The Farmers' Club, which was organized here last winter, died a natural death on the night of their last meeting. They decided to hold no more meetings on account of lack of interest taken in them by the farmers. But we think it is a mistake to let the club fall through. It was with deep regret we witnessed the departure of Mr. C. Irwin and his mother, Mrs. Jane Irwin, who left for their new home last week. Mrs. Irwin had lived in Fenelon for thirty years, most of which time was spent in this neighborhood, and it can truly be said of her she was a friend in need, and will be much missed.

STOMACH AGONY

ABOLISH THE CAUSE, AND MISERY AND DISTRESS OF INDIGESTION WILL VANISH.
Can indigestion be cured? Hundreds of thousands of people, who suffer from belching of gas; biliousness, sour stomach, fullness, nausea, shortness of breath, bad taste in the mouth, foul breath, nervousness and other distressing symptoms, are asking themselves that question daily.
And if these same doubting dyspeptics could only read the thousands of sincere letters from people who once suffered as badly as they do now, but who have been quickly and permanently cured by the use of Mi-o-na, the mighty dyspepsia remedy that cures by removing the cause, they would go to E. Gregory this very day and get a large box of Mi-o-na tablets, and start themselves on the right road to health at once.
The price of Mi-o-na tablets is only 50 cents, and E. Gregory guarantees them to cure indigestion, or money back.
Thin or lean or scrawny people will find in Mi-o-na a maker of flesh and blood, because it causes the stomach to extract more nutritious matter from the food, which quickly enriches the blood.

Do You Ever Make "Jelly Roll," Madam?

When we were just about so high, ours was an insatiable sweet tooth for "jelly roll" and such like. Sometimes, however, the cake wouldn't roll right, broke on the turns—mother was "unlucky" those days, and the keen critics didn't insist on the biggest piece. Mother, you see, didn't know flour—took whatever the grocer offered—also took her chances.

Do YOU ever make "jelly roll," Madam? Is it always a perfect oval, even layers of light, porous, golden crumb, without streaks or holes unsightly? Why doesn't it roll over soft and smoothly; why does it crack and break in spite of the careful fingers behind the dainty napkin? All on account of the innate "cussedness" of cheap flour.

There's an elasticity, Madam, a coherence in FIVE ROSES flour responding to your every effort. The strength and fineness of FIVE ROSES hold your batter together in the long well-greased pan. Bakes evenly, giving smooth texture, soft, golden crumb, spongy, porous and yielding—no holes nor lumps to vex the soul.

Mighty hard to make "jelly roll" like that, Madam, and it's impossible with stinky quality flour. But it's easy if you use FIVE ROSES. Easy to make melting puff paste, flaky pie crust, toothsome rolls and goodies galore. Be flourwise, Madam, join the millions using FIVE ROSES. If you are accustomed to cheap flour the results will seem like magic. But you must use FIVE ROSES.

HYMEREAL

WHETTER—SHORT
Pencil, March 8.—A very March wedding was solemnized Wednesday last, March 2nd, home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pencil, where their daughter (one of our fairest young ladies) the wife of Mr. John Pencil of this place. The ceremony performed by Rev. L. A. DuMant, the bridal gown under an arch of evergreens banked with evergreens.
The lovely bride looked in a princess gown of white and valenciennes, also multi and valenciennes, also tawny veil and orange and carried a bouquet of hair fern and white carnations. Miss Maggie, the bridesmaid, Miss Maggie was prettily gowned in white valenciennes and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was attended by Mr. Willie brother of the bride. Miss Gird of Oakwood, played the organ. The ceremony was a grand march by Rubenstein. After the ceremony a dinner was served to the guests, numbering about 50. The toast "The Bride," pronounced by the groom, responded to by the groom. Rich. Firman, at Toronto honeymoon at Toronto at points west. The bride to a brown dress with hat and brown fur-lined coat, of her father and mother. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chain, and costly presents. She will be much missed in which she was a valuable member. Their many friends uniting their happiness and their home in the far west. We understand they will be in Lindsay, Oakwood, Fort Perry, Lorneville and water.

CAIRNS—WESTLAKE

Friends at the number fifty gathered at the home Mrs. John Westlake, of Farm, Tharah, to witness the marriage of their eldest daughter Rose, to Mr. John Beaverton.
At 2.30 exactly to the wedding march played Hawkins, of Woodville, entered the parlor in the father and joined in the groomsmen under an arch of greens, trimmed with white silk lovely in a white silk with a white veil held by a spray of hair. She was attended by bridesmaids, Miss Mabel sister of the bride, who wore white mull, and Westlake, cousin of the bride, who wore white mull. The bride was assisted by Mr. W. of Thorah. Rev. G. C. of Beaverton, performed the ceremony, which made them wife.
After receiving the consent of their friends, they adjourned to the dining room, which was decorated with evergreen of pink and white ribbons from the ceiling to the table, where they enjoyed a most appetizing repast, at the close of which the bride cut the cake, and it was served to each guest. A large number of gifts received by the bride, which were usually beautiful and valuable. The bride traveled in suit of navy blue, with of tannine silk. Her hair was mounted and white silk. Quite a number accompanied to the station to see their honeymoon, and lured them with rice. We wish them many happiness together and a journey through life.
