HYMENEAL

NEWSON-FLETT.

A very pretty wedding was solemp. zed at high noon, Dec. 14th, at the bome of Mrs. David Flett, 515 Ellice avenue, Winnipeg, Man., when youngest daughter, Mary Florence Evelyn, became the bride of Franklin Newson, eldest son of and Mrs. J. B. Newson, Semans Sask., formerly of Cambray, ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr DuVeal. The house was artistically decorated with palms and cut flow ers. To the strains of Mendelssohn' wedding march, played by Miss Win nie Archibald, the bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her un cle, Roderick McLeod, the bride be ing beautifully attired in her bridal robe of ivory duchess satin en traine, fashioned on princess lines, the draped bodice being caught with a sath rose front and back, with yoke and under sleeves of silk embroidered all over lace, finished with pearl trimnings and silk applique. Her veil was fastened in her pretty dark hair with lilies of the valley, and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal

Miss Isabel Jackson, who acted as bridesmaid, was daintily gowned maze brocaded silk, with Gainsborough hat of black velvet, trimmed with large yellow roses, and carried a sheaf of yellow chrysanthemums. Her gift from the groom was a pearl ring. To the best man, Dan Flett, the groom presented a pearl tie pin Miss Winnie Archibald was the recipient of a set of pearl beauty pins. The bride's table was centred by the wedding cake, and was decorated with white satin ribbon, and lilies of the valley. After luncheon had been served the bride retired to don her travelling suit of grey tweed, he coat opening over a dainty blouse of white silk, with dresden trimmings. Her hat, a lovely black velvet, was
