

Making Stock PAY

Most people who have stock know that keeping it in good condition is money in their pockets. Condition Powders are widely used—often with poor results. The ordinary kinds are an odd mixture of good and bad—gotten up in the "hit-or-miss" fashion. Remedies for stock should be as scientific as those for the human family, and on this basis Old English Condition Powder is compounded. Per pound - 20 cents. 6 pounds - $1.00.

LITTLE LOCAL LINES...

News of Town and Country Briefly Told

—Drop in and see Clarke's new spring tweeds, just arrived. A first-class suit, well made and trimmed, for $15.00, the best value in town. Clarke, the Tailor, opposite the Benson House, Lindsay.

—The Canadian Sportsman says: We have received several different accounts of the open race at the late Ottawa ice meeting and all are agreed that it was a bad race, the whole trouble being lack of firmness and decision on the stand. To the most casual observer the heat betting was arranged to milk the public, and it was the bounden duty of the judge to protect the public and read the Riot Act to the Hal Patron gang. One prompt, fearless official, not afraid to do his duty, would have kept a lot of money out of the pockets of the sharks. It should scarcely be necessary to remind the Ottawa Club that they cannot afford to let their reputation be played. The rules laid down for the guidance of the public, and they should be rigidly enforced. It is not the first time we have been forced by a sense of duty to disclose to the Ottawa Club some weak points in their management.

—Intense excitement was manifested in Port Hope last Wednesday evening on the arrival of the Port Hope hockey team from Toronto, where they had won the junior '05 H. A. championship by defeating Woodstock. The railway station was illuminated and decorated, and the arrival of the train was signaled by the discharge of numbers of fog signals. All Port Hope welcomed the team with great cheering. The boys were paraded through the streets in an open cab and were accompanied by a band and torchlight procession, amid the vociferous plaudits of the populace. A banquet was held at the Queen's Hotel, at which all the municipal magnates were present. There were speeches and general jubilation. Fireworks were discharged in the streets, which for hours presented a most animated appearance.

—You might just as well burn your money as buy liniments to cure your rheumatism. Hundreds in and around this town have been quickly cured by Dr. Roscoe's Rheumatic Remedy, and it will cure you. Any drug store.—9.

—Anxious as to the fate of Louis Bell who is supposed to have been drowned in the canal near Auburn last fall a person in Peterboro bought one of Mrs. Fay's books and wrote, asking what had been the fate of the youth, who has caused so much anxiety. Mrs. Fay, in her reply, stated that Louis Bell was alive and in New York, but did not give any address, so that it is impossible for his parents to investigate the matter any further.

—Toronto Globe: Mr. Hugh McMillan of Guelph, returned to the King Edward Hotel last night from a visit to Lindsay, where he was sworn in yesterday by the County Crown Attorney of Victoria as junior judge for the county. Judge McMillan will take his first court in his new capacity on March 20th, and shortly after that date will take up his residence in Lindsay.

—Sunlight Soap is better than other soaps, but is best when used in the Sunlight way. Buy Sunlight Soap and follow directions.

—A deputation from Orillia waited upon Hon. Mr. Hanna, the Provincial Secretary, last week, with a request that the Government take action in reference to a by-law passed by the citizens in 1874, by which no shop licenses were to be issued in Orillia. Since then one shop license has been granted annually by the commissioners, despite the local enactment, and the deputation asked that the Government should take the license out of the Minister and Mr. Eudo Saunders, secretary of the department, promised to look into the matter and give it their fullest consideration.

—Mr. John Earl, of Cameron, delivered six Yorkshire White hogs 6½ months old to a local drover on Friday last that netted him $97.87, or $6.75 live weight. At this price hog raising should pay.

—Notice of motion was given by Mr. W. K. McNaught in the Ontario Legislature on Friday of a bill to prohibit the treating system. It is the outcome of a motion made by Mr. J. E. Robertson at the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, which Mr. Robertson stated he would bring up at the annual meeting of that club. Mr. Robertson's motion would apply only to the club itself, and he said a number of temperance men in the city have now asked Mr. McNaught to introduce a bill containing similar provisions, which would apply to the whole province. The bill which Mr. McNaught will introduce is very brief and simple in its provisions. It makes it illegal for any person to treat another to a drink or intoxicating liquor, or to pay for liquors consumed by another. It also makes liable to prosecution the bartender or licensee who serves a drink paid for by any other person than the consumer. The penalties attached are light, inasmuch as the present bill is proposed mainly as an educative measure, with a view to having the subject well discussed, both in the House and through the province.

—Hotel accommodation in local option towns is a serious question, and the commercial travellers want the municipality to provide it as a corollary of local option bylaws. A deputation representing the Toronto and London Associations waited on the Provincial Secretary this week to ask for an amendment to the Local Option Act, which would have the result that whenever and wherever a local option bylaw is passed the municipality enacting it must provide accommodation for the travelling public. The travellers also wish to have Government inspection of hotels as to their cleanliness, sanitary conditions, food, etc.

—The Trades' Unionist, of Vancouver, B.C., says: There are a number of advertisements being issued in the east asking for carpenters to come to the coast, as in view of the extra building operations that mechanic is noted for his scarcity. Needless to say this is a falsehood. On April 1st the new scale of the carpenters goes into effect, from 40c to 45c per hour, and it is not unlikely that some of the master carpenters are trying to get the market flooded so as to be in a position to dictate to the carpenters' unions. The members are taking prompt and effective methods to dispell this illusion, and with very satisfactory results. Remember, there are more than enough carpenters, even through the busiest season, to fulfill all demands.

—This is very bad weather for rheumatism, as is shown by the demand for the famous Dr. Roscoe's Rheumatic Remedy. This medicine will cure any case that can be cured. It is the best known cure for all forms of rheumatism. Price $1. Any drug store.—9.

—A deputation from Omemece, composed of Reeve Beatty and Councilor Dr. Rogers, waited upon the C.P.R. officials at Toronto on Thursday last, to try and induce that company to locate a station at the town. The proposed new line will run about three miles from the town, and the people are very anxious to have the trains stop. The company, although not stating positively that the request would be granted, gave the deputation a cheering answer.

—Mr. Andrew Carnegie of public libraries fame, will visit Toronto on April 28 and 29.

—The Ontario License department has determined that all hotels shall be strictly up to the mark, so to speak, and that the accommodation and provision for the public shall be ample in every respect. All license inspectors will be required to make full and complete reports, and for this purpose blank forms have been forwarded to each official. Inspector Thornbury has been in the city of the forms, and has already begun an inspection of all the hotels. Many questions have to be answered and the investigation will be most thorough, as the present government is determined that license holders must keep hotel in the proper sense of the word.

—Clark's made-clothes tweed suits at $16 cannot be excelled in town. A large range of patterns, all this spring's goods, to select from. See these goods before ordering your suit. Remember the place, Alex. Clarke, the Tailor, opposite the Benson House, Lindsay.

—A subscriber writes: What's the matter with Lindsay? We all know that power costs 23c per cent. per horse power more in our little town than Peterboro. True we have a Board of Trade but what have they done to improve the financial standing of the people. This is the line of talk indulged in by many of the groups you see along Kent-st. I was in Downeyville last week and saw several loads of grain passing through the village. Did they go to Lindsay? No. All went to Omemece. Can Lindsay give on the bunch of retired farmers we have in our midst and from the agricultural community which surrounds it. Wake up and take a leaf from our new councillor's book, progress and improvement also cheap power is available.

—An interesting contest is in progress in connection with the Y.M.C.A. The members divided into teams, and captained respectively by Fred Henley and Percy Skitch are out-soliciting subscriptions and membership to that institution. The contest started on March 1st, the covers of the contest each dollar secured counts a point. A flag is displayed on Kent-st., showing the color of the team which is ahead. Yesterday the green had the best of it, the count showing green 69 points, gold 55.

—The Board of Trade will hold the first annual banquet at the Benson House this evening.

—Fourteen scholarships to the value of $75, for male teachers and $70 for females will be granted by the Minister of Education to teachers holding at least second class professional certificates. They are also granted from the Macdonald Rural School Fund five cents per mile for travelling expenses. The Nature Study course commences on April 5, and extends over a period of three months. It is desirable that the different portion of the province shall be represented, and that not more than one teacher shall come from any county. Kindly give this as much publicity as possible, and endeavor to get the best available teachers to apply. Applications should be received at the Education Department not later than 10th of March.

—The local option by-law voted in Bolton Monday was carried by a majority of 11. The vote stood 101 for the by-law and 90 against. Both local optionists and anti's worked hard for victory.

—Mr. John Hartnett, who lives south of Lindsay has had a young son in his employ for several years as farm laborer. Last fall about November, he informed Mr. Hartnett that he was about to take a trip to his home in Rochester promising to return in three days. Clothing FACTS

There is more brilliant scheming and smarter tactics in the clothing business than in all the host of dry goods combined. The most commonplace stocks are decorated with high-sounding titles, and loud exaggeration tells of goods that are disappointing in results.

We have excellent reason to believe that this Clothing Stock is above the average in quality and below the average in price.

Not the Clothing Store Kind.

The materials are such as your merchant tailor would use, and the clothing itself is equal in every respect to custom-made at half as much again.
