OBITUARY

LATE MRS. JOHNSTON.
 The funeral of the late Mrs. Geo. Johnston was held Wednesday morning from her late home, Russell-st., and was largely attended by friends and relatives. The remains were conveyed to St. Mary's church where requiem mass was celebrated by Archdeacon Casey, and thence to the Catholic cemetery and placed in the vault. The pall-bearers were Messrs. W. H. Lehane, Felix Gausson, W. M. Foe, John Pearson, R. Malloy, and James Powers.

JAMES McFADDEN.
 Head Lake, Feb. 88.—At his home, on February 19, Mr. James McFadden passed away at the ripe age of eighty years. The deceased was born in Ireland in the county of Fermanagh in 1830, and he with his brother Patrick left the old sod for Canada when he was about twenty-one years of age. After many weary days spent in crossing the Atlantic, they arrived in sight of the new land and then pushed their way forward till they reached Cobourg. Here they worked for some time, and then about the year 1860 they started north till they came to the township of Leiby, then inhabited only by bears and beasts. They took up a couple of lots on Head River, and here dwelt side by side and worked together in clearing the forest and making a scanty living. Although times were hard and accommodation and conveniences very poor, still the two struggled fearlessly along. With only a blazed trail for a road many a time they travelled to Lindsay or Bolsover with their little grist. Many a thrilling tale Mr. McFadden could tell of his encounters with bears and wolves that infested their crops in harvest time.

About the first of February Mr. McFadden suddenly took ill with an attack of pleurisy and pneumonia, and although having a strong constitution, he gradually sank till the end came, Feb. 19. He leaves a widow, four boys and three girls to mourn their loss, all of which are grown up and doing for themselves. The funeral took place on Tuesday to Victoria Road, where the remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery.

MRS. JOHN DAVIS.
 A sad death took place recently at the home of Mr. John Davis, of Brussels, Ont., when his beloved wife passed away, aged 65 years. The deceased had only been suffering a few days.

There is left to mourn her loss besides a loving husband, Mrs. Jos. Kennedy, of Lindsay; Mrs. Thomas Endicott, of Pleasant Point, besides two brothers, Neil and William Gray, of Lindsay.

A sad and touching incident in connection with the demise of the deceased is the fact that two deaths son and daughter, have occurred within nine weeks, the daughter, Mrs. F. Carduff, of Brussels, having passed away about nine weeks ago, while a son is only dead a week, making three deaths in the one family in nine weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis lived for many years a few miles east of Lindsay, and are well known about town and vicinity and the deepest sympathy is expressed by Lindsay citizens for the bereaved husband and relatives. The funeral will take place at Brussels on Thursday.

LATE MISS MAUD SMITH.
 The funeral of the late Miss Maud Smith was held on Thursday at the home of her mother, Mrs. McElmoyle, Wellington-st., and was largely attended by the many friends of the deceased young lady and by friends of the family. The services were conducted by Rev. J. R. Keal, and the following young men acted as pall-bearers: Messrs. Jos. Reid, Wilbert McCarthy, Jack Simpson, Jack McSwain, Neil McFadyen, Fred. Martin.

JAMES McFADDEN.
 James McFadden, who died in Digby on February 19, at the advanced age of 81 years, was fish and game warden of that township for many years and was an uncle of Frank and Joseph McFadden, of Lindsay.

WALTER R. PIERSON.
 The death of Mr. Walter R. Pierson occurred here on Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. J. Peck, Regent-st., after a lingering illness of some months, he having spent several weeks in St. Michael's hospital, Toronto.

The deceased was a resident of Toronto, where he was well known and made many friends. He was also known in Lakeside, his former home. There are left to mourn his loss his father, Mr. Jas. Pierson, Lindsay; two brothers, Mr. Ralph D. of Buffalo, and Mr. Fred. A. of Toronto and two sisters, Mrs. H. McKay, of Rochester, and Mrs. J. Peck, of Lindsay. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon at 3.30 to Riverside cemetery. Toronto and Lima papers please copy.

TOM SADLER WON

The Agreeable Tramps, of Fenelon Falls, to the number of about thirty-five, were the guests of Messrs. Two-mey, Montzambert and Robson in the Bank of Montreal rooms of the cataract village on Wednesday evening at a progressive euchre party. Mrs. Spence and Miss Crabbell assisted in entertaining. Mr. Tom Sadler was the winner of the gentleman's prize, a handsome pipe, and Miss Traux won the lady's prize, a fine pair of snowshoes. Miss M. Ellis and Dr. Sims got the lemons. All report a first-class time.

PORK PRICES.

Once more the price of pork has advanced, and the retail price is now beyond the reach of the working man. On Thursday live hogs sold for the remarkable price of $8.60 per cwt. and a few farmers who had choice hogs received $8.80. This is the highest price ever paid in Lindsay for the porkers, and buyer McIlhargay stated this morning that the price would reach the $9 mark in the course of a few weeks.

LEFT FOR WEST.

Mr. Clifford Graham, of Ops, left for the west Thursday, where he will reside for the future. He took with him a car of farm machinery, stock and furniture.

HON. W. H. CUSHING.

Who resigned his portfolio as minister of public works in the Alberta Government to attack the Waterways Railway deal.

VETERANS' BANQUET.

A spirit of patriotism dominated the brilliant banquet of the South African Veterans' Association of Ottawa, the seventh annual re-union since the war, held the other night at Ottawa. About two hundred soldiers, veterans not only of the war in Africa, but of many other British campaigns, sat down to dinner, and the evening passed splendidly with song and oratory, mingled with sadness, too, at times, because of the absence of those Canadian and Ottawa volunteers who did not return from that campaign.

Col. Sam. Hughes replied to the toast to His Excellency, and did it ample justice. He spoke glowingly of Canadians at the front. Referring to the Governor-General, he declared him to be a man among men. "One is a better and a stronger man after conversing with His Excellency," Col. Hughes declared. He spoke of him as a highly cultured person, whose very presence among Canadians could not but be an inspiration. Col. Hughes repeated a verse or so of his own composition, dedicated to the memory of the Canadian South African volunteers.

Col. Hughes was elected Hon. Vice-President of the Association.

HYMNICAL

POTTERELL-CAIN.

On Tuesday, the first day of March, 1910, a quiet wedding was solemnized in Toronto, when Miss Florence H. Cain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cain, was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur Cornwall Potterell, son of the late H. A. Potterell, of Ottawa. The ceremony was performed in St. John's church by Rev. T. Beverley Smith. Miss Cain is well known in Lindsay, having attended the Collegiate Institute. Her many friends extend to her hearty congratulations.

BURGESS-WILLIAMS.

Peterboro Examiner: A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Luke's rectory, Peterboro, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Mr. Trevor Burgess was united in marriage to Miss Matilda M. Williams. Both are from Lindsay, where they will reside. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Langfeldt.

KRIBS-HUMPHREY.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Humphrey, 42 Major-st., Toronto, on Monday evening, Feb. 28th, when Jessie Lillian, their youngest daughter, was united in marriage to Gordon Kribs, B.A.Sc., member of the well known firm of Smith, Kerry & Chase, consulting engineers of the city.

Mr. Kribs is the eldest son of W. A. Kribs, Esq., of Hespeler, Ont., member of the Legislative Assembly for the riding of S. Waterloo '98-'06.

Only immediate relatives of the family witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by their pastor, W. H. Hincks, of Broadway Tabernacle.

The bride wore a travelling dress of blue cloth relieved by an ornament of pearls, the gift of the groom.

The floral decorations were composed of pink tulips, lily of the valley, southern smilax, palms and clematis. After the wedding supper which was kept merry by words of good cheer and congratulations, the happy young couple left for a holiday in the choice cities of our eastern province. On their return they will reside at No. 3, Willcocks-st., Toronto.

MURDER TRIAL.

Norwood, March 2.—Ever since the arrest of Robert Henderson on the charge of the assault on the Misses McPherson the liveliest interest has been shown in the case, and when the prisoner was given his hearing this afternoon on the charge of murder against the death of Margaret, the elder of the two old ladies the town hall was crowded with over 700 persons.

The prisoner will be given his trial before Mr. Justice Riddell at the spring assizes of the High Court on the 20th of this month. Mr. F. D. Kerr was at the hearing on behalf of the prisoner, and County Crown Attorney Wood represented the Crown.

Henderson, who was in charge of High County Constable Cochrane, displayed the same indifferent attitude that he has ever since his arrest, and gave no expression to his feelings except once when he smiled broadly when witness Horabek related the details of the chase of the prisoner on the railroad track after the assault.

Interesting evidence was given to the effect that Henderson's revolver was clicked twice during his pursuit by the posse of farmers and section-men. When the revolver was examined in court to-day it was found loaded with rim fire cartridges being placed in the magazine. As it was a central fire revolver these would not lodge, and it looks as though Henderson made a deliberate attempt to shoot his pursuers, but could not do so owing to the wrong cartridges.

AVALANCHE'S VICTIMS.

Wellington, Wash., March 3.—Eighty-six names are now on the list of dead and missing passengers and railroad and postal employees, who were carried down by the avalanche which destroyed two Great Northern trains on Tuesday morning. Statements of the number of laborers fighting the snow, who were sleeping on the ill-fated trains vary from 20 to 30. An estimate of 100 dead is conservative, it is said to-night.

All the dead were residents of the northwest. Of the injured, only Rev. Bishop Winget of Chicago, was from the east. No one who has seen the wreckage has the slightest hope of finding any of the missing alive. The explorations have uncovered no living, and some of the bodies are shockingly mangled.

An avalanche of dry snow might have covered its victims alive, but the gorge at Wellington is packed tight with wet snow, ice, huge trees and glacial boulders of enormous weight.

Two of the bodies recovered were

Prevent and Relieve Headache

"It gives me great pleasure to be able to refer to Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills as the best remedy we have yet had in our house for the prevention and cure of headache. My wife who has been a constant sufferer for a number of years with above complaint joins me in the hope that they may fall into the hands of all sufferers."

JOHN BUSH,

Used Them Four Years.

"Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are the best I ever tried for the relief of headache. I have used them for nearly four years and they never fail to give me relief. I have tried many other remedies, but have never found any better."

JOSEPH FRANKOWICK,

those of electricians who were living in a cabin at the edge of Wellington, and who were carried three hundred feet down the slope.

All day a stream of men with packs strapped to their backs wound about the mountain path from Skykomish to scenic and Wellington, carrying food and supplies for the injured. Some are digging for the bodies of friends or relatives. Sightseers were told that they were not wanted.

A laborer was caught taking trinkets from a woman's body, and he was compelled to start down the trail at once. One hundred and fifty men dug for bodies in the debris all day.

Vancouver, B.C., March 3.—(Special.)—Among those mentioned as missing in the Wellington train disaster on the Great Northern is H. C. Chantrell, a well-known resident of Vancouver. The members of his family here are in pained suspense as to whether the worst news is yet to be told. Details are still meagre, and there is but faint hope that many of the victims ditched on the Canyon train survive.

DIDN'T PAY HOTEL BILL.

That's the experience of Isaac Jas. Wynn. Last week he appeared in the County Judges' Criminal Court at Whitby to answer the sins done in the body. The evidence showed that on Tuesday, February 8, he had arrived at the Wardman House, Uxbridge, where he registered first as D. C. Sargeant. He immediately scratched his name out, however, and wrote below it I. J. Wynn, Arrprior. He stated to the clerk who assigned him a room that he would be there a week or two, and was quoted a rate for that period. In the morning he offered to pay for bed and breakfast, but took up the 50c. he had laid on the counter. Again another day he repeated the performance with a dollar bill, stating on both occasions that he would pay up when he was leaving. He showed the clerk clippings from a newspaper containing a picture and a write-up of a clever young inventor, I. J. Wynn. He said that he himself, Wynn remained at the hotel till Saturday night, when he left without paying. On Monday he was apprehended in Lindsay. He claimed to be a maker and vendor of cement for making dishes.

On his own behalf Wynn said he had offered money twice to the clerk, but he would not take it, telling Wynn to pay when he was leaving. That he had not the money Saturday night to pay his board bill, and that he went to Lindsay, where he expected to see a man from whom he would get some money, and would then send the amount of the bill to Wardman. He did not see the party, and was arrested.

Wynn gave references in Arrprior and Ottawa, to whom the Crown will write in order to learn something more of the youth, who says he is nineteen. He was found guilty and remanded for a week.

Elgin Hayes, a Dorchester butcher, had a terrible struggle with a mad dog, and was severely lacerated by the animal.

The Doctor's First Question

"How are your bowels?" This is generally the first question the doctor asks. He knows what a sluggish liver means. He knows what a long list of distressing complaints result from constipation. He knows that headaches, bilious attacks, indigestion, impure blood, and general debility are often promptly relieved by a good liver pill. We wish you would talk with your own doctor about this subject. Ask him at the same time if he approves of Ayer's Pills. Do as he says. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
