THURSDAY, JAN.

McLennan & Co.

Washing Machines Clothes Wringers Step Ladders Wheel Barrows

Curtain Stretchers Bird Cages Horse Clippers Poultry Netting

Alabastine Kalsomine Prism Paint Floor Wax

Portland Cement Glazed Sewer Pipe Fire Bricks Fire Clay

Hardware, Coal, Iron

If you need a new suit or overcoat call and see our new line of goods for fall and winter. Prices right. Satisfaction guaranteed

Lou Wickett

2nd door to Post Printing Office Lindsay (

Marble and Granite Monuments

Still doing business in the same old stand but not in the same old way. We advance with the times andare in a position to do better work than ever. New designs, new granites, new and mproved tools and methods, in fact the most up-to-date Marble and Granite Works in this part of Ontario. Get our prices and see our designs before purchasing.

Shop and show rooms 11 & 13 Cambridge St., immediately north of Fire

Lindsay Marble Works R. CHAMBERS, Prop

the piano that has the best tone and has all the modern improvements that people are after to-day.

The Heintzman fills the bill in every respect, and is also moderate in price.

SEWING MACHINES

Of the highest quality and built for endurance. Communicate with

P. J. BREEN, Agent Lindsay

A PRETTY PICTURE

Is always worth Framing and you will often be surprise dat it's appearance when Frame !

> We have just received a large shipment of American Moulding and will give a Special Low Price on Work recei ed during the next month.

Bring Your Picture in and let us quote you for a Frame on it.

Henley Bros.,

Near the Market Kent-st.

June, July and August leads into our Fall Term without any break. Enter any time. New Catalogue free. Write for it to-day. Central Business College, Toronto, The largest, most reliable of its kind. W. H. Shaw, Principal Yonge and Gerrard Streets, Toronto.

 Grand Christmastide

Finds us with just what will please, cheer and profit as a gift to wife or daughter and joy to all the home as well, in one of our BEAUTI-FUL HIGH GRADE ART BELL PIANOS or far famed BELL ORGAN. One of our light running fully equipped Sewing machines will always be appreciated. We have them in best Canadian and American makes, also Karn Pianos and Columbia Gramophones.

"Special Prices During

WM. WARREN

P. O. BOX 217 William-St., LINDSAY, Ont. Opposite St. Andrew's Church.

ANNOUNCEMENT

TO CONTRACTORS AND PARTIES WHO INTEND BUILDING:

Our factory has been rebuilt and equipped with the most modern and up-to-date wood working machinery. We are in a position to furnish all kinds of Lumber for Building Purposes.

We manufacture Doors, Sash, Frames, Base, Casings, Mouldings, Inside and Outside Trimmings. All kiln dried. We are the sole manufacturers of Painted and Grained Lumber in the Province. Parties having their own lumber can have it dressed and matched on short notice.

All goods manufactured by ourselves must be as represented. Our Motto: "Fairness, Promptness, Satisfaction."

The Kennedy & Davis Milling Co., Limited

Office and yara East side Wellington Street Bridg **************

It Will Pay You

Deccessorososososososipososososososos

WHEN IN TOWN TO CALL at Anderson, Nugent & Co.'s and inspect their new stock of

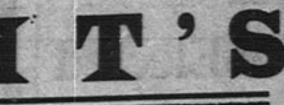

HIGH-CLASS FURNITURE

EYERY LINE COMPLETE.

THE FINEST RANGE OF GOODS EVER SHOWN IN THIS DISTRICT.

Anderson, Nugent & Co

Kent Street, Lindsay Undertaking in all its Branches. ***************************

New Mayor Based on G.H. Broadhurst's Successful Play THE MAN

CHAPTER XL

T sound of the breaking fan all three participants in strange reunion turned. For a second or more they faced the crimson faced, dumfounded Perry without a word. Here was an element in the affair on which neither Phelan nor Cynthia had counted when giving Thompson their promise not to reveal his identity. They gradually realized this, and it left even the ready witted Phelan speechless.

Perry himself was first to break the "Well," he observed, with an assumption of airy scorn that was meant to be annihilating. "you all seem quite happy. Don't mind me! I'm sorry to butt in on this cute little love fest, but I left a fiancee here. Perhaps one of you can explain what's happened to her since I"-

"Oh, Perry," exclaimed Cynthia, "don't be silly! I'll tell you all about it some time. It is"-

"Some time!" squealed Perry, rage battering down his attempt at sarcasm. "Some time! Maybe it might be just as well if you did condescend to explain. Here you promise to marry me, and ten minutes later I find you in a catch-as-catch-can hug with this ugly little shrimp and Phelan looking on as happy as if he'd eaten a canary! And then you've got the gall to tell me ing, and the least I can do is to repay you'll explain 'some time!' "

He glared at Cynthia in all the majesty of outraged devotion, only to sur- on whom the unmarried state of his prise on that young lady's face a look | four fast aging girls rested heavily. | older than"that indicated a violent struggle with "I'm sure Mrs. Newman will be the desire to laugh.

he snapped. "Cynthia, you've mauled and smashed a loving heart, and I'll fly. "You and I are too old friends, make a hit with myself by forgiving judge, to"you, but as for you," wheeling about and thrusting his furious face to within three inches of Thompson's immobile countenance-"as for you, I'm goutes after I'd"-

"There!" interposed Phelan, shoving his powerful hulk good naturedly between the two younger men and linkgot quite a bunch of hot words off your chest, an' you'll be in better shape | let up on them now?" to hear sense. Ain't you just a little bit ashamed?" "Ashamed?" sputtered Perry. "Who? I? Well, that"- did you happen to be in love with this young lady?"

"It's none of your measly business, you for keeps?"

"Because I loved her and"-"Because you had a lot of faith in her, too, hey?" persisted the alderman. "Yes, and a nice way she's"- "Pretty girl, too," mused Phelan as if to himself. "In my young days if I asked me to speak to you said"could 'a' got a little beauty like that to sign articles with me I'd 'a' thought I was the original Lucky Jim. I'd"-"So did I!" interrupted Perry hotly.

But Phelan was continuing in the same abstract monologue:

"An' if I could 'a' seen from her eyes (like any dough head could see from Miss Garrison's) that she had a heart as big as a watermeron an' as true as a Bible text an' as warm as a happy man's hearth fire-well, if I'd seen all that an' got wise to the gorgeous news that that same heart was just chock-a-block full of love for my own ornery, cheap skate self I'd 'a' flopped down on both knees an' sent up a bunch of prayers to be allowed to Phelan paused. This time Perry did not break in, and the half audible monalogue continued:

"I'd have had the sense to know that a girl with eyes like those couldn't be a flirt an' couldn't double cross the man she loved if her life depended on her doin' it. I'd 'a' licked any guy that said she could, an' if I'd seen her kissin' another man I'd 'a' punched myself on the jaw an' called myself a liar. That's what Jimmy Phelan of the Eighth would 'a' done. An' "-"Say," broke in Perry in a curiously subdued voice. "These eyes of mine do funny things sometimes. I'll bet $9 they played a joke on me just now. And even if they didn't I don't believe em. Cynthia, I'm dead stuck on you! You're all right even if you did happen to be acting a trifle eccentric a few for his lackey and go-between." minutes ago. You can explain or not, as you like. If you'll just say you love me, that's ace high with yours truly."

He slipped an arm about her waist as he spoke, awkwardly seeking to atone for his recent anger. The secretary looked at them for an instant, then said briefly: "You can tell him, Cynthia. He's a good fellow. Come on, alderman. I a bribe, pure and simple, and worthy think you and I still have something the modern highwaymen who made it, to say to each other."

Cynthia and Perry drifted away to- of my own blameless father-that you ward the conservatory again, quite ob- should come to me on such a vile erlivious of the others, while Phelan and the secretary made their way to a deserted alcove off the ballroom. "I've been looking all over for you,

Mr. Bennett." called Judge Newman. hurrying out through the chain of anterooms as Alwyn wandered out of the ballroom into the foyer a few moments the older man cordially. He had known | rand turns me sick. Heaven help justhe judge as long as he could remem- | tice and right when our judges can be ber and had always had a decided lik- controlled by a political boss and a ing for the pompous henpecked little | roll of bills! That's all! I don't care dignitary. Surrounded as he was by to go further into the subject!" political intrigue, heartache and association with rogues, the harassed young man rather welcomed the variety prom- wrath, speechless with amazement. In

"Anything Important, judge?" he repeated. "Or are you just taking pity on a lonely chap and giving him a his boyhood.

"Well," began the judge, his customary air of pom-> ness tinged by an almost don't mind dis> > a ball."

honor of danc-He slipped an arm ing with three about her waist as of your daughters this even-such pleasure by"-"Did you, really?" beamed the judge, Mr. Bennett is too well bred to insult "This is funny all right, I guess not!" You-you won't misunderstand me"-"Of course not," replied Alwyn heart-

> "I hope so; I hope so," conceded Newman, with growing anxiety in his tone.

"You see"-"I see you have some trouble coming ing to do all sorts of things to you the to the point," said Alwyn, pitying the moment Miss Garrison will have the judge's evident discomfiture, "and I'm Your sorrowful relatives will have all ther's friend, and I like to think of you manner of fun sorting you out when as one of my own best friends. There I've finished with you! Steal my surely should be no hesitation in asksweetheart, would you, not ten min- ing anything in my power to grant" Thus emboldened Newman blurted

ing his arm in Perry's. "Now you've ough franchise bill, if you don't mind my saying so, Bennett. Couldn't you | turning the affair to account of office I must fight it."

"My boy," said the judge in a fatherly manner that he had often found successful in argument, "I was in poli-"Why'd you ask her to hitch up with | tics long before you were born, and I'm | speaking for your own good when I Bennett refused to"say I deeply regret the stand you've taken in this matter. You objected to the bill in its original form. Almost every change you demanded has been made in it. As the gentlemen who

He checked himself a minute too late. The narrowing of Bennett's eyes and the vanishing of the friendly light in the young man's face warned Newman he had made a fatal error. "So you come to me as an emissary, not as a friend," said Bennett slowly, "and the 'gentlemen' you come from"-"Are the men who represent all that can make or break your career-capital and political organization." "In other words, Wainwright and Horrigan?"

main neutral: that you"-"That I look the other way while they rob the city?" "I am an old man, Bennett," evaded the judge, trying another tack, "and Gibbs. go on dreamin' an' never, never wake I've seen one rash step wreck many a bright career, just as this will wreck yours. Never antagonize wealth and the organization. The public for whom you sacrifice yourself will forget you in a month. Capital and politics never

"I am not catering to the public. am acting as my own conscience"-"But this is stubbornness, not conscience. All you have to do is to remain neutral. If you do this I am authorized to promise you-now, listen -to promise you the nomination for governor when your term as"-"That's the bait, is it?" cried Alwyn angrily. "If I consent to betray my trust I'll get the governorship. The bribe is golden, and I don't wonder at Horrigan for offering it. The only thing that surprises me is that he

"'Lackey!' 'Bribe!' 'Go-between!'" echoed the judge in real indignation. "How dare you, sir? This"- should have chosen such a man as you

"Isn't it a bribe," insisted Alwyn, "and weren't you the man chosen to offer it? It will do you no good to bluster or grow indignant. In your heart you know the words I used were deserved. The governorship offer was but that you, a judge-a former friend bade me to tell you. He was afraid and also of a large number of beau-$100,000,000.

piles. See testimonials in the press and ask of the knowledge he is trying to kill of the knowledge he is trying to knowledge he is trying to knowledge he is trying to knowledge he is nett, pausing in his stroll and greeting | DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

Bennett walked away, leaving the lit tle judge to stare after him, pink with ised by a chat with his old friend of all his sixty years no man had thus laid bare to Newman his own heart, stripped of its garments of respectability and self deception. And, as usual in such cases, now that the truth chance to chat with you over old had been driven home to him, Newman wrathfully denounced it, even to himself, as a lie.

Still flushed and incoherent, he wheeled to face a trio who were just returning from the supper room. They were Dallas, Gibbs and Wainwright.

"Hello!" exclaimed Wainwright in surprise. "What's the matter with you, would like to judge? Are you ill?" "If-if Mrs. Newman should come to business talk know of this," sputtered the judge. with you if you glaring from one to the other, "she"-"To know of what?" queried Gibbs. cussing work at | "What has happened?" "Happened?" fumed Newman. "1

"Not at all, have been insulted-grossly, vulgarly "Insulted, judge?" repeated Dallas.

> "By Alwyn Bennett!" snapped the judge. "Outrageously"-"Impossible!" exclaimed Dallas. "There must be a mistake somewhere > any man, much less a man so much

"A gentleman, is he? I should not pleased. But this business matter. have believed it. He has insulted me "I'm not surprised," observed Wain-

> "I am," announced Dallas. "Naturally." sneered Wainwright. "If you can remain on speaking terms with him after his abominable treatment of me you can easily overlook any other

"Tell us about it, judge," interposed kindness to shassay out of the room. sorry you feel so. You were my fa- Gibbs, seeking to avert any further clash between uncle and niece. "I went to him." began Newman, brutality of his."

"bearing a request from-from"-The judge paused. It was not whol- | you?" ly easy to present matters to this bonest eyed young girl in such a way as "I-we-that is, seems to me you to bring her in his way of thinking. have been a little hard upon this Bor- But Wainwright felt no difficulty. His shrewd brain caught at a means of

"You see, Dallas," the financier broke "Why, no, judge, I can't," replied in, with a warning glance to Newman, Bennett, still failing to connect New- "I begged the judge to intercede for man with the Wainwright-Horrigan | me with Bennett, to ask him to bury clique and attributing the judge's in- the hatchet and let us be friends again "Yes, you, youngster, and if you hol- terest in the matter to an amateur's for the sake of old times. I thought ler like that in comp'ny I'll sure be love of dabbling in politics. "I can't | Judge Newman's age and his high offorced to wind up by spankin' you. | let up on that fight," he continued. "All | fice would compel a certain respect Now, stand off there-no, over there perpetual franchises are wrong, and even with a man of Bennett's characwhere you can see Miss Garrison-an' this particular franchise bill is rotten ter. But I was wrong, and I am sorry, listen to me. So! Now, first of all, to the core. In sheer justice to my oath judge, for the unjust humiliation I aused you."

"I don't understand," said Dallas, looking in bewilderment from one to the other. "Judge, my uncle sent you to make overtures of peace? And Mr.

"He not only refused, but called Mr. Wainwright a highwayman and"-

"But why?" demanded Dallas. "He pretended to misunderstand what "Oh, it was a conditional offer, then?

I thought"-"Certainly there were conditions," eut in Wainwright, again coming to the emissary's rescue. "I asked that he take a position of neutrality in regard to this Borough bill. Simply neutral, mind you. Not to change his attitude in its favor, or"-"That was a splendidly fair offer," cried Gibbs enthusiastically.

"So it seemed to me," agreed Newman, "but Bennett would not listen when I tried to point out his proper "Yes. All they ask is that you re- line of duty. He called me a go-between and"-

> "Even after you told him we were granting practically all the concessions he had asked in the bill?" queried "Yes," said Newman. "He must have some motive behind it all. I can't"-

> "Nonsense!" exclaimed Dallas. "What ulterior motive could he have?" "That is more than I know positively," returned the judge mysteriously.

"But I do," declared Wainwright, pointing at Dallas. "There are the rea-"I?" exclaimed Dallas, incredulous.

'Explain, please.' "Willingly," replied her uncle, "if you'll give me a fair hearing. Bennett you might think he"-

"I don't believe one word of it!" cried Bennett could not stoop to such a "No?" said Wainwright. "Then you am about to tell you now. I considered Borough stock a safe investment, family, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fee and 1907 (April 16)-Southern Mexico; and I put all your money and Perry's beggaring you and Perry along with Gibbs. If only he can ruin Gibbs he cares nothing about making you and Perry paupers too. That is the sort of man you are defending against your own uncle. I have just learned besides that he has secretly, through his brokers, sold large blocks of Borough stock short. Thus his veto that ruins us will make him a very rich man." "It isn't true!" affirmed Dallas in dogged certainty. "Mr. Gibbs, do you confirm this story of my uncle's?" "Please leave me out of this, Miss Wainwright," answered Gibbs gently. "I prefer to say nothing to prejudice you. When I fight I fight fair."

"Even at the cost of all your money," amended Wainwright, "Gibbs, this is carrying your sense of honor to an absurd point. And Bennett will"-"Pardon me," broke in Alwyn, entering the foyer and going up to Dallas. "I'm a little late for our dance. I was detained by"-"Alwyn!" exclaimed Dallas in relief. "I'm so glad you came here just when you did. Now we can clear this up in "Clear what up?" queried Bennett. glancing about in suspicion at the three silent men.

"You know Mr. Gibbs is favored in the Borough Street railway affair," began Dallas. "He told you so at your office that day we were there. Well"-"Yes, but don't let's discuss business dance, and"-

"Wait, please. You knew his fortune was largely tied up in Borough stock, LOST .- ON THURSDAY, DEC. 31.

Charles Wainwright.

but here is something you didn't know. My uncle says my money and Perry's is all invested in that stock and that if you defeat the bill we will be dependent on Mr. Wainwright's charity. If that is true, you didn't know it, did Her voice was almost tremulous in forced himself to answer: "Yes; it is true, and I knew it." The eager glow died from her eyes, leaving a look of dawning horror. "And, knowing this-knowing Perry its eager, confident appeal, but Bennett and I shall be made paupers by your action-you still insist on"-"On opposing the bill? Yes. I am sorry, but it is my duty." "Duty!" sneered Wainwright. "Your 'duty' was done when you vetoed the Sec. 38 of Chap. 129, R.S.O., 1897, fighting it after"-Wainwright," interrupted Bennett. you and I."

"that you made your broker secretly sell Borough stock short, knowing the deal would enrich you. Won't you even deny this?"

"My uncle says," pursued Dallas, of us," continued Dallas, "and you still persist in your opposition?" "I must," said Bennett. "I can't turn back. Oh, Dallas," he added, dropping his voice till none but she could hear, stubbornness must mean to me-to all understand everything."

Alwyn. "I"-"I understand only too well," repeat- distribution. ed Dallas. Checking his reply and ignoring the anguished appeal in his eyes, she turned to Gibbs.

"I have kept you waiting long for your answer, Mr. Gibbs," she said, speaking in a level, firm, emotionless voice. "I am prepared to give it to you now-publicly. You have often asked me if I would be your wife. My surprise.

(Continued next week.)

HOUND POISONED A full blooded setter hound owned es to marry you, by Mr. A. Jones, of the Minden Ho- VITAL STATISTICS He knows, too, tel, disappeared a few days ago and that Gibbs' for- no trace of him can be found. Suretune depends on ly no one would poison such a noble the success of wandering away.—Minden Echo. franchise. If the |25TH ANNIVERSARY.

bill is beaten A very pleasant and enjoyable re-Gibbs will be union of friends and relatives took 1886 (August 31)-Charleston, S. practically ruin- place on Christmas day at the home C.; 41 lives lost, $5,000,000 propered and thus in of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Murtagh, ty damaged. no position to town, when they celebrated the 25th 1891-China and Japan; 30,000 marry. We've anniversary of the wedding. Throughout the day many innocent | 1902 (May)-Mount Pelee, Martin-of Bennett's for games of various kinds played. Mr. fighting our bill, and Mrs. Murtagh were the recipibut Gibbs for ents of many hearty congratulations killed; property loss, estimated at tiful and costly presents. Among those present from a dis- Chile; damage, $50,000,000. tance were: Mr. Chas. Murtagh, of 1906 (December 26) Arica, Chile; Dallas, her big eyes ablaze. "Alwyn Burk's Fal,s; Mr. Jos. Henry, wife town destroyed. and family, of Hamilton; Mr. and 1907 (January 28)-Kinhston, Ja-Mrs. David Hall and family, of Pet- maica; over, 2,000 killed; estimated erboro; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert, of damage, $15,000,000. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fanning and town destroyed. family, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Milburn four towns destroyed introduce our guaranteed Royal Purple Stock and Poultry Specifics. No experience necessary: we lay out your work for you. $25 a week and expenses. Position permanent. Write W. A. JENKINS MANF'G CO., London, Ontario

FARM FOR SALE .- 100 ACRES more or less, lot 12, con. 4, Mariposa, 890 acres plow land, balance pasture and second growth. Good brick house and first-class barn, 50 x 65, stone wall and good stabling wind-mill, driving house. Hog pen hen house, three wells. Well fenced and in good repairs. 12 miles from Little Britain, 34 miles from Mariposa Station. Good orchard. The property of Thomas Western,

For further particulars apply to Elias Bowes, real estate agent.

Lindsay. FOR SALE .- HOUSE AND LOT IN village of Oakwood; two storey. nine rooms, good cement cellar. large cistern, good garden, etc. For particulars apply W. F. Workman, 185 Major-st., Toronto.

FOR SALE .- New 8-roomed house on Queen-st. Apply at this office.

NOTE LOST.-DRAWN FOR $33.50 at two months from Aug. 29., signed by A. Bernell. Finder will please send to Watchman-Warder. tonight," replied Bennett. "This is our Parties are cautioned against negotiating this note.

> Finder please leave with Mr. Wilmot Webster, Dunsford. FOR SALE .- AN ODORLESS CREmatory closet in good order. Apply at No. 8 William-st., Lindsay, a sable throwover fur, between Bobcaygeon and Dunsford, or between Dunsford and Benj. Parker's.

SHORT HORN BULLS FOR SALE. -Crimson Flower, Mar Roan Lady and Princess, from imported and Canadian-bred sires, at reasonable prices. J. Casey, lot 23, con. Mariposa, Valentia P.O.

FEACHER WANTED. - FOR S. S. No. 5. Verulam. Must be protestant and qualified to teach. Send testimonials and state experience. John Quigley, secretary, Bobcaygeon, P.O.

STRAYED.-A LARGE HOUND dog strayed on the premises of part lot 24, at Janetville station, about three weeks ago. Owner can have the same by proving perty and paying expenses. Hugh Wilson, Janetville P.O.

SALE REGISTER

ON WEDNESDAY the 13th January, 1909, by Elias Bowes, auctioneer, lot 1, con. 14, Mariposa, farm stock and implements, the property of Fred Parkinson, consisting of 6 horses, 8 cows to calf, 24 head cattle, 1 to 2 years old, 10 ewes, 6 store pigs, full sett implements. Sale at 12.30 o'clock sharp.

Notice to Creditors

Notice is hereby given pursuant to bill. That act made your position that all persons having claims or declear and showed the public how you mands against the estate of the said regarded the measure, so why go on Mary Allin, late of the village of Little Britain in the County of Vic-"I won't discuss this with you, Mr. toria, a married woman, deceased, who died on or about the eleventh "We already understand one another, day of February, 1890, are required to send by post, prepaid, or deliver to the undersigned solicitors for Mrs. Mary Alice Prouse, the administratrix of the estate of the said deceased, on or before the twenty-third day of January, 1909, their Christtian and surnames and addresses, with full particulars in writing of "You realize what all this foolish their claims, and statement of their accounts and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them duly verified by statutory declaration. And Take Notice that after the said 23rd day of January, 1909, the said administratrix will proceed to "can't you trust me-only till Friday? distribute the assets of the said de-I'll come to you on Saturday morning ceased among the parties entitled and tell you the whole miserable story. thereto, having regard only to the I only ask you to wait until then. claims of which she shall then have notice, and the said administratrix "I see no need of waiting for an ex- will not be liable for said assets, or planation," retorted Dallas aloud. "I any part thereof, to any person or persons of whose claim notice shall "But you don't understand!" insisted not have been received by it or its said solicitor at the time of such Dated 29th December, 1908. MOORE & JACKSON. Solicitors for Administratrix. Lindsay.

CARD OF THANKS

We are very grateful to the people of Lindsay and surrounding country "Dallas!" gasped Bennett in horrified for the kind patronage shown to us in the past year, and hope for the continuance of same for 1909. Wishing you all a bright and prosperous New Year, we are your obedient ser-

A. C. BABCOCK & SONS, William-st., south

there were 15 deaths, 12 marriages

During the month of December

FATAL EARTHQUAKES. 1882-Java; 170,000 killed.

and ique, West Indies; 30,000 killed. 1905-India; 20,000 killed. 1906 (April)—San Francisco; 1,000

1906 (August 16-22)-Valparaiso, probably will refuse to believe what I Cambray. Those from Lindsay were 1907 (March 28)-Bitlis, Armenia;

HESE are the day few years to con having a fuller k what crops will give ground in which they a the past most of the f to son as the generation have been of the best ter with a son that wa been the opposite case impart even that to an know all that was po in a case like this? E and papers he could g we find the schools agricultural education. colleges which are spri the future lend such receive from the land improved product. N Hvelihood, but nature great deal himself, and can he make it. Educ culturalist as well as best his purse can a

TTOW have you a tion which sugg put into commission. its life out is not one farmer's bank account outlay when the time less, and must be rep you have not looked in the season. Where cuse for neglect of th not be expensive, but 20 per cent. to the lit money saver. There a average tenant cannot settler, burdened with better times. At any rate, take and mower guards, so all bearings, take off shape to hitch the te ings needed, get and are tight. With a cl plow lays. Turn un

tongues or turn them clevises and store th wrenches, twine and o small boy. T is now known t correctly. And w now-fed with mathe strong suspicion that that steers are fed a has not gone far end But if it sh cost of even :0 per have computed in dol not knowing it year Experimental Farms to arriving quickly at nomically and get th HE whys and w aptly stated in wide experience

he says: "Immediately pre up to the farmer's de ready for the coming proves that all the e birds being included. small and too thin to thes so far as he i to be available now. year. So the deal is birds are sacrificed to be the parents of of the live stock bus I believe that is jus

many a farm has b

NORTHWESTERN BUTTER QUEEN OF

a Jersey cow from the

L. Haecker, in the Tw Farmer. Under a pict cow is this legend: "Financial Countess, appeared at the close breaking test for one ; rules of the A. J. C. C of milk, 795 pounds 4.6 fat, 935 pounds, 10 ounc per cent. fat; actual 934 pounds, 13 ounces. (Parfit, Golden, Colorado The professor says:cow of the fine 'Island very exponent of a per ing machine. The fine, and almost human eyes

"DOC," THE GRAND Here is a very interes