A NEW SORT OF CHEESE

The county must stand together. Pres. Robertson said the general price received here has been smaller because of the withdrawal of some factories from the board.

The Eastern Dairyman's Association would this year have 20 instructors under Mr. Barr in the west and Mr. Publow in the east.

Mr. Flavelle said the buyers thoroughly understood the matter and knew they were welcome to inspect in his cold storage.

Mr. D. Sinclair—we shipped on the same day as Lindsay and did not lose a ounce on shrinkage.

Mr. Hall said there was not enough pay in the position for him to take it again.

Mr. Flavelle exhibited a new style of fancy cheese. It was a 12-pound square cake, scored into half-pounds.

The western Dairyman's Association was asked to supply an inspector for this district and preferably Mr. Wm. Hall.

Mr. Flavelle advised making cheese early in May as it would likely be a good season.
