MODERN MERCHANDISING

The day has gone by when a successful business can be built up on fake schemes. People of to-day want to buy their Clothing of a clothing store; but they go to a chromo or notion store for their chromos or notions if they want such goods. Years ago there were clothiers who tried to make customers believe that they threw in houses and lots, or a horse and buggy with every purchase of a collar. To-day there are bandreds of stores in Canada where you couldn't get a collar button thrown in, if you should spend a hundred dollars. People have found out that it is cheaper to buy their own presents. The old way was to sell a ten dollar suit for fifteen dollars, throw in chromos and nick nacks that cost flfty cents apiece, and spend lots of money in newspapers to tell of the wonderful gifts. To-day the better class of merchants sell ten dollar suits for ten dollars, give good goods, tell the truth about them, and WIN, in the long run, a substantial trade. We are still ahead of the other fellows because we have discovered that it pays to sell our

Inspector's Annual Report.

The thirty-eighth annual report on the lunatic and idiot asylums of Ontario shows that there were 6,213 patients certified insane on Sept. 30, 1905, an increase of 632 for the year, during which 1,130 patients were admitted. On Sept. 30, 1905, the number of patients was 4,613. The total cost of maintenance for the year was $760,204, a weekly cost per patient of $2.32. Revenue from paying patients amounted to $114,916. Dr. Forbes Winslow is quoted as saying that "alcohol must be given the first place as a cause of insanity," with tobacco, especially cigarette-smoking, as a potent factor in lunacy. In the classes. Housekeepers head the list for British asylums intemperance is assigned as the cause of one-quarter of the cases of insanity, while in Ontario ers, with 4,368, and domestic servants, only 61-2 per cent. of the cases are at- with 3,725. The enormous difference is tributed to drink. Uniformity in the manual of service is recommended for the different institutions which have shown a disposition to live apart instead of working in sym-Bcials is considered a helpful one. A strong protest is once more regis-

Connection With Past Canada In Chosen Name of Terminus. What had the dashing young cavalry leader of the cavallers nearly three undred years ago to do with Canada? Prince Rupert was really the first British Canadian business magnate. He was a promoter of the Hudson Bay Co., and its first governor, in 1670. In that year Charles II. granted a charter to the prince and seventeen other noblemen and gentlemen, incorporating them as "The Governor and Company of Adheavy, slow on light, shade higher; heavy Hudson Bay," and securing to them venturers of England, trading into "the sole trade and commerce of all those seas and straits, bays, rivers, Sheep and Lambs-Receipts, 3200 head; lakes, creeks and sounds in whatever latitude they shall be, that lie within $6.35; wethers, $5.75 to $6.15; ewes, $5.50 the entrance to the straits commonly state of efficiency. to $5.75; sheep, mixed, $3 to $5.75; west- called Hudson Straits, together with | Miss E. In the annual report of Prisons and Reformatories, Dr. R. W. Bruce Smith recommends a prison and a reformatory at some point in the province north of Lake Superior. Wherefore No British Immigrants. Writing in "Canada," a new English publication, Mr. Beckles Willson has some very striking things to say in an article on colonial indebtedness, "Colonies," he says, "in brief, were ! the beginning, and still should be, our great refreshing, recruiting, and recreating grounds; the great open spaces where the race that is losing its stamina can recover it in honest toll in the fresh air, under the blue dome of heaven. This Empire exists for the British race, and the greatest danger to the Empire will come in the future, as it has in the past, from mingling alien blood, perverted ideals, weaker morals, meaner character, debased civilization into what we hold, and rightly hold, to be the noblest human stock." In Mr. Willson's view it should be possible to bring about co-operation between the English and the Canadian Governments on this question of the migration of the poorer, weaker, but nevertheless nobler British race from verge of hunger are there not one milwhose character, whose triumphs, whose ideals are the same as ours, and in whose veins, in spite of poverty and wretchedness, there courses, though more slowly, the same blood? For, believe me, in a few years there will be in England something in the nature of a social upheaval; a re-arrangement in the theory and practice of dealing with the unemployed, and mark you thisthe methods of the unemployed themselves in dealing with their own des-

With the Canadian Weapon.

A short time ago a prominent rail road man of Canada went to China to look over the ground with a view to building railroads. He was supplied with letters of introduction which gave him entrance into the best clubs of the cities he visited.

After dinner one night he was watching some diplomats playing poker. Unintentionally an American gave offence to a Russian attache. The American apologized, but the Czar's official was not to be appeased and the man from the United States appealed to the onlookers. The Canadian took up his part and subsequently his hand. The game, however, was not to proceed, as the Russian declared that the his second waited on the Canadian, and said that as he was the challenged party he would have the choice of weapons.

The railroad builder took the matter as coolly as an European duellist and replied that the man whose hand at cards he had taken up, would act as his second. The Russian envoy again said that the Canadian, being the challenged party, would have the choice of wea-

If there happens to be a Cleopatra in Muscat she will never fascinate any Antony by the beauty of her well shaped nose, for it is kept in a specially made, ugly case, in which it is impossible to tell its shape. But with all its faults this is a far better system than that of cutting off the nose, as men in the Kangra district in India are wont to do when any of their spouses have proved too fascinating.

> > Curious Fishing.

Very curious is the method of fishing followed by the Chinese in the strait of Malacca. The fisherman lets down from the side of the boat a screen of white canvas stretched on wood. The shoal of fish mistake this for some floating obstruction and try to leap over it, with the result that the fish jump into the boat and are thus captured. This method is employed by Malays in their waters.

Ventriloquism In the Bible.

Ventriloquism, which is described as "speaking from the belly," has its first historie mention, as far as we are aware, in Isaiah xxix, 4, "And thou shalt be brought down and shall speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be as one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust."

Resourceful. "Here!" roared the old lawyer to his son, studying law with him. "You told me you had read this work on evidence, and yet the leaves are not cut." "Used X rays," yawned the versatile son, and the father chuckled with delight as he thought what a lawyer the Canadian also had insulted him. Later boy would make,-London Punch.
