FENELON FALLS HAPPENINGS

Personal-Bathing Club "At Home"
Rev. J. W. Macmillan's Lecture—Hockey

Miss Cora Thompson of the Loretto Convent, Lindsay, spent Sunday the guest of Miss E. Robson.

Mrs. Kennedy of Ops, is spending a few days with her brother Mr. Wm. McArthur.

Col. S. Hughes M.P., was at the Falls on Thursday last.

Miss Dickson of Peterboro is home on a visit to her parents.

Miss Henderson of Lindsay, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. Sadler.

Little Master Henderson also spent last Thursday with his sister.

Mr. J. Heard returned last Wednesday from a week's trip to Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Aulbrook left last week for Midland where they will reside in future. Their furniture left this week in the charge of some of the family.

The Misses Austin, Nevison and Ellis of Lindsay C.I. came home on Wednesday evening, the school being closed for two days on account of the East Victoria Teachers' Convention.

Mr. H. Webster of Kirkfield spent Tuesday at the Falls.

Mr. F. McKewen's at present the guest of his parents.

Mr. W. Northey and Mr. W. Stevens spent Tuesday in Lindsay.

Mr. M. Horton went to Bobcaygeon on Friday to spend a couple of days with his parents and was snow bound until Tuesday.

These weekly visits will have to be postponed until spring.

Can any one tell us why the ice of both Cameron and Sturgeon lakes is covered with nearly a foot of slush and water under the last snow?

The ice of both lakes is in such a condition that persons who value their lives did not care to take short cuts across them during even the drifts of the recent storms.

Last Thursday the heavens presented a magnificent spectacle about 4.30 p.m. The phenomenon of mock suns—more commonly called "sun dogs"—was seen as it is seldom witnessed in Ontario.

The suns were connected by an arc of light and a second arc was reflected from this on the sky, which reflection showed plainly the seven prismatic colors. The sky being clear at the time, a number of our citizens enjoyed the most beautiful sight.

The following guests registered at the Brook's house during the past week: Mrs. McMillan, Harvey; W. S. Richman, Cobocook; Mr. Bell and wife, Norland; E. L. Garlie, Bobcaygeon; T. McElroy and Miss Dunsford, Lindsay; W. Northey, L. T. Lochead, A. P. Reid and N. A. Wylie, Toronto.

The Bathing Club had an informal "At Home" in Needler and Sadler's Power House on Tuesday evening of last week. With the exception of Messrs. C. W. Burgoyne, J. A. Ellis, R. M. Mason V.S. and A. Wilson M.D., all the members of the club were present.

A business meeting, cards, dancing and the usual light refreshments made a most enjoyable evening to all present.

We congratulate the Lindsay curlers on the success scored by them in Toronto last week, when for the third time in six years they became holders of the Ontario Tankard. If Lindsay cannot play hockey, they can curl and curl well and we hope and expect that the rink at present in Winnipeg will be equally successful in exhibiting to the view of Canada, the fine sporting element which thrives in Victoria county.

Monday morning found the inhabitants of our little Cataractburg in a position very similar to Monday morning a week previous. A little less snow perhaps, but more frost. The scribe froze his finger tips that a.m. and begs that the printers in the W.W. office will lay all mistakes in this edifying budget to the frost.

We were without mail till the evening, the snow plough going up north about 11 a.m. The north mail got down during the afternoon and our mail arrived about 7 p.m. Now, we just wish to know why our mail could not have been sent in the rear of the snow plough? Are we little characters of so little consequence that it matters little or nought how long we business men wait for our letters or how some other anxious ones are kept waiting for a line from their wives or sweethearts who for the time being may be in a distant town? Will anyone explain?

The inhabitants of Fenelon Falls had a treat in the lecture delivered in St. Andrew's church on Tuesday evening by the Rev. J. W. Macmillan of Lindsay. The lecture has been delivered in Lindsay and requires no praise from this feeble pen, but we certainly think Mr. Macmillan deserves the thanks of every intelligent citizen for so generously giving us this literary feast gratuitously. The description given of Rapheal's Madonna, with which he closed his recondite, with our humble estimation marks, was in the price of admittance.

Should Mr. Macmillan choose to favor us again at any time we very much wish to see him and his family, but wish him every success in his new home.

Revival services have been going on in this church for the past three weeks but are stopped now on account of the storm. They are conducted by the Rev. Brown and Johnston.

Our teacher Miss Scott attended the convention in Lindsay on Thursday and Friday.

EDEN MARIPOSA

On Jan. 21st, during the service of Christian Endeavor, held in the Methodist church, Mrs. H. Jones was made the recipient of a handsome rocking chair, accompanied by an address, by the members of her former Sunday school class.

On the same occasion, Mrs. R. Stroud was reminded in some degree of the affection and esteem manifested towards her by the young ladies of her Bible class.

Stroud has been a faithful worker in her class for fifteen years, and its members chose this as their fitting time to endeavor to prove to her how they appreciated her services. In behalf of the class, Miss Rachel

THE COUNCIL

The proceedings to disqualify Mayor Ingle and Aldermen Jackson, Hore, Robson and O'Reilly are approaching the decisive point.

On Saturday last these gentlemen were served with documents issued by the High Court of Justice and saying that eight days after a motion would be made before the Master in Chambers at Osgoode Hall, Toronto to set aside their election.

The eight days mentioned will expire on Monday. Then the Master in Chambers may either have evidence taken, or order it taken by the county judge. In the latter case that much of the proceedings would be held in Lindsay and before Judge Dean.

When the evidence is ready the Master in Chambers will hear the lawyers for each side and give his decision. The members involved can present their resignations on Monday and thus make the trial unnecessary. After Monday they cannot. What they intend doing and the general outlook may be gathered from what they and their lawyers said last evening:

Lawyer McSweeney: "I hear some talk of their resigning. If I do not receive notice of their intention of doing so by tomorrow I shall summon Clerk Kaowlsen, Auditor Eagleson and Mr. H. J. Lytle of the Ontario Bank to give evidence in the case. We are going right on with the case. I think the evidence will be taken in Toronto, and I do not see any chance of their resigning."

Lawyer Hopkins: "We are going ahead to defend the case. I am just preparing the affidavits to send up. I do not believe there is any chance of our losing. I expect it will be adjourned for a few days but will be decided before long. We are not worrying."

Mayor Ingle: "I am going to fight it out. If there was anything wrong done, I did not know it. At any rate it will go ahead and we will find out what there is in it."

Ald. Jackson: "Oh yes, I believe the case will go ahead. I have no idea of giving it up. It had better be settled. I do not know how long it will last but it will likely be decided inside of two weeks."

Ald. O'Reilly: "Yes, I am going on; do you think I am a quitter? Do you think I am going to let them walk over me? We shall likely have an opinion from Sam. Blake tomorrow. You may hear of some perjury cases yet."

Ald. Robson: "Yes, I intend to stand with the other members in defence of this case."

Ald. Hore: "I am going to go ahead. There is too much John Bull about me to give up now. I think we were right; at any rate no harm was done."

WOODVILLE

One of the prettiest events of the year was celebrated on Wednesday morning, Jan. 29th, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stoddart, when their cousin, Miss Carrie Maybee, became the bride of Mr. A. McEachern, a rising young business man of Tavistock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Marvin. The drawing room in which the nuptial knot was tied was profusely decorated with flowers and sparkling lights. The bride was charmingly gowned in white silk tulle and embroidered chiffon and carried a beautiful shower bouquet of roses and maiden-hair ferns. Little Miss Lottie Stoddart, who performed the duties of flower and ring bearer, looked sweet in white silk. A beautiful array of presents marked the popularity of the bride. Among them was a unique mantle clock presented by Mr. and Mrs. Stoddart. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome pearl and amethyst crescent. After the congratulations a wedding breakfast was served. The bride's going away gown was of blue ladies' cloth with white applique trimmings, with toque to match. Mr. and Mrs. McEachern left on the morning train for western point. After a short trip they will reside at their new home in Tavistock, Ont. On the eve of her marriage, Miss Maybee was presented by Miss Thorndike in behalf of the congregation with a handsome present as a slight acknowledgement of her valuable services as organist in the Methodist church here.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

MARIPOSA STATION

The severe storm of Sunday and Monday rendered the roads impassable for a time.

On Thursday evening, January 30, Mr. and Mrs. Lane gave a pretty birthday party, in honor of their elder daughter, Miss Edna. A very pleasant evening was spent by a large number of young people.

Messrs. Thomas and Wilbur Lane and Mr. Edward Rich, left on Friday, Jan. 31st, to spend a week visiting friends at Tyrone and Bowmanville.

A new Chicago windmill has just been erected on the farm of Richard Rich. It gives good satisfaction.

Mr. Samuel Weldon of Stouffville was the guest of Miss Ethel Dames on Sunday evening.

KINMOUNT

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hopkins gave a progressive crokinole party on Tuesday evening of last week. There were about 30 young people present and a very pleasant evening was spent. The prizes were won by Mr. Gordon Hopkins, Miss B. Soward, Mr. J. DeCew, Miss E. Austin, who received respectively souvenir paddle, souvenir paddle, reversible doil and jews harp.

VALENTIA

Miss L. Sutton, Mr. R. Sutton and Mr. W. Graham have been visiting friends at Bobcaygeon and the surrounding vicinity.

Our local threshers are still on the war-path and the snow banks seem of no avail against them. They however hope to soon complete their contracts, which have been many this season.

"The storm of last week caught some of our young people away from the parental roof. Some came back and others we are expecting. We hope to see them all gathered back before long."

Mr. J. Pound had the misfortune to have his hand badly injured in the turnip pulper a short time ago. We are glad to see that Mr. C. Pound is around again after his illness.

Miss Graham, our teacher, has again resumed her duties after a short respite on account of sickness.

Fresh oysters may now be obtained at W. Suggert's store. They are worth going through the snow for and our worthy merchant guarantees that they are frost proof and can be taken in any quantity and at any time without risk.

OMEMEE

Snow blockades the order, north, south, east and west. Villagers are hemmed in together with doctors and ministers, who are unable to make their trips.

Great regret and sorrow over the death of Secretary Walker of the Lindsay Y.M.C.A., who was known favorably with our young men here, especially with those attending the Lindsay Collegiate.

The Peterboro district L.O.L. have decided to go to Lindsay next 12th July. If Omemee and Emily L.O.L. does not go there the celebration is to be at home as no other demonstration without Emily is complete.

The great amount of snow, coupled with spring rains, will make our Pigeon Creek waters very navigable and the fortunate adventurer who will explore those waters from Lindsay or elsewhere will find lots of towing of shingles, timber, tan-bark and half dozen excursions at least during the season.

Our hockey team has lost interest since the removal of Mr. Moffatt to Ottawa, he is taking a course of manual training at the school there. Dr. Keith is spoken of as the manager of the team.

Mr. Bryson of Cameron occupies Mr. Moffatt's place as teacher.

Sunday school convention in the Methodist church on Friday, Feb. 14th.

FRANKLIN

The storm of Sunday and Monday completely blocked the roads. Some people who went away on Sunday just for the day had the pleasure of remaining until the middle of the week and then some of them had to walk and leave their cutter.

Revival services have been going on in this church for the past three weeks but are stopped now on account of the storm. They are conducted by the Rev. Brown and Johnston.

Our teacher Miss Scott attended the convention in Lindsay on Thursday and Friday.

Miss Elocia Reid of Reaboro spent last week with friends here.

Miss Pritchard returned home after spending a couple of weeks in Bethany.

Mr. Arthur Mayes of Lindsay spent a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Monk.
