

Good Things Often Comes to Those that Wait

This is true if there is a man or boy in Victoria County who has put off buying his Winter Suit or Overcoat until now, he will reap the benefit We Have Had a Big Season's Trade. This means many broken lines and lonely sizes to be sold at manufacture's prices.

He Earned the Hat. Barty Hilliard, who many years ago lived in a small town in northern Vermont, was noted for his careless vagabond habits, ready wit and remarkable facility for extempore rhyming.

We Duplicate Chandeliers. "Did you ever notice," said the observing man, "that every public building has chandeliers unlike those of any other public building? There are no duplicates. You go into one church and you see a handsome chandelier that would seem worth while to duplicate for another church.

Golden Wedding at Cabourg. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Cox, of Cabourg, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage on Monday evening, January 7, on which occasion they received many beautiful gifts, among them being a Morris chair and gold-headed cane presented by the sons to Mr. Cox.

Little Britain. An error appeared in the item under this heading in last week's issue of Davidson Mills. It should have read, "cleaned grain will be ground for the next 30 days for five cents a bag."

Shorthorn Bulls for Sale. "Strathallans," sired by a "Braw with Brind" bull, one of the best in America. The Bulls offered are ready for service, are of the fleshy desirable sort, and seeing them is enough to convince intending purchasers.

Promises to the Dykes. A clergyman, discussing unhappy love affairs, said: "There is a love tragedy is caused by a husband's promise to a dying wife that he will not marry again. He thinks when he makes this promise that it will be easy to keep. Whether it is easy or hard to keep, it is a promise rarely if ever broken.

Famous Collection of Antlers. Of the famous collections of antlers formed in the seventeenth century only two or three have escaped the general fate of confiscations, sieges and pillage. One of these is in Moritzburg, the king of Saxony's historical hunting castle, near Dresden, while in the celebrated gun gallery in Dresden itself are to be seen in an unrivaled show the wonderfully mild arms used by the elector.
