-Two miners, Kent and Walsh, of Westville, N.S., have been arrested on suspicion of having attempted to blow open the safe in the Bank of Nova Scotia.

-George Rankin who died at the Soo the other day, was at one time an unsuccessful Liberal candidate for the local Legislature for the county of Kent. He was a brother of McKee Rankin, the author.

-Borth and Clark, two workmen in the foundry of Jackson and Cochrane, Berlin, had an altercation which led to serious results the other day. Forth made a move to hit Clarke, but the latter lifted his shovel and struck his would-be assailant a terrible blow on his left arm just above the elbow. The arm may have to be amputated.
