WITH THE STUDENTS

In Wyckoff College was a scene of gay festivity. The grave and reverend curates-to-be with palpitating hearts were a large part of all the youths assembled there. One noble gallant from Lindsay had essayed forth on seven distinct and various missions of love, to gather in the beauty of the land. Later in the evening, when he was speaking words meet for the ears of only one, she having become wise and being possessed of that persistence of assertiveness of the "little cottage maid," knowingly insisted, "O, Mr. Hooper, we are seven." Never mind, Arthur, Wyckoff expects every man to do his duty.

Lumbago Victim Gives Good Advice

TELLS OF A WONDERFUL REMEDY THAT BROUGHT HIM HEALTH AND COMFORT. The man whose back is lame and sore can't afford to trifle with the hundred and one so-called cures for lumbago. He needs a powerful, penetrating pain destroying pain destroying liniment—one that will quickly sink into all the tendons and muscles—such a liniment is "Nerviline," which acts like lightning. Right to the spot it goes, carrying the healing, soothing properties to the nerves and muscles that cause all the pain.

"When my back was so painful that I couldn't turn in bed, when rubbing hot irons over my back failed to ease, when I cried aloud with agonizing twinges—then it was that I used Nerviline and got quick relief and was ultimately cured. There is something in Nerviline that isn't to be found in other liniments. Its power over pain and its facility for sinking into the core of the sore parts is simply a marvel. After getting rid of the pain and when I started back to work, of course, I wore a Nerviline Porous Plaster over the weak spot. I have friends that use Nerviline for rheumatism, neuralgia, and sciatica. They all think as I do that Nerviline is the strongest and safest liniment made."

The above statement of F. R. Murchmore, the well-known merchant of Greenville, is ample proof that Nerviline can't be beaten, try it yourself—but be sure the dealers give you "Nerviline" only. Large bottles, 25c. each.
