OBITUARY.

LATE MISS M. SHAW.
The death of the late Minnie Shaw caused a feeling of deep regret amongst her many friends in town as she was highly respected by all who knew her. Miss Shaw had been a resident of Toronto for the past 18 years and about four months ago contracted anaemia. Later on she was stricken with a slight form of paralysis, which she succumbed to Tuesday morning, Feb. 4. The deceased was 42 years of age and is survived by three brothers, James, of Lindsay; Frank and Wesley, Toronto. Also five sisters, Maggie, of Lindsay; Jennie, Hattie, Mrs. Jno. Gladman and Mrs. Tom Bunting, of Toronto.

The funeral will take place from the home of her brother, Mr. James Shaw, 12 George-st., on Thursday, Feb. 6th inst., at 3 o'clock p.m., and proceed to Riverside cemetery, where interment takes place. Service will be held at the house half an hour previous to removal of remains.

Daniel Vail, teamster, was killed in the G.T.R. yards at Brighton.
