Young People's Association.

A very useful and entertaining Association has been organized by the worthy pastor of the Methodist church in the shape of a Young People's Association which will meet weekly for mutual improvement. It is undenominational and we hope to see its evenings taken advantage of. Such an institution has long been needed and we wish it every success.

Shaped and strapped for $1.50 per pair and up. Everything else equally cheap, at J. J. Glover's, Beaverton.

The Weather.

Our oldest inhabitant rises to remark that the weather of the week is altogether too fine to mean well and that a "green Christmas" is not desirable from many points of view. We agree with him.

The BEAVERTON EXPRESS is acknowledged to be the best $1 paper in North Ontario. This is no "Chestnut" but a deliberate and hard-shelled fact. Send 25cts for a trial trip and be convinced.

Children Cry for

Would Not Pay.

A skating rink in town just now would find itself at a hopeless discount. The ice on the river above the dam is excellent and is daily covered with enthusiastic skaters.

Farmers, Mechanics and Laborers.

Having seen one of Hodgson's small bills, the wonder to me is where he gets his goods, to be able to sell them at his quotations. The ready cash must do it. I would advise everyone to patronize him for having lowered the prices of goods more than any merchant that ever came into the place.—A THORAU FARMER.

Accident.

Mr. Jno. Riley, moulder, is again the subject of a painful accident. While casting on Monday, he had the misfortune to have a sharp "needle" of hot iron pass almost through his hand. He is now laid up and will be for sometime.

Cash and Wide Awake Buyers.

Call at the store and get one of our small bills (which have shattered the prices of our opponents so badly) before buying any line of Christmas goods. J. Hodgson, Beaverton.

These Hens.

The Bay Street hens have long been known as impertinent upstarts in the egg business but it remained for the big egg mama to develop a craze in that locality which bids fair unless suppressed to overwhelm the less favored bipeds of this town with utter confusion. Constable Edgar reports an egg laid for him one day last week as 6 1/2 by 8 1/2 inches. This monstrosity we are given to understand is to become the standard for Bay Street Eggs and all offers of an "inferior article will be rejected with scorn." The bombastic arrogance of this latter clause will send a thrill of jealous envy through the breast of every well-to-do hen in town and it is just possible that extravagant results may follow.

Wedding and Christmas Presents.

We have more Crockery and Glassware (colored and white, larger variety and at 1/3 less prices) than any other store in the county carries. Nice wedding and Christmas presents. J. Hodgson, Beaverton.

Pork Wanted.

I am now prepared to pay the highest price for dressed hogs. D. McLachlan, Woodville.

Subscribe for THE ADVOCATE for 1888.

Presbytery of Lindsay.

The Presbytery of Lindsay met in St. Andrew's Church, E'don, on Monday last. Rev. D. McTavish was appointed Moderator. The resignation of Rev. J. Gillies was accepted and Rev. Rebt. Gunn appointed to declare the church vacant on Sunday next. Our report of last week stating that Rev. Mr. Ross would declare its vacancy on Sabbath last was incorrect.

Novelties.

Now to hand a large assortment of Novelties for the Christmas trade at J. C. Gilchrist's, Woodville.

To Our Readers.

We cannot too strongly urge upon our readers the necessity of subscribing for a family weekly newspaper of the first class—such, for instance, as "The Independent," of New York. Were we obliged to select one publication for habitual and careful reading to the exclusion of all others, we should choose unhesitatingly "The Independent." It is a newspaper, magazine and review, all in one. It is a religious, a literary and educational, a story, an art, a scientific, an agricultural, a financial and a political paper combined. It has 32 folio pages and 21 departments. No matter what a person's religion, politics, or profession may be, no matter what the age, sex, employment or condition may be, "The Independent" will prove a help, an instructor, an educator. Our readers can do no less than to send a postal for a free specimen copy, or for 50 cents the paper will be sent a month, enabling one to judge of its merits more critically. Its yearly subscription is $3 or two years for $5. Those who desire to subscribe for the "American Agriculturalist" as well as the "Independent" cannot make a better bargain than by accepting the "Independent's" offer to send both papers for one year for the sum of $3.75. Each subscriber will thus save seventy-five cents on the two papers. Address, "The Independent," 251 Broadway, New York City.

The Bottom Gone.

The bottom is knocked completely out of the old idea that large places are the only ones in which a good fitting suit can be obtained. Let us tell you, gentle reader, that we can give you a suit which cannot be beaten in any respect by city tailors at much lower prices. Jno. K. Campbell, Woodville.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
