Peterboro Couple Celebrate Their Golden Wedding

Examiner: An interesting event in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Kennedy materialized Tuesday in the form of their golden wedding anniversary, which was celebrated in their home, 600 Water-st. Surrounded by their sons and daughters and their families, who were all present with the exception of two sons, Mr. H. D. Kennedy, of Indiana, and Mr. S. Kennedy, of British Columbia, and one grandson, Mr. Clifton Kidd, of Regina, they received the congratulations of a wide circle of friends, and incidentally were the recipients of many beautiful presents, testifying to the golden opinions of which the worthy couple were the objects.

Mr. Kennedy and Miss Rebecca Sherin, daughter of the late Mr. Henry Sherin, of Emily, were united in marriage by the Rev. John Cameron on the 20th of February in 1862 in this city. After their marriage they made their home on Mr. Kennedy's farm in the township of Otumabee, where for forty-four years the latter pursued his vocation as an agriculturist. During that time he established for himself the well deserved reputation of being one of the most progressive and successful farmers in the community. Governed by a broad sense of responsibility, in his duty towards his neighbors and fellow citizens, Mr. Kennedy

Presbyterian Church Now Free of Debt

Kinmount, Feb. 19.—On Wednesday last, 14th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Murray, their eldest daughter Jane, and Mr. Wilbert Lyle, son of Mr. John Lyle, reeve of Lutterworth, were united in marriage. The Rev. Mr. Lord officiated in his usual happy way on such occasions. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for their home in Millbrook, where Mr. Lyle carries on a blacksmithing business. Your correspondent joins with their many friends in wishing the young couple many years of wedded bliss.

The Presbyterians of the village and surrounding district are to be congratulated on having their church free from debt. A couple of years ago they had an addition built to it, inside renovated, a furnace installed, new seats placed, etc., cost in all about $1,050. The church now is as nice inside as any country place can show, and all that is needed is a man to man the field.

No service was held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday as the preacher for the day missed the morning train from Toronto.

Mr. Tom MacEachern, of the L.C.I., spent the week end with his parents here.

Miss Carew, of Lindsay, is visiting friends in the village this week.

Miss Leta Train, of the Peterboro Business College, is home for a day or two. Her final exams. come off next week and we wish her success.

Mr. Frank Conway went to Toronto last Wednesday.

Mrs. George Train went to Lindsay on Friday morning to see her husband who is in the hospital.

The following were Lindsay visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McMahon, Mr. Jas. Ritchie and Dr. Frost. The latter went to be with Mr. G. Train, while undergoing the operation at the hospital.

On Friday the 9th inst., at the Baptist parsonage, by the Rev. Mr. Walker, Mr. George Davis and Miss Jennima Smith were united in marriage. We wish them many happy days in their married life.

The Rev. C. E. Pratt, of Minden, occupied the pulpit of St. James church here on the 18th.

Mr. James Wilson, formerly a butcher here, is at present visiting friends in the village. He is located at present near Wainwright, Sask.

On Saturday evening Cobocook hockey team visited our burg, and defeated the home team by a score of 14-4. Cook, on coverpoint, and Deyman in goal for the visitors, played a star game, while our own Jack Austin shone for Kinmount. The Cobocook boys are good sports and we hope to meet them often. Our team play the return match at Cobocook on Wednesday, 21st. The referee handled the game to the entire satisfaction of every one.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McMahon, who have been visiting friends, left on Tuesday morning for their home at Kinley, Sask.

Miss Leta Train who has been attending Peterboro Business College, is home on a visit.

Miss Carey, of Lindsay, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Read The Watcher.

Tenders Let For House of Refuge Supplies

Warden Steele, of Eldon, Deputy-Reeve A. J. Varcoe, of Mariposa, and Reeve J. J. Devitt, of Verulam, who represent the Board of Management of the County House of Refuge were in town on Thursday. The object of their mission was in connection with the accepting of tenders for the purchase of supplies for the coming year, commencing on the first of March, for the House.

The three gentlemen who comprise the board accompanied the County Clerk, Mr. J. R. McNeillie, went on a tour of inspection to the farm and buildings at the House, and considered the advisability of making certain repairs, which come under the head of usual wear and tear to the building.

The management speak well of the treatment given the inmates, and of the benevolence of the caretaker and his wife to the aged people.

The following tenders were accepted: general supplies, Adams Bros., beef, P. J. Campbell, bread, Warner Bros.

Heavier Fines on the Slate for Offenders

For supplying one on the prohibited list with liquor Magistrate Jackson at Wednesday's court imposed a fine and costs amounting to $29.75 upon the violator of the law.

The P. M. wishes it to be explicitly understood that this will be the grand finale of small fines. The next offender will be granted the full limit of $60.00.

The accused pleaded guilty and admitted to Inspector Thornbury that he received a large fresh white fish and a carpenter's rule for the two flasks which he had given the blacklisted one. This is the highest price ever known to be paid for one whole fish in Lindsay. But this one didn't belong to the regulars.

The prohibited one is wintering at the castle on the hill, for thirty days, where he will be lavishly entertained by mine host Balfour on soup and four course dinners. Verily, the way of the transgressor is at all times hard.

demonstrative meeting held in Bowmanville on Monday. The hall, he informed The Watcher, was packed to the doors.

C. O. O. F. Banquet and Entertainment Bi Success

The Canadian Order of Oddfellows gave a most sumptuous banquet, and musical entertainment to the members of the Society and ladies, at the Powers restaurant on Monday night. The affair was one of luxury and innovation. Mine Host Powers catering to the guests in his usual style. The tables were beautifully decorated and the following menu will give one an idea to the proprietor catered to the wants of his guests:

MENU

Oddfellow the barnyard. Accompanied by Murphys. Jelly surrounded by chastised calves food.

Porker rolled in grass. Salad a la Sauerkraut Let Us Beat It.

Big Chief Sauce—Cucumbers Life's Necessity—Crackers. Sweet Milk Pie Squeezer Pie Frozen Sweets with Cakes. Cafe Noir.

After the banquet the party were entertained by speech making, musical selections on the piano and solos rendered by some of Lindsay's leading singers.

The chair was occupied by Mr. C. Hughan who filled it creditably. The first toast of the evening, "Our King and Country" was responded to by Mr. Hughan, who dwelt upon the greatness of the British Empire and the loyalty and honor due His Majesty. The speaker interspersed remarks with many witty and pleasant incidents, of a catchy nature.

"Our Town," brought Dr. White to his feet. The doctor in his usual good oratorical form spoke of the possibilities of Lindsay, and of its future greatness and means of advancement.

"Our Society" by Mr. Wm. McWatters was clearly defined in a neat speech on the society and its growth.

Mr. L. R. Knight was called upon to respond to "The Ladies and Our Guests." The gentleman spoke in a most appreciative way of the gentler sex and the part they played in the elevating of society.

The Press was represented by Messrs. Begley, Duck and Wilson.

The speaking was followed by a music, program in which the following ladies and gentlemen took part: solo, by Miss Stollard, followed by a solo by Mr. T. Murtha "The King and Empire" which was highly appreciated by all. Mrs. (Dr.) Nesbitt sang a beautiful selection, entitled, "Jessie's Dream." Mr. J. Coulter followed with a catchy solo, "There's a Land." Recitation by "Miss Brown" was a very important feature of the entertainment. Miss Gladys Powers, with a sweet voice, was much admired, as was also Miss Brown who rendered a nice solo. A piano duet by Miss Mary Connolly and Mr. Bennett was of a high musical order and inspiring to all.

The guests parted after the singing of the National Anthem, all highly pleased with the banquet and amusement furnished by the Society.

Mill Dam at Mt. Pleasant Broke Away—Much Damage

Omemee, Feb. 19. — The Ladies Aid of the First Presbyterian church will hold a basket social at the home of Mrs. Mahood on Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Everybody who intends going is expected to provide a basket for two. For those who do not bring baskets refreshments will be provided for 15 cents. A splendid program has been prepared. Everybody come and enjoy a pleasant evening.

A very successful Valentine social was held on Wednesday evening in the basement of the Methodist church by the Christian Brotherhood. Rev. R. Burns, pastor, presided, and the following program was carried out at the conclusion of which refreshments were served: piano solo, Miss Poast; chairman's address; Victoria music, Mr. John McCrea; paper on St. Valentine, President M. Sherin; instrumental duet, Misses Balfour and Burns; reading, Mr. T. W. McLean; vocal, Mr. R. Cornwall; Victrola music, Mr. John McCrea; recitation, Mrs. I. Magee; vocal, Mr. Jos. Parsons; piano solo, Mr. Melville Earle; recitation, Miss Bushnell; Victrola music, Mr. John McCrea; vocal, Mr. R. Cornwall; piano duet, Misses Grandy and Ivory. God Save the King.

The mill dam of Mr. G. A. Jamieson on the stream at Mount Pleasant broke away on Saturday morning and the pent-up waters overflowed the valley. This is a repetition of what occurred last summer after a day of terrific thunder and very heavy rain. The loss to Mr. Jamieson is great as his mill is now without power and this is the season of chopping. The dam farther down has not been completed by Mr. Best who hopes to finish the dam and build a new mill in the place where the one stood that the waters washed away.

All that was mortal of the late Mrs. Walter Petty was consigned to the grave on Monday last. The deceased was well known in the township of Emily and Cavan. She was a scion of a family that represented pioneering times and was much respected. At the time of her death she was residing with her daughter,

Ship Ahoy Carnival Held at Manilla

Manilla, Feb. 20. — Mr. Herbie McDonald, a student of the Peterboro business college, spent the week end in town with his parents.

Mr. W. H. Carter, of Orillia, visited the parental home last week.

The residence of Mr. Richard Barry had a narrow escape of being destroyed by fire on Tuesday last. At the noon hour some children going home for dinner noticed the roof of the kitchen on fire and with the application of several buckets of water the flames were extinguished before any serious loss resulted.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon drove to Argyle on Sunday to attend the sick bed of Mrs. Richard Grills, who lies in a serious condition, no hope being held for her recovery. Mr. Grills is well and favorably known here, being an esteemed resident of Manilla for a number of years and her many friends regret to learn of her serious illness.

Miss Jennie Glendenning, of Montreal, arrived home on Monday morning to attend the nuptials of her sister, Miss Minnie Glendenning to Mr. W. H. Beattie, of Guelph on Tuesday, Feb. 20.

Mr. Fawn Patterson, of Toronto, spent the week end in Manilla. The Manilla Methodist choir assisted at the Sunday School convention held at Little Britain on Tuesday.

The Ship-ahoy Carnival held in Manilla on Friday evening last was a huge success. The weather was all that could be desired, the attendance large, and the ice in excellent condition. The receipts at the gate were very gratifying. A large number drove over from Cannington accompanied by the Cannington brass band who rendered some fine selections of music which added much to the merit of the evening. There were not so many dressed in carnival attire as on former occasions. In the fancy dress class for ladies Miss Dobson of Cannington as Indian Lady looked charming and was awarded first prize. Master Frank McPhail, costumed as Indian Bride looked bewitching and carried off first prize. Mrs. E. Noakes attired representing a nurse looked pretty and won second prize. In the fancy dress competition there were other costumes names unknown. Mr. H. McDonald and Miss J. Watson carried off first prize in the couple race, while Mr. F. Halward and Miss L. Pearce secured second prize. In the keg race competition Mr. W. Beatty secured first and Mr. M. Noakes second.

of Camrose, Alta., will tour Ontario during the month of March, arriving in Lindsay on March 13, at 6.23 p.m., remaining until Thursday, will leave at 6.28 p.m., the secretary, Mr. M. F. Dunham, extends a cordial invitation to Mr. Jordan to favor them with his presence and to bring his friends along.

All information regarding the district will be freely given visitors, and all matters from a farmer's standpoint will be freely discussed. The party will include a dozen or more of Ontario's previous prominent residents, accompanied by the mayor, president of the board of trade, aldermen and others. This exhibit will prove untold worth to any person who ever contemplates making a home in the west, more especially the district of Camrose, for which there appears to be in store a wonderful future. The itinerary on the sheet gives the exact time, day and date. Each place in Ontario will be favored with a visit.

FROZEN TO DEATH.

P. Thompson, teller in the Bank of Hamilton, at Fernie, B.C., and recently transferred from Winnipeg, perished alone in the hills across the river. He started for a tramp at ten o'clock Sunday, taking with him a camera and snowshoes.
