1901 SPRING CLOTHING 1901

THIS STORE has gathered together the greatest and best assortment of all kinds of Wearing Apparel for Men and Boys that's within our reach. If any person doubts this assertion come and test our stock. There's something to please most people. We buy from makers only and save you from twenty to thirty per cent. on your purchases. The strongest argument we can use is that we buy the very best and most reliable goods that's on the market. We pay spot cash and sell at a living profit. This year's stock is the largest in our history. We have gone half way around the world to get it, and many weeks have been employed in buying.

In the list below we have only taken some few numbers, but there are hundreds of other items that cannot be found room for in this advt. Keep this ever before you: We sell good Clothing and nothing of a shady nature is allowed in this stock.

A BIG SHOWING OF ALL KINDS OF SUITS

Of all the Clothing makers in Canada W. R. Johnston & Co. take the lead, and nearly the whole of our stock is made by them. When you buy a Suit from us you know that it is right up to date; it's made of fine and reliable materials and that your money is well spent.

Now here's a funnyman—a man actually, who doesn't like Limburger! 'Limburger cheese laid away in cupboards and refrigerators will drive away ants.' 'No doubt,' says Rambler in the Weekly Sun, 'it will drive dogs out of a tan yard; it will drive a herd of cattle over a precipice; it will drive a tramp away from a meal; it will drive a negroe away from a chicken roost, or a man into insanity if he stays five minutes within ten feet of its savory presence; yes, sir, it will drive away ants, also, and if he had any cousins that it wouldn't drive away he should be tempted to disown them; and yet some men sit and eat the stuff and profess to like it!'

Spring has arrived. The premature robin has not yet been reported, but one of the brewery athletes has seen several snakes.
While crossing the river below the Wellington-st. bridge on Monday, Mr. McCrea, the foundryman, broke through the ice. He got out unassisted.
On Friday evening the members of the Masonic order here met in the lodge room to say good-bye to Mr. Harry McNeil on the eve of his departure for Millbrook. They made complimentary speeches, read an address and presented him with a gold-headed cane. The address made reference to his being senior warden in the order, a straightforward man who lived closely to the obligations of Masonry; and declared that he took with him the best wishes of the lodge.
The April Delineator, on sale in the middle of March, is out soon enough to have its effect on Easter garments. The eighty shown forecast the favorite styles for spring and summer wear. This number is especially strong in its picturing of the new fabrics for summer wear. The dressmaking article in the April number, from the skilled hand of Mrs. Gorman, is devoted to Lingerie, cutting, making and trimming. It explains by word and by diagram how women can successfully make their own undergarments.
