HYMENEAL

ANNIS—ARNOTT.

At 2.30 on Jan 12, a very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. W. J. Stewart, 9 Albert-st. south, when Miss E. E. Arnott was married to Dr. M. B. Annis, of town.

The bride looked very charming in a gown of soft white satin striped material made over white silk with yoke and half sleeves of Irish lace. She wore a veil and carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Wallace, of St. Andrew's church, Mr. W. J. Stewart, uncle of the bride, giving her away. There were over sixty guests present from Toronto, Oshawa, Bowmanville and Lindsay.

The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents, among which were a very beautiful gold drawing-room mantel clock with candlebra to match, from the Dundas & Flavelle Co., Ltd, in whose firm the bride has for some years held a responsible position, and also a magnificent dining-room cabinet from the employes.

The happy couple left on the six o'clock train, the bride wearing a suit of Victoria broadcloth with mink hat and furs. On their return they will reside in their handsome new home, 215 Kent-st. west.

LITTLE BRITAIN PEDAGOGUE.

At a meeting of the Board of Education held yesterday afternoon it was decided to engage Mr—— Lapp, of Little Britain, to teach at the Union school in the place of Mr. D. McFadyen, whose resignation has been accepted by the Board.

Chairman T. Stewart intimated that he understood that Mr. Lapp would be willing to come to Lindsay for $850 a year. He had been strongly recommended.

Inspector W. H. Stevens also stated that Mr. Lapp was a first-class man and would give the Lindsay Board entire satisfaction.

PREPARING FOR 12TH.

A largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of the representatives of Loyal Orange District Lodge No. 3, was held in Lindsay Tuesday afternoon. The session was presided over by District Master Bro. Wm. Warren, who presented an exhaustive and satisfactory report on the work of the district during the past year.

The reports from the different lodges showed a gratifying increase in membership as well as an active interest in the aims and objects of the order.

A large representative committee was appointed to take charge of the work in connection with the celebration of the twelfth of July in Lindsay this year, which promises to be on a more elaborate scale and more largely attended than those held either in Port Hope or Peterboro.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

District Master—Bro. Jas. Courtney.

Deputy District Master—Bro. W. W. Jordan.

Chap.—Bro. R. R. Elliot.

OBITUARY

MRS. EDWARD SHEA.

The death of Mrs. Edward Shea, a respected and well-known resident of Franklin, took place on Tuesday last Jan. 11. The deceased was known to a number of Lindsay people, who will regret to hear of her demise and sympathize with the family in their loss.

JOHN HUNTER.

The funeral of the late John Hunter took place in Millbrook Tuesday afternoon. He was one of the best known residents of that village. He was for twenty years clerk of the Division Court and was for many years captain of the Millbrook company of the 46th regiment. He served in the Fenian raid. His wife, one son, Mr. S. Hunter, of Toronto, and Miss Hunter, of Millbrook, are left to mourn his loss.

MRS. WM. O'BRIEN.

The death occurred on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock of one of Emily's most esteemed and beloved citizens in the person of Mrs. William O'Brien at the age of 57 years. The deceased had been ill for some time, but every hope was entertained for her recovery until a few days ago, when she took a change for the worse.

The deceased was well and widely known throughout the entire township and in Lindsay, and much sympathy is felt for the members of the family.

She leaves to mourn her loss besides a sorrowing husband, one son, Fergus, of Montreal; and three daughters, Mrs. M. Garvey, Ennismore; Gertie, Port Arthur; and Florence, attending St. Joseph's Academy, Lindsay.

The funeral will be held to-morrow, (Thursday) morning, from her late home east of Downeyville, to St. Luke's church, thence to the cemetery for interment.

LATE JOHNSON ELLIS.

Especially impressive were the last sad rites surrounding the funeral services held on Wednesday of the late Johnson Ellis, who was called to his eternal reward on Monday morning of this week. It was one of the largest funerals ever held in Lindsay. The large crowd was a representative gathering, representing the business, social and religious interests of the town, who had assembled together to do honor to one who had devoted himself loyally to the highest and best interests of the town and county.

The funeral was in charge of the Faithful Brethren A. F. & A. M. No. 77, of which order the deceased was a prominent member for many years. The members of the order marched in a body from the house to the cemetery. At the vault where the remains were placed the impressive ceremonies of the Masonic order were conducted by Rev. J. P. Wilson, pastor of Cambridge-st. Methodist church. Services were also held at the house at 2.30 o'clock by the deceased's pastor, Rev. J. P. Wilson, after which the remains were conveyed to Riverside cemetery and placed in the vault.

The pall-bearers were all members of the Masonic order, and were: Col. Sam. Hughes, Dr. A. E. Vrooman, Geo. A. Jordan, Mayor Begg, Dr. Wood, Lindsay; W. C. Switzer, Peterboro; John Brandon and Dr. Mason, Fenelon Falls.

The floral tributes were especially beautiful, and among them were tokens from the following: Wreath, Faithful Brethren Lodge, A.F. & A. M. No. 77; sheaf, Long Lake Hunt Club; star, Mrs. T. Sadler; wreath, South Victoria Agricultural Society; wreath, Col. Sam. Hughes; wreath, Farmers' Mutual Insurance Co.; wreath from Ops Council; pillow, from family; sheaf from J. W. Wakely; sheaf, Dr. Jeffers and family; anchor, Misses Cora Stevens, Nora Balfour, Pearl White; anchor, J. H. Delamere, Minden; sheaf roses from Miss Bennett and nurses, Brockville General Hospital.

A number of the members of the Agricultural Society and Farmers' Union Insurance Company attended the funeral in a body in hacks.

A number of relatives and near friends of the deceased were also in attendance. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Dawson, Bailieboro; Mr. Dean, Garden Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Switzer, Peterboro; Mrs. Knight, Henry Knight, Bowmanville; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Coad, Lorneville; W. Ellis, Verulam; Dr. Mason, John Brandon and Fred Ellis, Fenelon Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Coad, Victoria Road; Wellington Jeffers, Toronto; Miss Bert Jeffers, Ottawa; Dr. Reazin, Toronto; Mr. Clemes, Bowmanville, and others.

WAS BADLY BURNED.

Mrs. D. Gall, Cambridge-st., north, met with a severe and painful accident last Tuesday evening, while working with a gasoline stove. In some manner the gasoline ignited and Mrs. Gall was badly burned about the eyes and left side of the face.

MACHINE EXPLODED.

While taking flashlight pictures in the Simpson House Wednesday, Mr. E. McIntosh, of Toronto, formerly chef at the Benson House, Lindsay, had his face and head badly burned by the machine exploding. While about to take the picture Mr. McIntosh pulled the string that causes the machine to explode, but it did not work. He tried it several times and finding it would not work, walked over to the machine to see what was wrong, and while repairing it the machine exploded in his face with the above results.

NATURAL GAS ON FARM.

Mr. W. W. Flemming, of Kirkfield, was a visitor to town to-day and called on The Warder. Mr. Flemming is indirectly interested in natural gas matters owing to the fact that natural gas has been discovered on his farm.

Some time ago it will be remembered that while a workman was digging a well on the farm of Mr. John Foreman, near Kirkfeld, he struck natural gas, and when he proceeded to light his pipe the gas became ignited. On digging down farther more gas was struck and the workman quit the job, fearing that some time he might meet with some accident while down in the well.

Mr. Flemming purchased the farm and in conversation with a Warder representative he stated that if the town of Lindsay ever proceeded to develop natural gas for light and heat purposes he would then have the promoters at the same time pay a visit to Kirkfield and do some drilling.

Mr. Flemming is sanguine and believes that his farm is flooded with natural gas. He states that the water in the well is good when it is high, but when it gets down low the water tastes salty and is not very tasty to drink.

HAS RESIGNED.

News of the resignation of Mr. M. J. Butler, C.M.G., as Deputy Minister and chief engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals, in order to become the General Manager and Second Vice-President of the Dominion Coal Companies at a trebly increased salary, has been announced with surprise and almost with consternation in official circles.

Mr. Butler is exceedingly well known in Lindsay having visited here at different times in connection with his duties in connection with the Trent Valley Canal.

WON FROM FENELON.

Two rinks of Lindsay curlers defeated two Fenelon Falls rinks by 16 shots Wednesday at the curling rink in the first round for possession of the Lindsay-Fenelon Falls cup. ALFRED TAYLOR, Clerk.

ROSEDALE.

Rosedale, Jan. 10.—Mr. Staples, of Knox College, Toronto, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church here Sunday evening. Mr. Staples based his discourse on 1 Cor. iii., 20-22, and gave as his subject "The Meaning of Life." He said we should enjoy life. 1st, because of the physical development that it makes possible; 2nd, because of the moral uplift that can be derived from it; 3rd, because of the opportunities of service for God; 4th, because this mortal life is followed by immortality. Mr. Staples arranged his ideas continuously, so that they could be remembered without effort. For a student he did remarkably well, and we bespeak for him a bright future.

Mr. Salisbury, who will graduate from Queen's University, Kingston, next spring, will preach here for a call next Sabbath.

Mrs. Ward, of Winnipeg, formerly Miss Edna Worsley, of Powles' Corners, is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Thos. Isaac.

Mr. Wm. McNevan, with his wife, spent last week visiting his mother and other old friends of his in this neighborhood.

A. E. Rea & Co. have purchased the Academy of Music in Montreal.

A CHOIR LEADER
Tells How Pe-ru-na Rid Him of All Catarrhal Troubles.

PE-RU-NA SCORES
Another Triumph in Canada.
"A Relief to Breathe Freely Once More."
MR. G. W. MARTIN, Hartford, Ont., choir leader at St. Paul's Episcopal church, writes:
"Peruna is a wonderful remedy for catarrhal troubles.
"I have been troubled with catarrh for a great many years, and always trying something for it, but was able only to secure temporary relief until I used Peruna.
"Only five bottles rid my system of all traces of catarrh, and I have not noticed the slightest trouble for several months.
"My head was stopped up, my breath offensive, and it is a relief to be able to breathe freely once more."
