Ladies of Women's Institute Held Very Profitable Meeting

Little Britain, Dec. 29. — The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute of Little Britain was held on Wednesday 27th inst., at the home of Mrs. (Dr.) Hall. The meeting was called at 2:30 in the afternoon, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather there was a very large attendance. Nearly all of the members and officers being present, who include many of the socially- and influential prominent people of this section. There were also present friends, relatives and acquaintances of the members and a number of invited guests.

Mrs. W. Anderson, president of the society, occupied the chair and showed the good judgment and skill in keeping good order and directing the various questions under discussion in their proper channels. The minutes were fully and accurately recorded by the secretary, Mrs. Cyrus Nether-ton.

After the general routine of business was through with the members entered keenly into the contest of darning and making button holes. This had been arranged for at a previous meeting, so all members came armed with their needles determined to win the coveted prizes that were donated for this work. The judges for the occasion were Mrs. Seth Metherell, Mrs. R. Greenway and Mrs. Connor, all of Little Britain.

The judging of the work was no easy task as nearly all did very neat and skillful work. On a very close decision the first prize for darning was awarded Miss Ada Broad, of Little Britain, and the first prize for button making was given to Mrs. C. Nether-ton. The booby prize went to the lady who forgot to bring a fine needle and was forced to use a darning needle to make button holes. All members were supposed to enter the contest and any delinquent was liable to one dollar fine.

The meeting was enlivened by several musical selections, played by Miss Gréta Williams, a student of the Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby.

After the awarding of the prizes the meeting adjourned, all feeling that they had a profitable and enjoyable time.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson I.—First Quarter, For Jan. 7, 1912.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Luke 1, 5-23. Memory Verses, 15, 16—Golden Text, Heb. xi, 6—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Notice in the opening verses that Luke says to his friend that he is about to set forth a declaration of things most surely believed, that he might know the certainty of those things. May all who study these lessons be most surely believers, knowing the certainty of all things written in the whole Bible.

It seems to me that Luke must have had in mind the words of Prov. xxii, 21, "That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth, that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee." Thank God for a book of certainties concerning things beyond the wisdom of men and concerning Him of whom the whole book tells, the Creator, Redeemer, Judge, the Head of the church, the Messiah of Israel, the King of kings and Lord of lords. Matthew writes of Him as King of the Jews, Mark tells of the perfect servant, Luke describes Him as man, the Son of Man, and John sees Him as the Son of God, reminding us of the four faces of the cherubim, the lion, the ox, the man, the eagle. He was foretold as the coming one from Gen. iii, 15, onward, and He often appeared as a man before He came as the Son of Mary. But He was the Creator of all things and yet set apart as the Redeemer before the world was (John 1, 1-3; Col. 1, 16, 17; 1 Pet. 1, 20). The Holy Spirit who wrote the whole of this book foretold both by Isaiah and Malachi that a certain one would precede Him and herald His coming and prepare the way before Him (Isa. xl, 3, 4; Mal. iii, 1). The angel Gabriel confirms this in verse 17 of our lesson. Herod reminds us of the great adversary, the devil, to whom he belonged and whom he served so well, but God works out His purposes in spite of all adversaries and makes even the wrath of man to praise Him (Ps. lxxvii, 10). Herod belonged to the line of Cain, which will be consummated in the coming antichrist, or wicked one, or beast of Dan. xi, 36, 45; II Thess. ii, 8, 9; Rev. xix, 19, 20.

Zacharias and Elizabeth are in the line of Abel and belong to Him who shall yet overcome, the Lamb, who is also the Lord of the whole earth. How beautiful the testimony concerning them in verse 6, "They were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord, blameless." Their standing before God was correct, for they could say, "In the Lord have I righteousness and strength," and they knew that the blood which maketh atonement for their sins (Heb. ix, 24; Lev. xvii, 11).

They lived according to the law, doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with God. Yet in his life story there were a multitude of long unanswered prayers. The prayer had been his first utterance, but God's time had not yet come. Let us never doubt that He hears us, but let us be gladly patient as we wait for Him (Ps. xxxvii, 7). In their case it seemed a hopeless matter, somewhat like Abraham and Sarah, but the latter had assurance from God that the child would be given, and so he staggered not through unbelief (Rom. iv, 19, 22). There must be good reason for allowing us to come to the end of ourselves and to wait till the last minute, so to speak, before manifesting our petitions. Consider the case of Peter in Acts xii. Having committed the matter to the Lord, go about your work with the assurance that He will see to it. Zacharias was doing as was his custom, executing the priest's office before God (verses 8-10). It was the time to burn incense, and the multitude were praying without. It is all so suggestive of our present privilege, for there is one before God on our behalf who ever liveth to make intercession for us.

The appearance of the angel troubled Zacharias, as also it did Mary some months later, but his word to each had a comforting "fear not" (verses 11-13, 29, 30). There is many a "fear not" for you, O faint hearted believer, if you would but appropriate them. God does not give fear (II Tim. i, 7). There must be great joy and gladness where the angels live, for they have much to say about it (verse 14; Lu. ii, 10). But it is all because of Him to whose voice they love to hearken and ex-celling in strength to do His pleasure they delight to do His commandments (Ps. ciii, 20-22). How wonderful is verse 15, where we learn that this promised Son would be great in the sight of the Lord and filled with the Spirit from His birth. In order to make ready a people prepared for the Lord (verse 17). There is, however, a preparation implied, according to Num. vi, 1-8, without which the spirit filled life cannot become a reality. In such a life from the world is essential to a God glorifying life (Rom. xii, 1, 2). Elizabeth's life was a separated one also, his motto being, "The Lord God of Israel liveth before whom I stand," but even he did not always see the Lord alone, nor did he always cease from himself. Zacharias did not promptly receive Gabriel's message, and was in consequence dumb.

WAS IN TOWN.

Many Lindsay citizens express regret at the sad ending of the late David Nichol of Cambridge. The deceased was in town on Thursday and transacted business or called upon the officials of the Victoria Loan Savings Co. on Kent-st. He appeared to the gentlemen in the office to be laboring under a mental aberration of some kind and cheered up as they congratulated him on the purchase of a farm he had made near

As favored with a L. Sutton, of Ross returned accompanied by his wife to visit with friends in and around his old home in Valencia. Mr. Sutton was engaged in the land of flowing wheat fields. His farm embraces 600 acres, which is operated principally by his three stalwart sons, any of which are capable of handling a four-horse team in their despatch of duty. He keeps 24 head of horses on the farm as well as many other domestic animals. Mr. Sutton speaks in the highest terms of Manitoba and considers it the land of promise for the youths of Ontario.

LITTLE BRITAIN.

Little Britain, Dec. 26.—Dr. and Mrs. Moore, Manitoba, visited at Mr. R. S. Robertson's; Mrs. Elias Lindsay; Mr. and Mrs. Groves and Motherell visited at Mrs. Brimmell's family, visited at Mr. Deshan's, Toronto.

The junior and senior leagues gave one of the most successful entertainments on Christmas night that has been held here. The chorus, drill and motion song by the juniors was much appreciated. The boys, under the direction of Mr. Lapp, gave an Indian drill that was very unique, and much enjoyed. Then followed the play, "The Last Leaf," given by members of the senior league. Each character represented in excellent manner their respective parts. Proceeds nearly $100.

Mr. Percy Barrowclough has been suffering from an abscess on his hand.

Mr. Pinkham, station agent, Fort Arthur, visited his parents; Misses Ada and Caroline Avery visited at Haydon; Rev. E. Allen, Chicago, visited friends in this part; Mrs. Moore, Manitoba, visited her brothers, Messrs. John and Geo. Prouse; Mrs. Driver, Chicago, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pinkham; Mr. and Mrs. Martin are visiting friends in Western Ontario; Messrs. Jas. Ferguson and McLean, of Lindsay, spent holidays with friends here; Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Hastings, visited at Mrs. M. Motherell's; Miss G. Henderson, Cammington, visited at the home of Dr. Hall; Mrs. Purdy, Toronto, is spending the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Sparks; Miss V. Robertson, B.A., of Harriston high school staff, is spending holidays at home; Mr. and Mrs. Short, Tillsonburg, spent Christmas at the home of their son, Mr. Short, manager of the Standard Bank here.

Dr. Hall met with a painful accident by the cutter capsizing. His ankle was injured, and the doctor will be confined to the house for a few days.

A site has been bought in Main-st., near Hughson-st., Hamilton, supposedly for a large modern hotel.

CURED OF CONSUMPTION.

Toronto Man Gives Credit to Copeland's Consumption Cure. As a proof of what Copeland's Cure for Consumption will do for those afflicted with the White Plague, the proprietors take pleasure in publishing the following remarkable letter:

Mr. W. R. Copeland, 511 Pape-ave., Toronto. Dear Sir,—After taking ten bottles of your wonderful discovery, Copeland's Cure for Consumption, I believe I am completely cured, and feel better and stronger than I have for years, and am a living witness of what this wonderful medicine can do for the lungs.

My doctor and a consumption specialist of Toronto, Ont., said I had the worst kind of consumption, and that it was impossible for me to recover, saying that I could not live longer than eight or ten days. They gave me up to die, saying there was no use in treating me, as they had done everything they could do. After commencing taking your wonderful discovery, and found it stopped that weakening perspiration almost immediately. Before taking your medicine I could keep nothing on my stomach, and when I had taken two bottles of the medicine I could eat heartily. I was up in a few days time from the day the specialist said I might die any hour. Finding the medicine was helping me, I commenced taking a desertspoonful every three hours, and in four weeks time I was at work.

I honestly believe I would have been in my grave to-day if I had not taken it, and can heartily recommend it to everyone suffering from any kind of lung trouble. I can say too much in favor of this medicine, knowing what it has done for me. Wishing you every success, remain, sincerely yours, (Signed) David Warnock.

A Street Car Conductor, Toronto, I am receiving testimonials daily from people who after being given up by doctors, and who claim have tried all other medicines, after taking your cure are recovering, and many who claim to be cured. As a cure for consumption, weak lungs, bleeding of the lungs, weak throat, laryngitis, severe or lingering cough and bronchitis, this remedy is infallible and can be given without fear of disturbing the most sensitive stomach. Our continued experiments with the most advanced cases of consumption have proven without a doubt the marvelous qualities of this preparation. Together with the strong germ destroying properties, its actions are that of a stimulating tonic.

Kindly mention nearest express office when ordering. Price $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5.

Sold only by William R. Copeland, 511 Pape-ave., Toronto, Canada.

Lindsay Curlers Defeated Toronto Granites by 11 Shots

The Lindsay Curling Club played their first game of the season last Friday, when five rinks went to the Queen City and played a friendly game with the Granites, with the result that the Lindsay rinks were eleven shots to the good at the finish.

The ice was in perfect condition—the first of the season in Toronto, and considering the fact that it was the first game for both clubs some high-class curling was presented.

Skip Butler's rink had the honor of winning by the largest score, taking Skip Duthie into camp by nine shots. Skip Little and his crew easily disposed of the veteran, Simpson Rennie, by seven shots, while Skip Widdess disposed of his man by eight shots.

Dr. Brown skipped his first foreign game in his curling career, and although defeated by three shots by Skip Dalton he made a magnificent showing. Skip Dalton scored a big six on the second end, which somewhat handicapped the doctor.

Skip Wilford, the other Lindsay skip, bumped into the famous Dr. Hawke combination, with the result that he was defeated by nine shots.

At the conclusion of the games a sumptuous dinner was served in the spacious club rooms that was appreciated by the Lindsay curlers. President Davidson of the Granites acted in the capacity of toast master, and extended a hearty welcome to the visitors. During the evening several after dinner speeches were made by the members of both clubs, the toast to the Lindsay club being replied to by Messrs. Wilford, Brown, Burke, Moynes, Little, Kennedy, White and McConnell.
