At this juncture a deputation consisting of Messrs. R. J. McLaughlin R. Kylie, H. J. Lytle, J. D. Fiavelle, C. Chittick and William Isaac Reid, entered the council chamber and were on motion accorded a hearing.

Mr. R. J. McLaughlin, solicitor for Fenelon, said that the people of that township had in the past suffered much inconvenience for want of a direct road to Lindsay, and as such road would be a benefit to Lindsay and Ops, as well as to Fenelon, they NOTICE OF MEETING-A meeting had come to ask Ops council to unite with Fenelon and Lindsay in sendthe Town Hall, Oakwood, at two ing a deputation to Toronto at an early date to solicit a government grant to build a roadway across the marsh at McLaren's Creek. Such road would be a continuation ed to vote who are members for William-st, north-ward, to the vilage of Cameron, would shorten the distance to Fenelon Falls very much and would be a great benefit to all concerned.

Mr. Flavelle said he thought the government would respond favorably to such a deputation since the dam at Bobcaygeon was the cause of backing the water on the proposed for, and will arrange the payments roadway. He understood, too, that to suit the purchaser. The location the cost of building the road across secret of it and would rather pay for the marsh would not be as expensive as some might suppose, as it is shalhouses are very warm and in good low, with a good rock and gravel condition and all rented. Now is bottom. While it might be said it would be of no benefit to Ops he was of the opinion that Ops would share up in value all over the town and the benefit as well as Fenelon and probably never will be cheaper. Lindsay-in fact it would be a bene-Apply to Capt. Geo. Crandell, fit to the whole county and the danger to travel on boundry hill would then be overcome.

Mr. Chittick related his dangerous experience on the boundry hill and Fenelon, Ops and Lindsay the much this year.—Carried. desired road would be built.

Mr. Wm. J. Reid said that he was personally interested in the proposed road, as he owned a farm in Fenelon near it, but aside from that he thought the road would be of great benefit to the people of the township who had to go miles around to come to Lindsay and the shortening of the have the best Andalusians in Ameri- distance to Fenelon Falls would undoubtedly be a benefit to Ops and Lindsay, too, perhaps, but thought it would be of very little use to Ops Ops already have more roads to maintain than the council could well attend to though the annual expenpen; eggs guaranteed to be fresh diture for roads is nearly $4000. and all right. Messrs. John Duke and B. Tully addressed the council on behalf of Ed. Riordon, indigent, stating that arrangements are being made to have the old man sent to the Soldier's Home at Bath, New York, and requesting that the council have him admitted to the Home in Lindsay for some days till he could be sent away;

Mr. Hickson moved seconded by IN REGULAR SESSION Mr. Byrne that the Geeve request the Board for the Home for the Aged to admit Ed. Riordan as a temporary inmate until arrangements have been completed for his removal to the Soldier's Home, New York .-- Carried.

Tenders for Printing

Mr. Hickson moved seconded by Mr. Sluggett that the clerk ask for sealed tenders for the township printing for the year beginning May 1st, 1901; that the fenders be received till April 26th; and that the Reeve and Clerk and the mover be a com-From the clerk of Mariposa in re- mittee to open the said tenders .-

After due consideration the council on motion by Messrs. Hawkins and Sluggett, decided to take no action on the proposed Fencion road at present, since the Ous ratepayers directly interested had not made known their views regarding it. During the afternoon session Mr. C. Chittick again called on the council with the reeve of Fenelon and Mr. Suggitt, who on being introduced set forth the necessity and advantages of a direct road to Fenelon Falls, but the council did not alter the resolution already passed.

West Cross Creeks Bridge

Ex-Reeve O'Connell informed the council that 334 of the county grant obtained last year for the West Cross Creeks bridge was yet unexpended, and he hoped it would be expended on the bridge this year.

- A Malicious Report

Mr. P. Leddy was next heard and said he had been informed that it was rumoured throughout the township that he had paved his barnyard with crushed stone belonging to the township. Since he heard the report he had called on two members of the council to inspect the premises and value the stone. Messrs. Sluggett and Hickson had done so, and he wished to pay for the stone. Messrs. Sluggett and Hickson said the quantity was so small- barely half a load-that they would set no

Mr. Leddy explained that it was a part of a load of second grade stone that was left after the rest had been removed, but he made no it. He was quite indignant at such reports reflecting on his honesty.

Appointment of Officers Mr. Hickson moved seconded by Mr. Hawkins that 95 pathmasters, 22 fenceviewers and 14 poundkeepers be appointed for the township of Ops for the current year, and that a byaw be introduced confirming their appointment.—Carried.

An Unexpended Grant Mr. Hawkins moved seconded by Mr. Sluggett, that the unexpended balance of the appropriation made lor the E. C. C. bridge last year, be placed to the credit of Commissioner trusted that by the united action of Byrne for expenditure on said bridge

Charity Matters

The case of William McCullough was discussed, and on motion by Messrs. Sluggett and Hickson it was decided to take no further action in the matter at present.

An appeal having been made to council for special assistance for L. Powers' family, Mr. Hickson moved, seconded by Mr. Sluggett, that Mr. Hawkins call on the family to ascertain their wants, and procure them if actually necessary.-Carried.

Moved by Mr. Hawkins seconded by Mr. Sluggett that Mr. Tagney be paid $14 for coffin and case for the late P. Macksey; Wm. Porteous for a cord of wood each for Powers and Gold families $5; James Greer, flour L. Powers' family $4.65; flour and other supplies for Gold family $4.85.
