Bobcaygeon, March 18, 1911.-The body of Mrs. Chas. Millage, who on Monday at Prince Albert, Sask., was brought home this morning. Mrs Millage has been in failing health for more than a year, a victim of that most dreaded of all diseases-the white plague-but withal was a patient sufferer, and bore hertrue Christian fortitude. She was born in Verulam, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Logan Besides her husband, her mother, four brothers, David, John and Wesley, of Verulam, and William Prince Albert, Sask., and one sister. Mrs Wesley Dunn, of Bobcaygeon, survives.
