He resigned from the Gladstone ministry because he could not conscientiously approve of the bombardment of Alexandria, and the unprovoked war upon the people of Egypt. In his answers to the congratulatory addresses of his admirers, he took occasion to refer to the project for uniting Great Britain to the continent, by means of a tunnel under the channel which separates England from France. The enterprise, which would be of incalculable benefit to the business interests of all Western Europe, and most of all to Great Britain herself, has been opposed by all classes of public men in England, because they fear that the tunnel, if constructed, would put the British islands at the mercy of the various armies of the continental nations. Mr. Bright ridiculed these fears as chimerical benefits, which would follow the connection between the British railway system and that of the continent: Sir John Hawkshaw, a famous engineer, stated that there are no engineering difficulties in the construction of the tunnel which could not be easily surmounted. It could be finished in eight years, and the cost would not exceed $40,000,000. He estimates there will be 2,000,000 of passengers passing through it annually, and that the freight business would not be less than 1,200,000 tons. The income, he estimates, would be nearly $5,000,000 annually, and allowing forty per cent. for working expenses, there will be a profit of seven per cent. The tunnel will be one hundred and eighty feet below the bed of the channel, and in case a war should break out it would be an easy matter to make it useless to an invading force. It does not require any great amount of imagination to show how important would be the practical annexation of England to the continent of Europe. True, a vast amount of shipping would be rendered useless, but then the transportation of passengers and merchandise would be cheapened, and much valuable time saved. The powerful material interests involved will necessitate in time the construction of this tunnel, and when completed, it will be one of the wonders of the world.—Demorest Monthly.

IT NEVER FAILS! N. H. Down's Vegetable Balsamic Elixir has stood the test for Faces as yellow as that of the "Heathen Chinese," in consequence of bile in the blood green fair and wholesome-looking again when Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and great blood purifier is used to relax constipated bowels and expel the bilious poison from the circulation. Rheumatic and bile impurities are also driven out by it, digestion restored, and the system benefited in every way by its use.

Caution.

We advise all who are afflicted with a cough or cold to beware of opiates and all medicines that smother and check a cough suddenly, as serious results surely follow.
Hagar's Pectoral Balsam loosens and breaks up coughs and colds in a safe and effectual manner.
