-The best collection of horses, the finest body of Canada's yeomanry, and the most highly finished lot of machinery will be seen on Saturday, March 16th in the Massey-Harris parade at Lindsay.
-While it is being stated and agreed that liquor drinking is on the increase, the report of the inspector of licences for Ontario makes an announcement that either disproves that theory, or shows that drinking and drunkenness do not necessarily go together. The report shows that the average yearly commitments of intoxicated persons from 1876 to 1880 was 3821; from 1881 to 1885, 4016; from 1886 to 1890, 4311; from 1891 to 1895, 2703; while from 1896 to 1900 they were only 1920, or nearly 55 per cent. less than 15 years ago.—8-2.

Little Local Lines

-Mr. Fox has introduced a bill to have government drains better protected. If he can protect the treasury from being drained, he will do the province a service.
-Mr. Gordon King of Pleasant View Farm, Mariposa, shipped four fine thoroughbred breeding pigs a couple of weeks ago to J. W. Teal of Guelph, Ont.
-Headquarters for first-class clean coal, all sizes, coming direct from the mines. Also the very best black-smith and steam coal. Dry hardwood always in stock. R Bryans & Co.—3-8.
-Our stock of blankets, sheetings, underwear, mitts, etc., must be cleaned out during the next thirty days as we will close our Kent-st. branch during the spring and summer months, no room to return the stock to the factory, so if you want bargains in woollens do not miss this genuine sale. HORN BROS., Old Ontario Bank.—7-3.
-On Friday last, Mr. Clark Smith, who lives a couple of miles south of Woodville lost a valuable young horse. On going into the stable he found it lying down and unwilling to get up. He then discovered that one hind leg was broken. He had to kill the animal. How the leg got hurt is a mystery. Mr. Smith had shortly before put the horse into the stable. Another horse stood near it and on the side away from the broken leg, so that it could hardly have been kicked.

Little Local Lines

-Boarders Wanted.—A few boarders can find a comfortable home at reasonable rates, at Lewis Dyer's, 115 William-st.
-On Saturday morning Drs. Burrows and Allan performed a skilful operation in removing a tumor from the head of Mr. W. Hopkins, grocer of the east ward.
-Now is the time, and this is the place, to get your lumber, shingles and lath. We have a complete stock of dry pine and hemlock. Give us a chance to figure the bill for that new house, barn or silo. All estimates furnished cheerfully. Best lime and cement always on hand. R. Bryans & Co.—3-8.
-The mortality returns, as received at the Provincial Health Department for the month of January, show that out of 10 per cent. of the population there were 2,261 deaths, as compared with 1,771 out of 95 per cent. of the population in the same month of 1900. To gripe is given the distinction of causing the increase.
-Carpenters and masons are working on the interior of the town hall. The entire floor space is now clear and the sticker is to know what to do next. It is proposed to make the west end the council chamber and divide the east end into offices with the centre seated as auditorium. -The spectacular entertainments put on at the Academy by Messrs. Britton and Begbie, have given these gentlemen a reputation in that line, and the public a number of pleasant evenings to say nothing of the cash they have sent to the Home for the Aged.
-Begbie is now at work on two performances that will undoubtedly be the finest local production ever seen in Lindsay. They will be presented on Thursday and Friday, April 11th and 12th. The first night's performance will consist of a kerneuse and living whist. The fancy dances and unique spectacular effects of this evening's program cannot be reduced to print. On the second night the cantata "Snow Queen" will be rendered. The electrical effects in this are superb. About 140 children will take part. The committee has placed the whole performance in Mr. Begbie's hands and the proceeds will go to the Home.
