Ancient Proclamation in Possession of Chief Johnson

Chief Isaac Johnson, of the Mississauga Indians, of Scugog, was town Saturday and handed us the ollowing ancient proclamation. The coment fully demonstrates high respect in which the Indians were held by the authorities at that early date in Canada. The noble red man has on all occasions proved a grand acquisition to the best interests of Canada and in time of trouble have demonstrated their valour in many a hard fought battle and in every instance proved true to our country, and the Mississaugas always came out on top.

14 Dec., 1797. Whereas many heavy and grievous complaints have of late been made by the Mississauga Indians of depredations committed by some of His Majesty's subjects, and others, upon their fisheries and buriel places and of other annoyances suffered by them, by uncivil treatment, in violation of friendship subsisting between Majesty and the Mississauga dians, as well in violation of cency and good order : Be it therefore known that if any complaints shall hereafter be made of injuries done to the fisheries and to burial places of the said Indians or either of them, and the persons can be ascertained who misdemeaned himself or themselves, in manner aforesaid, such person or persons ing.
