WAS BURNED ALIVE.

Stratford, Feb. 1. — In a small fire of mysterious origin at the City Hotel stables, Robert McEwen, one of the hostlers, lost his life. In some manner his clothes caught fire while he was alone in the barn, through which he ran, blazing from head to foot, to fall into the arms of his father, who had just come out of the hotel, and succumb. Deceased, who was forty-five years of age and of splendid physique, was burned almost to a crisp.

THE POOR DYSPEPTIC Suffers Untold Agony After Every Meal.

Nearly everything that enters a weak, dyspeptic stomach acts as an irritant; hence the difficulty of effecting a cure. Burdock Blood Bitters will relieve all the distressing symptoms of dyspepsia and in a short time effect a cure.

Mrs. F. C. Gross, Berlin, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled with my stomach for the last seven years and tried all kinds of medicine for it, but none of them ever cured me, for as soon as I would quit using any of them, the same old trouble would come back. Last fall I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and used four bottles, and now feel so strong I can do all my house work nicely and can eat almost anything without it affecting me in any way."

"Our boy is also using it. He always complained of pain in his stomach and all over, like inflammation, and at the age of ten had to stay home from school. He hasn't quite used two bottles yet and is feeling good, can attend school regularly and eat heartily."

A Record With the Old BuckSaw

Mr. Ed. Samson holds the enviable record of sawing two cords of wood in 57 minutes, with an ordinary bucksaw, the trick being done on Monday last. The feat was performed on the farm of James Carlin, Ops, and outside of an occasional run down with a tallow candle to both sides of the glittering blade the man of historic name and prowess used no cunning or deceitful measures in performing the trick.

His backers around Cross Creek will place him, with his horse and cutter, in competition against any man on earth, barring no one. The amount to range anywhere from a bushel of turnips to a dozen of Bohemia hen eggs. All bets can be left with Hay Bill, the sporting editor of the Cross Creek Review.

Lesson VI.—First Quarter, For Feb. 11, 1912.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Luke II, 40-52. Memory Verses, 43, 47—Golden Text, Luke II, 49. R. V.—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

After the visit of the wise men, bringing their treasures of gold and frankincense and myrrh, Joseph was directed by the angel of the Lord to take the young child and his mother and see into Egypt and abide there till he should bring them word. It has helped me much to notice and to remember that before they were sent to Egypt the money was on hand to cover their need, and I do firmly believe that the Lord always provides for all that He wants done. The wise men presented their gifts to the child, and it was the child's money that took them all to Egypt and took care of them. They need have no anxiety as to when to leave Egypt, for the angel said that he would bring them word, and he did (Matt. I, 13-23). We may be sure of guidance also if we have no will of our own and are wholly submitted to God (Ps. xxxiii, 8; Isa. xxxi, 21). Note in those verses in Matthew the three Scriptures that were fulfilled, and let us not forget that all things which have been written concerning Him must be fulfilled in Him (chapter I, 22). Our lesson today begins and ends with a statement concerning the child's growth both physically and in wisdom. He was a partaker of real flesh and blood and grew in many respects like our children do, but we must always think of Him as being specially controlled by the Holy Spirit, for what was true of John the Baptist must have been true of Him also (chapter I, 25). There were three annual feasts at Jerusalem, xxiii, 14-17, and the passage over was the first, and this was His first passover. It seems from I Sam. I, 7-9, that women went to these feasts also, and our lesson plainly teaches that Mary accompanied Joseph. We may not be able to say whether at this time He fully understood His own identification with this feast according to I Cor. v, 7, "Christ our passover is sacrificed for us," but my own conviction is that He always knew more than many are willing to believe. We cannot grasp the wondrous statement that all things were created by Him and for Him, that He created Adam and Eve, provided the coats of skins for them after they had sinned, walked with Enoch, talked with Noah, dined with Abraham, instructed Moses about the passover and all else, but though we cannot understand, we can believe, and through faith we understand. There are wonderful things about the number twelve and every other number which will yet be unfolded to us (verse 42). In this case it may have been just the age when a boy kept his first passover, but we will see more when we know as we are known (I Cor. xiii, 12).

The feast being over, the people started for their homes in every part of the land, and probably a great multitude were together for the first part of the journey northward. At the close of the journey northward, the people were divided into three companies, and before starting farther on their journey, and then it was that Joseph and Mary discovered that their precious boy was missing. And we may imagine the eager but unavailing search among kinsfolk and acquaintances and the sorrowful hearts that probably could not sleep that night even if they sought to rest. It may be that they started back to Jerusalem immediately at the night journeying. Only those who have ever had a child stray away can think how they felt and talked. Then the three weary days of searching for Him in the city and the hopelessness and heartache at the close of each day—we cannot but wonder if they prayed to Him who is perfect in knowledge, who knoweth even our thoughts (Job xxxiv, 4; Ps. cxxxix, 1-4). If they thought of Him they would have said, "Let us go right to the temple, for we will surely find Him there." Did He not imply that when He said to them after they did find Him in the temple: "How is it that ye sought me? Wist ye not that I must be about My Father's business?" (verse 49). Revised version and margin, "In My Father's house" or "in the things of My Father." He certainly knew who He was, and we are not surprised that the rabbis were astonished at His understanding and answered as He sat in their midst, listening to them and asking them questions. How He must, even at that age, have opened to them the Scriptures. We would like to know whose home was honored with His presence and who was privileged to care for Him those two or three days, but it is more important for us to lay to heart those first words of His as Son of Mary, the first recorded words. "I must be about My Father's business. If we are not constantly in the things of our Father we are on the side of the enemy, for it must be the world or the Father, and they are opposed the one to the other (I John II, 15-17). Contrast the "opposition" of Joseph and Mary (verse 44) with the "most surely believed" and "certainty" of chapter I, 1, 4, and let us have done with all supposition and "know" and "fully persuaded" (II Tim. I, 12). Though they understood not His sayings, Mary kept them in her heart and pondered them (verses 19, 50, 51).

PROSPEROUS YEAR.

The annual report of the Ontario Labor Bureau, which has just been placed in the hands of the printers by Mr. Robert Edgar, Chief of the Bureau, will show that the Province enjoyed a year of remarkable prosperity during 1911 in all departments of manufacturing and labor.

In contrast to the unrest and unemployment existing to the south of the American border, the statistics for Ontario, gathered from all the trade unions and practically every manufacturer, indicate that unemployment has been very rare, and, as a rule, there have been positions for every applicant.

Indeed, in certain skilled trades, it has been difficult to obtain sufficient help to keep pace with the growth of business.

The report will also show that, within the boundaries of the Province, there is a total of $32,000,000 worth of municipally owned utilities such as waterworks, light and power plants, etc.

Another interesting statement is that the percentage of wages to the total value of manufactured products remains practically the same as one year ago, that is, twenty-six per cent.

Spasms of Coughing

AND FRANTIC GASPING FOR BREATH COMMON TO BRONCHITIS AND ASTHMA.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine

Both bronchitis and asthma are diseases of the nerves as well as of the bronchial tubes, and for this reason only slight irritation or excitement is required to bring on the terrible coughing spells and frantic gasping for breath.

There is nothing like Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine to bring relief to sufferers from bronchitis and asthma.

It soothes the irritated nerves, eases and prevents the attacks of coughing, and enables the system to throw off the disease. In fact the great popularity of this medicine is largely due to its success in curing bronchitis and severe chest colds.

Since permanent recovery depends largely on getting the nervous system thoroughly restored, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is of the greatest assistance in revitalizing the wasted nerve cells. This combined treatment is ideal as a cure for bronchitis and asthma, for, while the Linseed and Turpentine brings relief to the organs of respiration, the Nerve Food restores the body to full health and strength, and enables it to fight off disease.

There are many imitations of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. The portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., are on every bottle of the genuine; 25c. a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmondson Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

OBITUARY.

LATE PATRICK ROCHE.

Mr. Patrick Roche, another of the old Ops residents, passed away on Wednesday at his home on lot 15, con. 7, Ops. The deceased had been in good health until two days previous to his demise, and his sudden death came as a surprise to the family. The late Mr. Roche was a man who commanded the respect of neighbors and friends, being possessed of a kindly disposition, and ready to do what was just and upright with his fellowmen. He was 78 years of age and a devout attendant of St. Mary's R. C. church.

Celebrated Anniversary of Their Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bell, South Ops, entertained a number of their relatives on Wednesday, Jan. 24th, in honor of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wilson, of Thornhill, Man., it being their silver wedding anniversary. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion and a very pleasant evening was spent in music and games.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell received a number of presents in silver. Those present included, Mrs. C. Thurston, sister of Mr. B. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCullum, west of town, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham, Mr. and Mrs. R. Sanderson, Fenelon; Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilson, Omemee; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sanderson, Reabour; Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Wilson, Dundasford; Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Sanderson, Lindsay; Mr. and Mrs. Will. Thurston, Dundasford.

Wishing Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wilson many more anniversaries and thanking Mr. and Mrs. Bell for their kind hospitality, all returned to their respective homes in the wee sma' hours.

The Word "Bogus."

The word "bogus" is said by Dr. Ogilvie to be derived from Boghesse, the name of a notorious American swindler who about the year 1835 flooded the western and southwestern states with counterfeit bills, sham mortgages and such like. Others connect the word with "boggy," a scarecrow or goblin, and so applied to anything fictitious or chimerical. Lowell in the "Biglow Papers" says, "I more than suspect the word to be a corruption of the French bagasse." This bagasse was the sugar cane as delivered in its dry, crushed state from the mill, called also cane trash, and fit only for burning, being thus synonymous with useless rubbish. Again, according to Brewer, there is in French argot, or thieves' slang, a word, bogus, which signifies the rind of a green chestnut or the case of a watch, and this also brings us to the idea of an outward seeming without any solid and reputable foundation.

Chinese Names.

It is apparently the intention of the revolutionaries to obliterate altogether the old distinctions between Chinamen and Manchus. One of these was that whereas a Chinaman had three names a Manchu had two. Yuan Shih Kai, for example, is a Chinaman by his triple name, whereas the members of the late ministry had dual names and were thus proclaimed Manchus. It is now decreed that the Manchus are to acquire a Chinese name, and the old distinction, which was often helpful to the European student of Chinese affairs, will thus vanish.—London Globe.

Do you honestly believe the world is growing better?

"Yes, I do. I saw a woman pay car fare for a twelve-year-old boy this morning, without making an effort to convince the conductor that the child was under six."—Chicago Record-Herald.

EX-LINDSAY MEN DINE.

That Lindsay always produced men fit to fill high positions, has been time and again proven beyond the shadow of a doubt. Their energy and far-sightedness has invariably placed them in the front seats.

A British Columbia daily made a note of a dinner given by a one time prominent gentleman in Lindsay, Mr. Wes. Greer, who invited to dine with him a few of his home town friends at the Empress hotel, Victoria, B.C. Seated around the festive board were Mr. Mike Gillespie, manager for Pat Burns, a cattle king; Mr. Joe. O'Connell, of the firm of Fitzpatrick & O'Connell; Mr. Garnet Hughes, chief engineer of B. C. railway; and Mr. F. A. McDiarmid, city solicitor of Victoria.

It is not often that so many old Lindsay boys, all of whom hold prominent positions, meet together.

WALKER WINS SUIT AGAINST THE TOWN.

Judgment was given in this action this morning awarding the plaintiff $300, damages with full costs. Mr. Samuel Walker, the plaintiff, fell on the sidewalk on Sussex-st., in June last, and suffered serious injury. He claimed the sidewalk was seriously out of repair and that a plank had been off for over a month. It was shown that eight years ago the town engineer had reported a new walk necessary but nothing was done. The defendants contended that the plaintiff knowing the condition of the sidewalk was guilty of contributory negligence, but the Judge held that he had taken due care.

G. H. Hopkins, K.C., and F. Holmes Hopkins, for plaintiff; R. J. McLaughlin, K.C., and A. M. Fulton, for defendants.
