THE MAN WAS ACQUITTED WHO WAS LAST WITH WILLIAM MILLER

Vincent Penrose Was Exonerated at the Preliminary Trial

The investigation as to the cause of death of William Miller was continued on Friday last at Severn before Coroner McLean of Orillia. The crown attorney of Barrie appeared for the crown and Mr. M. J. Kenny was the chief witness being the last man known to be with Miller. Much interest centered around the evidence of the bartender who under cross-examination by Mr. Kenny said he was mistaken in the evidence he had given and that he then recollected Vincent Penrose having told him that night, when he arrived at the hotel, Miller on the way from the station.

Mrs. Overend, the hotelkeeper's wife was next called as a witness, and she said she remembered that the bartender told her early in the morning about the conversation he had had during the night with Penrose about Miller. This clearly showed that Penrose's account was undoubtedly true. The doctor's report said that there was no fracture and that the condition of the skull was more likely to have been caused by a fall than by a blow.

Witnesses proved that a single footprint was traced by them from where the body was found to where the deceased had evidently fallen on the railroad track just at a frog where they said he must have injured his head. A copy of the Lindsay Post found at this point still further corroborated the evidence of the witnesses.

Tracing still further back there was only the one track and the opinion of the doctors was that Miller could have walked from where he had fallen to where the body was found. Penrose did not send a message to Miller and had been working in Orillia at the time. He did not leave Severn the next morning but instituted a search for the lost man. The coroner did not place him under arrest and he was only caused to appear as a witness. The investigation thoroughly satisfied all parties that no shadow of suspicion could attach to Penrose.

Hymenial

CLARKE-SADLER

On Christmas Day the handsome residence of Mr. Thos. Sadler, was the scene of a happy event, when his daughter Alice, and Dr. Adam Clarke, B.A. of Laurier, Man., were married. The house decorations of cut flowers and blooming and foliage plants were exquisite.

Rev. E. Roberts and Rev. Thos. Manning, B.A., pastor of Cambridge-st. Methodist church performed the ceremony.

The bride was clad in white organdie with Valenciennes lace, and carried white crysanthemums. Miss Sangster of Quebec was bridesmaid. She wore white organdie also. Little Jessie Lummis of Toronto, niece of the bride was a charming maid of honor, with Master Ruben Sadler for her escort. The groom was supported by his brother, Dr. S. Clarke of Millbrook. The bride's father gave her away. Mrs. Jackson played the wedding march.

The doctor and his bride left on the evening train for a short honeymoon in Western Ontario, after which they will proceed to Laurier, where the doctor located after graduation last spring. Dr. and Mrs. Clarke were among the most popular young people of this town and the Watchman-Warder joins with a multitude of friends in wishing them long and happy life.

A Quarrel That Began in an Unexpected Manner.

They had been married three weeks and had just commenced housekeeping. He was starting to town one morning, and she followed him to the door. They had their arms wrapped round each other, and she was saying:

"Oh, Clarence, do you think it possible that the day can ever come when we shall part in anger?"

"Why, no, little puss," he said. "Of course not. What put that foolish idea into my little birdie's head, eh?"

"Oh, nothing, dearest! I was only thinking how perfectly dreadful it would be if one of us should speak harshly to the other."

"Well, don't think of such wicked, utterly impossible things any more," he said. "We can never, never quarrel."

"I know it, darling. Goodby, you dear, dear old precious! Goodby. Oh, wait a second, Clarence. I've written a note to mamma. Can't you run round to the house and leave it for her some time today?"

"Why, yes, dearie, if I have time." "You have time! Oh, Clarence!"

"What is it, little girlie?"

"Oh, to say if you 'have time' to do almost the very first errand your little wife asks you to do."

"Well, well, dearie. I'm awfully busy just now."

"Too busy to please me? Oh, Clarence, you hurt my feelings so!"

"Why, child, I—"

"I'm not a child, Clarence. I'm a married woman, and I—"

"There, there, my pet. I—"

"No, no, Clarence. If I was your pet, you'd try to—"

"But, Abel, do be reasonable." "Oh, Clarence, don't speak to me so!"

"Abel, be sensible, and—"

"Go on, Clarence, go on. Break my heart."

"Stuff and nonsense!" "Oh, o-o-oh!"

"What have I said or done?" "As if you need to ask! But go. Hate me if you will, Clarence, I—"

"This is rank nonsense!" "I'll go back to mamma if you want me to. She loves me, if you don't."

"You must be crazy!" "Oh, yes; sneer at me, ridicule me! Perhaps you had better strike me!" He bangs the door, goes down the steps with a jump and races off, muttering something about women being the "queerest creatures."

Of course they'll make it up at night, and they'll have many such a little tiff in the years to come, and when they are old they'll say, "We've lived together forty-five years and never—no, never—spoke a cross word to each other in all that time."

FENELON FALLS HAPPENINGS

A Happy New Year to all the readers of The Watchman-Warder.

Now write it 1902.

Mr. Culp of Hamilton and his sister Miss Culp are spending their vacation with their uncle Mr. Wm. McArthur.

Miss Mattie Robertson of Peterboro is the guest of her grandmother Mrs. M. Brandon.

Miss B. Clark, who has been the guest of her sister Mrs. (Dr.) White in Kinnmount for some months is home for the Christmas vacation.

Miss B. McDiarmid, who has been teaching in Kinnmount is home for the vacation.

Miss H. J. Austin of Belleville spent the holidays with her parents.

Mr. J. Austin and Miss Ella Austin of Kinnmount were home for Christmas.

Mr. H. McDougall spent the holidays with his family.

Mr. Harry McKendry of Toronto is spending the vacation with his parents.

Mr. H. Austin of Toronto spent Christmas with his mother.

Mr. G. Eade of Somerville is home from the Northwest.

Mrs. T. Sadler and the Misses Jordan returned from Lindsay last Friday after attending the wedding of Miss Alice Sadler and Dr. Clarke, on Christmas Day. Mrs. Sadler was accompanied by a large party of friends who will spend New Year's with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Gourlay of Galt spent Christmas at the Falls, Mrs. Gourlay will remain the guest of her mother Mrs. Johnston for some weeks.

Messrs. W. J. and E. McKendry of Lindsay came home for Christmas and New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Heard spent a few days this week the guests of Mr. B. Burchall in Somerville.

Messrs. T. H. De Cew, J. De Cew, J. De Cew, and the Misses Wilson and W. Church, Miss De Cew, Miss De Cew's camp in Somerville. They returned in the evening after a delightful day as the weather was not too cold, just sufficient to hold the sleighing.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKendry left on Monday afternoon on their annual visit to friends in Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Austin and family spent New Year's Day with friends in Verulam.

Fenelon Falls is particularly gay this season, and small dances, card parties and other festive gatherings are of frequent occurrence.

An exchange of real estate took place last Saturday when Mr. W. Northey purchased the lot adjoining his place of business. We understand the land was obtained at a reasonable figure from Mr. J. A. Ellis and we trust the present prosperity of Mr. Northey will continue.

The preacher sends greetings to Paul in the far off land. May the vineyard prosper and the Christmas joys be numerous. The dose was taken as directed, "after each meal."

It was altogether too large to be taken save in instalments.

Our famous hockey team played a friendly game with Lindsay on the latter's rink on New Year's night, the result of which we will chronicle next week.

On Friday evening the same team played Omemeo on the Falls rink. Another friendly game when we bespeak for the home team an easy victory.

The Rev. Wm. Farncomb was waited upon by a number of the members of St. Peter's church last Friday evening and presented with a well filled purse and a handsome set of glassware and some beautiful table linen as a Christmas gift to himself and Mrs. Farncomb. Just previous to Christmas the ladies of the Sisterhood of St. James presented him with a handsome silken stole and the offertory on Christmas Day was also a kind remembrance from his village parishioners. Mr. Farncomb is a gentleman of sterling qualities and will be greatly missed when he leaves Fenelon Falls, as we regret to hear he purposes doing in the near future.

The nominations took place on Monday and passed very quietly. Mr. Wm. McArthur, the present reeve resigned, and Mr. J. McFarland was elected by acclamation to fill the position for 1902. The other nominations were as follows: For councillors—G. H. Magee, Geo. Martin, Dr. Gould, John Slater, P. Sandford, Jos. Heard, Harry Robson, Thos. Austin, John Jones, T. H. DeCew; for school trustees—W. Mark DeCew, A. McIntosh, Thos. Austin, Dr. Graham, Jos. Nevison, Jos. Heard, S. Brokenshire, F. McDougall and Jos. McFarland. Some of these gentlemen have since resigned but it is highly likely that there will be an election. Some short speeches were made, the longest by Mr. McArthur, who gave a short account of the very satisfactory work done during 1901. We trust the new council, when elected, will work as well for the public weal.

The following guests registered at the Brooks House during the past two weeks:—Mrs. A. C. Holmes and children, Kinnmount; Wm. Thompson, Orillia; Sam Nicholson, Cannington, N.D., U.S.A.; Thos. Johnson, Peterboro; John Kelly, Parry Sound; Bernard Walsh, Sault Ste. Marie; James Thurston, Dunsford; G. H. Jewell, Bracebridge; J. G. Brown, Toronto; M. Howland, Bancroft; S. Eck, Newmarket; J. C. Ray, G. H. M. Baker, S. Hughes, M.P., M. Sherman, Alf. Parkin, Bob. Halliday, W. Steers, James Beggs and A. Smith and wife, Lindsay; Messrs. Muldoon and C. E. Stewart, Halliburton; Mr. Matthews, wife and children, Halliburton; F. Russell and J. W. Hart, Cobocok; H. Thompson, E. Walsh, Geo. Cash, Dr. Bonnell, W. Cross, well and wife, Jos. Power, Mrs. Dartnell and son, Rev. Mr. Connors, H. S. Garlick, L. J. Garlick, R. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Nutt and daughter, Robt. Patterson, Eli Anderson, Ed. Grant and Wm. Patterson, Bobayev-Groat.

Mr. H. V. Ackart of Uxbridge and Miss M. Archer of Fenelon Falls were quietly married at the Methodist parsonage at Fenelon Falls on Monday afternoon. Miss J. Graham performed the duties of bridesmaid, while the groom was assisted by Mr. A. Gould. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for their future home bearing with them the good wishes of their many friends.

REABORO

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Greer of Midland are visiting friends at Reaboro and vicinity.

R. W. Reeds of Grant, Hamilton Oil company paid a four days' visit to home.

J. T. Calvert is spending his holidays under the parental roof.

Jas. R. Robinson of the Gendron Bicycle Works has engaged with Geo. E. Rea for the next year.

There was a large attendance at our school meeting expecting lots of fun but it all passed off and nobody got hurt.

KINMOUNT

The people's "Jimmy" Wilson is making great success in his canvass for reeve of Somerville. Best wishes for success.

On Friday last the barn and contents belonging to J. T. Beech who lives in Cavendish, was totally destroyed by fire caused by the upsetting of a lantern. Mr. Beech lost a valuable team and ten or twelve head of cattle. There was a small insurance.

The many friends of Mr. Gil. Scott will hear with regret that he is still very low and doubts are expressed as to his ultimate recovery.

The funeral of the late Manly Card who was killed in a mine near Sudbury took place on Christmas Day to the village cemetery.

Bound to Sound Their "H."

The English middle classes have had so much fun poked at them for dropping the letter "h" and for carrying it forward and placing it where it should not be, possibly thus to obey the laws of compensation, that they have become sensitive on the subject, and many aspirate the "h" with double force when the letter should be aspirated. Instead of saying "before him," as Americans do, with a light aspiration, they will say "before him," taking a full and deep breath when they utter the second word, shooting it out as if it came from a popgun. Dropping the "h" is not new for ordinary English folk. It is a new trick to aspirate it with double the force required.

Oyster Shells.

One thousand bushels of shucked oysters leave about 1,100 bushels of shells, which accumulate in great heaps about the shucking houses. The oyster shells landed on the shores of Maryland during the last ninety years have been reckoned at 12,000,000 tons—a quantity twice sufficient to overload and sink every sailing vessel, steam vessel, barge and canalboat in America.
