The Canada Paint Co. Ready Mixed Paints

Made from Pure Lead and Oil--in the latest artistic shades, to be had any quantity. McLENNAN & CO

If you need a new suit or overcoat call and see our new line of goods for fall and winter. Prices right. Satisfaction guaranteed

Lou Wickett

2nd door to Post Printing Office William St.

Still doing business in the same old stand but not in the same old way. We of danger. But he had been elever advance with the times andare in a and resourceful enough to avoid the position to do hetter work than ever, penalty that looked inevitable and New designs, new granites, new and came off with colors trailing, but unmproved tools and methods, in fact captured. the most up-to-date Marble and Granite Works in this part of Ontario. Get our prices and see our designs away, held them at bay until he could before purchasing.

Shop and show rooms 11 & 13 Camown reward-at least in this instance, bridge St., immediately north of Fire

Lindsay Marble Works R. CHAMBERS, Prop

A PRETTY PICTURE

Is always worth Framing and you will often be surprise dat it's appearance when Frame I.

We have just received a large shipment of American Moulding and will give a Special Low Price on Work recei ed during the next month.

Bring Your Picture in and let us quote you for a Frame on it.

Henley Bros., Near the Market

McCutcheon

By

Author of "Beverly of Graustark," Etc.

There was a startled, piteous look in am or ever hope to be."

"No indeed!"

own Fifth avenue!"

away in the semidarkness.

homesick!" muttered he.

think it was in him."

when it crossed the river."

"They can be ruce -...

boulevard, but it's just as swell as i

Droom, "but it isn't the avenue, is it?"

Bansemer was surprised to note a tone

"Oh, there's only one, Mr. Graydon," said the old clerk quite warmly; "out for swagger things, Mr. Droom," ob

"Even Broadway is heaven to me."

"By George, the old chap is actually

from the third story of the building

Of the bedchamber there is but little

HIN MERISIRS AND A SMAIL RESETMENT

was best shown by the pictures

served the other, genuinely surprised.

of affectionate pride in the question.

enemies and get away from the scene

Perhaps no other man could have es-

In leaving New York he hoped that

Elias Droom, who knew too much,

might refuse to go into the new territory with him, but the gaunt old clerk

took an unnatural and malevolent delight in clinging to his employer. He declined to give up his place in the office, and although he hated James Ban-

semer, he came like an accusing shadow into the new offices near the Chicago river, and there he toiled,

grinned and scowled with the same old

CHAPTER VI.

the lady certainly did not correspond to what his memory recalled. Investi-

Cables in the mansion near the lake

in addition to our regular real bargains in all these

that have been out a time or

WARREN

FURNITURE

two and some lenger, but are in good shape and tone, which hand sawing Machines at very low prices to clear. Our line of new machines is complete in the VERY BEST CANADIAN AND AMERICAN MAKES. Call and see us if you are inter-

It Will Pay You

WHEN IN TOWN TO CALL

at Anderson, Nugent & Co.'s and inspect their new stock of

EYERY LINE COMPLETE

THE FINEST RANGE OF GOODS EVER

SHOWN IN THIS DISTRICT.

Anderson, Nugent & Co

Kent Street, Lindsay

HIGH-CLASS

Undertaking in all its Branches.

We will please and satisfy yell:

faithfulness.

Copyright, 1906, by Dodd. Mead & Company

Just at this time Bansemer was en- were the people he had known in New suppose," came from the thin hips of gaged in the most daring as well as York. Bansemer took no one into his the old clerk. the most prodigious "deal" of his long | confidence, not even Droom. Once conthe execution had been so faultless that secret in his possession. He soon of the grating. there seemed to be no possibility of learned that the child was a young wofailure. To take his fair minded son. man of considerable standing in society, but there was no way for him to certain senile gratification at being with the mother's eyes, into the game would be suicidal. The young fellow would turn from him forever. Bansemer never went so far as to wonder dreary far west days. whence came the honest blood in the boy's veins nor to speculate on the ort-

gin of the unquestioned integrity. He had but to recall the woman who bore ten gains came with him, and invest- actions could speak for themselves. habit of active employment. His salary only good thing he ever knew, the ments were just as easy and just as "Still living over in Wells street, Mr. was small, but he managed to save him, the woman whose love was the Wire ne nad worshiped while ne sinned. | safe in Chicago as in New York. Now | Droom?" went on Graydon, thorough | more than half of it—for a "rainy day." only good thing he ever knew, the un wholesome trade in reputations, he saw a chance to wring a handsome ly at home with the man whom he had as he said. He did his reading and exsometimes evading exposure by the sum from the rich woman whose only feared and despised by stages from perimenting by kerosene light and all time to come. But it was the "big origin still remained locked up in her proom shortly, "Tisn't Michigan windows in his apartment were washjob" that brought disaster. Just when He learned enough of David Cable, it looked as though success was assurhowever, to know that if he shared the ed the crash came. He barely had secret the plan would be profitless and time to cover his tracks, throw the figurative pepper into the eyes of his It was this uncertainty that kept him from calling at the Cable home; like: wise from writing a note which might prove a most disastrous felly. Time and circumstance could be his only friends, and he was accustomed to the whims of both. He read of the dinners and entertainments given by the Cacaped. But James Bansemer was clevbles and smiled grimly. Time had worked wonders for them. Scandal, erest when in a corner. He backed he knew, could undo all that ambition and pride had wrought. He could well recover his breath and then defied them to their teeth. Despite their proof he afford to wait. baffled them, and virtue was not its

However, he did not have long to wait, for his opportunity came one night in Hooley's theater. Graydon and he occupied seats in the orchestra near the stage and not far from the lower right hand boxes. It was during the busy Christmas holidays, but the "star" was of sufficient consequence to pack the house. The audience was no end of a fashionable one. Time and again some strange influence drew his gaze to the gay party in one of the lower boxes. The face of the woman nearest to him was not visible, but the two girls who sat forward turned occasionally to look over the audience, and he saw that they were pretty, one exceptionally so. One of the men was gray haired and strong featured; the others were quite too insignificant to be of interest to him. The woman whose back he could see did not look out over the audience. Her indifference was so marked that it seemed de-

At last he felt that her eyes were upon him. He turned quickly. True enough, for with lips slightly parted, her whole attitude suggestive of intense restraint, Mrs. Cable was staring helplessly into the eyes of the man who could destroy her with a word, The one thing that finshed through Bansemer's brain was the realization T first it was hard for that she was far more beautiful than James Bansemer to be- he had expected her to be. There was a truly aristocratic loveliness in the rather piquant face, and she undenia bly possessed "manner." Maturity had improved her vastly, he confessed, with strange expitation; age had been kinder than youth. He forgot the play seldom taking his eyes from the back which again had been turned to him Calculating, by reached the conclusion that she was not more than forty years young man glancing surreptitiously at James Bansemer began to gleat ever the beauty of this new found old ag-

th the labby of the theater as they deathly bale, and there was a startlet BIRY, AND PAIR WAS AT WORK

A few weeks after this seems at the agrees the hall from the slevator and satered his father's office just as killan staring past the young man with a anatomy and physics. In all perhaps there were 200 volumes. A life of No cause he was out of the direct line of stant usage. There were three por-"I know that he- I asked you if yo knew of his whereabouts. Do you-or adorned or rather disfigured the walls. youth did not stand in physical awe of

Vulgar photographs and prints were to be seen on all sides. Mingled with "No," was the simple and sufficient these cheap creations were excellent "Well, then, I'm off," said Graydon | copies of famous Madonnas, quaint Scriptural drawings, engravings of the Droom's overcoat was on and button- Saviour and an allegorical colored ed up to his chin. His long feet were print which emphasized the joys of encased in rubbers of enormous size heaven. There was also a badly drawn and uncertain age. There must have but idealized portrait of Droom, done been no blood in the veins of this grim in crayon at the age of twenty. This old man, for the weather was far from portrait was one of his prized possescold, and the streets were surprisingly sions. He loved it best because it was dry for Chicago.

"I am closing the office for the day," said Dreom. For no apparent reason a smile spread over the lower part of his face, and Graydon, bold as he was, turned his eyes away. "I thought I'd stop in and pick up the governor for a ride home in my

meton" said he, turning to the door,

"Yours is one of the first out here,

Dr. Chase's Oint ment is a certain DR. CHASE'S CINTMENT.

dinal defects. If Droom ever had entertained a feminine visitor in his apartments, there is no record of the Notice fact. But few men had seen the interior of his home, and they had gone away with distressed, perplexed sensi-

Occasionally he went out to a nearby neral or specific lien upon the rooms usually reeked with the odor of late of the township of Bexley, grease, pungent chemicals and long died on or about the 19th day room it may be said that it was kitchen, dining room, parlor, library, work-A look containing a curious compound of affectionate reproach and a of the man. Droom was frugal. He was, in truth,

Bansemer was rich enough, but varice had become a habit. The flight closed the door, tried it vigorously and avarice had become a habit. The flight | closed the door, tried it vigorously and | as he was by nature. He had no relafrom New York had deprived him of joined Bansemer at the shaft. With tive to whom he would leave it, and but little in worldly goods. His ill got- Droom words were unnecessary when he had no inclination to give up the A.D., 1909. "It's good enough for me," said few pennies a week in that way. The was seldem obliged to look through them during the day, and their only ally meager.

He was a man of habit, not habits. A pipe at night was his only form of dissipation. It was not too far for evenings, and he invariably did so un. age is that distressing chronic cough. less the weather was extremely unpleasant. So methodical was he that he never had walked over any other bridge than the one in Wells street, coming and going.

Past sixty-five years of age, Droom's hair still was black and snaky, his teeth were as yellow and jagged as they were in the seventies, and his no more of Droom's private transac- tarrhozone and instantly its he willed, unobserved and unannoyed tubes and lungs. He could pursue his experiments with Just think of it-a direct breathavenue, the Drive or Lincoln Park "There's nothing against Wells street, but-it got ashamed of itself

When he left Graydon Bansemer on the sidewalk in front of the office building he swung off with his long Mrs. M. E. Walford, wife of a wellsidewalk a little later. The young man

watched his gaunt figure as it slouched | cago famous. fallingly led him toward devices that could inflict pain and discomfiture. His plan to get the better of the wretched. hard working holdup man was unique, bedroom at the back and a "living structing the models for two little a material that would resist the effects apable of holding at least an ounce found his father dressed and ready

"Terribly dull market, severnor," "It's been that way for a weel older man, with a smile. "How "That depends on who is giving the traits of the Corsican on the dingy note here when I came in a little after We have an hour in which to get over there. Can you be ready?" "Do you go security for the affair?

usked Graydon. "Certainly. You have been there, my boy, and I've not heard you complain. "You mean over at"-

"Yes; that's where I mean," said the other, breaking in quietly. "I think I can be ready in

While he was dressing his father sat alone and stared reflectively at the small blue gas blaze in the gate. A a Just and did not expose ... dark, grim smile unconsciously came umphant joy. Twice he read the dainty note that met him on his return from

"What changes time can make in woman," he mused, "and what changes a woman can make in time! For nearestimonials in the press and ask is a year I've waited for this note. I bre about it. You can use it and 'mew it would come; it was bound to ly a year I've waited for this note. I come. Graydon has had everything up

JUDICIAL to Creditors

Pursuant to a judgment in High Court of Justice, made in matter of the estate of Kenneth He cooked his own meals on the oil John Armstrong, and in the cause stove and, alone, ate them from the lit- Richman et al vs. Lower, the credittle table that stood near the heater. ors, including those having any geeating house for a lonely feast. His tate, of Kenneth John Armstrong, boiled coffee, burned cabbage and the county of Victoria, farmer, who suffering bed linen. Of his "front" June, A.D., 1907, are, on or before send by post prepaid to Messrs. Mc-Diarmid & Weeks, of Lindsay, shop, laboratory and conservatory. Diarmid & weeks, of the plaintiffs, Four flowerpots, in which as many herein, their Christian names and geraniums existed with difficulty de surnames, addresses and descripspite Droom's constant and unwaver- tions, the full particulars of their "Possibly. The company charges a ling care, occupied a conspicuous place claims, a statement of their acrich him to the extent of $50,000. The now the rich and powerful magnate, he nickel a ride, half a dime. Going on the window sills overlooking the counts, and the nature of the securiplans had been so well prepared and set to work upon the machinery which the argention had been so well prepared and the argention had been so found to argent the argent to arge the argent to argent the arg was to extract personal gain from the secret in his possession. He soon of the creating pauses to consider the vicious exterior of the said judgment. Every credi- 4, con. 10, Ops. Sale at one o'duce the same before me at my chambers at the court house, in the ascertain whether Frances Cable had made the object of the boy's conde a miser. If any one had asked him town of Lindsay, on the 27th day of told the truth to her husband in those scending raillery crossed Droom's coun- what he expected to do with the money March, A.D., 1909, at eleven o'-

(Sd.) JOHN E. HARDING, Local Master of Lindsay.

Old Folks' Coughs

LOWS.

COLDS, COUGHS, CATARRH.

One of the worst terrors of the old ly treeted with drug-laden and cuertweakening syrups, and from year to year the condition has grown worse. Formerly the cough a vay when fine weather came, now had weather makes it worse and fits of racking, tearing, coughing make life a burden.

Because you are old is no reason eyes were as blue and ugly as ever. for suffering with everlasting cough-He had not aged with James Ban- ing-those terrible chest troubles and semer. In truth, he looked but little difficult breathing can be thoroughly older than when we made his ac- cured with Catarrhozone. You simtions than it knew of Bansemer's. Up balsamic fumes are carried by your in the horrid little apartment in Wells breath into the tiniest recesses of strange chemicals, he could construct able medicine, full of soothing antiodd devices with his kit of tools, and septic pine essences that reaches FOR SALE.—I HAVE FOR SALE he could let off an endless amount of every sore congested membrane in inventive energy that no one knew he two seconds. No drugs to take-nofant because Catarrhozone is the purest, safest cough, catarrh and cold cold remedy ever devised.

strides toward the Wells street bridge. known grocer in East Sheffield, writ-His brain had laid aside everything es: "For three years I suffered that had occupied its attention during with a hard racking cough and bronoffice hours and had given itself over chial irritation which annoyed me to the project that hastened his steps so much at night I couldn't sleep. I homeward. His supper that night was tried many remedies, catarrh tablets "I had no idea you cared so much a small one and hurriedly eaten in or sprays, syrups, etc., but they only der that he might get to work on his helped me for a short time. Catarrhnew device. Droom grinned and ozone brought me wonderful comfort cackled to himself all alone up there from the first. I inhaled its balin the lamplight, for he was perfecting samic fumes every hour or two and from his voice. "Goodby. I got this an "invention" by which the honest am now free from any trace of cold, way," he said when they reached the citizen could successfully put to rout bronchitis and catarrh. I can go the "boldup" man that has made Chi. out in all kinds of weather and do safe as Catarrhozone, but being a milking strain. Prices easy. Adgood remedy it is imitated. Beware of the substitutor. Large Catarrhozone lasts two months, price $1 smaller sizes 25c, and 50c, All reliable dealers or the Catarrhozone Co.

H. PRAMBUS

"All Fight father," salled Grazden

Together they went down the steps Bansemer, the father, complacently as he stepped into the carriage after his

You cannot possibly have a better Cocoa than delicious drink and a sustaining ical. This excellent Cocoa naintains the system in robust sealth, and enables it to resist winter's extreme cold introduce our guaranteed Royal Purple Stock and Poultry Specifics. No experience necessary; Poultry Specifics. No experience necessary; we lay out your work for you. $25 a week and we lay out your work for you.

FOR SALE .- HOUSE AND LOT IN village of Oakwood; two storey, nine rooms, good cement cellar, large cistern, good garden, etc. For particulars apply W. F. Workman, 185 Major-st., Toronto.

SHORT HORN BUILS FOR SALE -Crimson Flower, Mar Roan Lady and Princess, from imported and Canadian-bred sires, at reasonable prices. J. Casey, lot 23, con. 1, Mariposa, Valentia P.O.

SALE REGISTER

by Elias Bowes, auctioneer. Credit sale of farm stock and implements, prising as it may appear when one emptorily excluded from the benefit the property of Donald Carley, lot farn, stock and implements, the pro-seph Meehan, auctioneer, sale of ferm stock, the property of William J. Gertley, lot 6, con. 14, Emily. Sale at one o'clock.

FRIDAY, MARCH 19.-By Elias Bewes, auctioneer, credit sale of farm stock and implements, the pro-BECAUSE RESISTING POWER 18 perty of the late A. J. Thompson. WEAK PNEUMONIA OFTEN FOL- lot 9, con. 9, Laxton. Sale at one tion, and even that was characteristic TELLS OF A SURE CURE AND W WEDNESDAY, March 17, by Elias NEVER-FAILING COMFORT FOR Howes, auctioneer, auction sale farm stock and implements, the property of Donald Carley, lot 4, con. 10, Ops. Sale at one o'clock.

LOST .- NEAR THE G.T.R. STA. tion, Lindsay, Friday night, Feb. 19, a sable muff with seal around band and lining worn. Please leave at office of Watchman-Ward-

TO LET .- IN THE VILLAGE OF Bethany, on the G.T.R., a store and store-room. This building is well situated for business, central in the village; has been occupied as a grocery. For particulars apply to C. Chittick, Lindsay.

quaintance. The outside world knew ply breathe the healing vapor of Ca- TEACHER WANTED.-TEACHER holding third-class certificate wanted for S. S. No. 3, Stanhope. The school opens March 15, and closes street the queer old man could do as the nose, throat, chest, bronchial Dec. 31. Protestant wanted. Apply sec.-treas., Boskung P.O., Ont.

Durham bull calves that I have ever offered for some time. They are all red in color, are in fine condition and are from eight to ten months old. Their sire won first prize at the Lindsay Central Fair when one year old. He was bred by John Davidson, of Ashburn and got by the noted bull, Village Secret, and was sold at Mr. James Davidon's sale at Pickering for the handsome sum of $910 on May 24, 1907. These are the kind of cattle that "pay the rent." Thomas Deyell.

Shorthorn's For Sale

Mardella Shorthorns for sale. Ten bulls from six months to three Elias Droom's inventive genius un. There is no remedy so certain and years' old, good breeding and heavy > WANTED .- BY THE WATCHMAN Warder, the following copies of back numbers (weeklies) : Nov. 12, 19, 26, and Dec. 10 and 17. They are required to complete the files.

APPLICATION LIAMENT

Starting Bank Chambers

varieties have advanced they are go-Those who have left their order for neas we wish would call and get them grow, write to our office or call at once and select the kind you want before the best varieties are all gone.

JAS. M. SQUIER & SON give a spec ial prize of TEN DOLLARS for the largest yield of any variety of peas of over ten bushels of sowing in each of the following townships; Verulam, Ops, Emily, Fenelon and Manvers. The Blue Imperial and the Harrison Glory peas as you all know are old favorites with thefarmers around here and of which large quantities are SQUIER & FLAVELLE will also give a special prize of TEN DOL LARS in each of the above townships for the largest yield from over ten bushels of sowing of either of these two varieties. Do not delay, come in at once and leave your order. JAS. M. SQUIER & SON. SQUIER & FLAVELLE.

Hon R. W. Scott introduced his

THURSDAY,

"For three had to be fe baby, becau arms were eczema that bound up all That is the Violet M. McS Sault Ste. M. could not hold finger tips to el spread, my fing flesh was one and the pain I had three m at one time am " Zam-Buk and arms, I the end had n cured complete dreaded eczeni that sufferers Zam-Buk has t Zam-Buk is ring worm, ulce hands, cold so all skin injurie and stores at free from Zay same price. dangerous aul as " just as go

Only a sm at the town i evening. Th dition and t exciting fron Omemee boy against the line-up comp with the exc played a sta boys put up played ithis score of 4-1, played a cle The champ their last g tle Britain night's victo straight win owners of t only been d years that possession (cord that v in the tow boys presen to three of in a recent They put and kept th the time to the fast ro and was or ice. He i Spratt Bro stars. But play Lakefi Peterboro STANDI Little first Bankers ..

ten tratte.