Sad Deaths at Omemece - Other Items of Interest

Omemece, Mar. 17.—Mr. Eli Dancy has been about his usual work for the last few days after a vacation with la grippe. Mr. J. English, of Unionville, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George English, of Kings-st. Mrs. Pearl Lowes, of Mount Pleasant, is the guest of Mrs. J. W. Mitchell. Mr. Clifford Robinson is assistant agent at the junction. The entertainment under the auspices of the Woman's Guild of Christ Church will be held on the evening of April 2nd. Seton Thompson's wild animals are in training for it. School's close on Thursday, 20th inst., for the Easter vacation. They will re-open on 31st, inst. Mrs. E. Sheppard, of Coldwater, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. N. Clarke, of Georgetown. For April, reserve for the laughable farce comedy to be given by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Mallory, who recently returned from St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterboro, where she underwent an operation, is not regaining her normal strength as quickly as might be desired by her friends, who hope that more congenial weather will greatly assist. There is much sickness in and about town, yet we have no epidemics. Mrs. Orr, of Manitoba, whose late husband was a member of our High School staff, called on her friends in town last week. She was the guest of the brick layers who resumed work on the new armory's walls, which are nearing completion. The mild weather has made bad roads, and very little teaming is being done. Friday night's thunder storm did not produce much rain, but a violent wind accompanied it. Branches were shaken from trees and the power-house, belonging to Mr. Fred Evans, situated on the power-house dam, was blown over and smashed to pieces. A great drop in temperature proclaims the fondness of spring to be dangled in the lap of winter. Mrs. Porter, a recent resident of Omemece, is visiting her son at Winnipeg before leaving for Prince Albert, her permanent abode. She called on Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett and family, an ex-resident of Omemece, and reports them all well, and Mr. P. doing well in the grocery business. He is another of our prodigal products. Our trappers are at work, and doing very well with the muskrats. St. Patrick's Day was quietly observed, some wearing the emblem. It served, some wearing the emblem. It closed with a grand concert given by the Methodists in Coronation Hall. Miss Gladys Fee was in Toronto, attending the millinery openings. Miss Thurston, of Lindsay, was visited by her sister of Lindsay over the week-end. A meeting of the Farmers' Institute will convene in the Salvation Army Barracks on the evening of the 25th inst. Those in need of help should be present, as a discussion will take place. A speaker from the Department of Agriculture will be present. There was a large attendance last week at the auction sale of farm stock and implements of Mrs. Deyell & Sons. Everything brought good prices. Every citizen is welcome to the free reading room of the public library, which is comfortably heated and well lighted. A lot of new books have been put on the shelves, and for the first time 50 cents per year the privilege of book borrowing can be obtained. The funeral of the late Charles Wilson took place on Friday afternoon from the home of Mr. Stewart Chambers, King-st. The body was brought in from Port Dover on Thursday evening's train. The deceased had lived out and in Omemece most of his life, and was well and favorably known. Interment took place at the family cemetery, the Rev. D. H. Currie officiating. Mr. Robert Wilson, brother, accompanied the remains to town, and to him his sister, Mrs. John Bloom, the sincerest condolences of a large circle of friends are extended. The many friends of Mrs. James Evans were saddened to learn that on Friday evening she was overcome by a stroke which rendered her unconscious, and in this condition she remained till Sunday night, when she passed away. The populace were shocked by the news of the death of Homer Thompson, infant and only son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Sandy, of town. The little fellow was 13 months old, and contracted a cold, which developed into pneumonia, and blotted out the sweet young life. The funeral obsequies were held on Friday, the Rev. D. H. Currie, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, officiating. Interment took place at the Emily cemetery. For the sorrowing parents and other near relatives the warmest sympathy is felt.

King George of Greece Shot Dead in Street

Salonika, March 18.—King George of Greece was assassinated while walking in the streets of Salonika this afternoon. The assassin was a Greek of low mental type, who gave his name as Aleko Schinas. He shot the king through the heart. The assassin came suddenly at him and fired one shot from a seven-chamber revolver. The tragedy caused a wild excitement. Schinas was seized immediately and overpowered. The wounded king was lifted into a carriage and taken to Papanof hospital. He was still breathing, but died within half an hour. He was the son of this morning's court. ANNOUNCED NEWS. Prince Nicholas, the king's third son, and other officers hurried to the hospital. Arriving first, Prince Nicholas summoned the officers, and speaking in a voice choked with sobs, said: "It is my deep grief to have to announce to you the death of our beloved king, and invite you to swear fidelity to your new sovereign, King Constantine."

Speed in Finger Action

(By H. C. Hamilton.) The pianist who studies his playing movements carefully, will be surprised to see how many of them are not only unnecessary, but a positive hindrance to ease in performance. Let us consider for a moment finger action. Speed in playing depends upon quickness and equality of up and down action, not a height of finger raise. Now, what is the sense of practising a run slowly with high finger action till the habit is in the fingers, only to reverse the proceeding and reconstruct the passage when it is played fast? The faster one plays the closer the fingers must be kept to the keys. Why not, in slow practice, study the greatest quickness of up and down action, always keeping the fingers as nearly as possible in contact with the key? Yet there are many pupils wasting their time and energy in the struggle for high action when they should be studying quickness. Josef Hofman, the great pianist, says: "In playing legato, (that is, smoothly), the fingers are not lifted off the keys, but hardly losing contact with the ivory, glide sideways to the right or left. This naturally saves both time and exertion, and thus allows an increase of speed."

PENIEL.

Peniel, March 18.—Miss Nettie Nancevill is spending a few weeks with Toronto friends. Miss Belle Ramsay is resuming her duties as teacher at Black's to-day, after having been at her home at Orillia last week through illness. Miss Cora McLean is the guest of Cambrey friends. Mr. Robert Osborne is improving after his recent attack of appendicitis. Mr. Sam. Ainsworth, of Cambridge, called on friends here on Wednesday last. Miss Pearl McKague spent last week with Orillia friends. Miss Hazel Osborne is visiting her cousin Mr. Will. Hall at Sunderland. Miss Wilma McKague, infant daughter of Mr. Geo. McKague, is, we regret to say, seriously ill with pneumonia. Miss Ellen McIntyre is improving from an attack of bronchitis. Miss Myrtle Brentnell was the hostess of a birthday party on Tuesday, March 11, when she entertained the members of the Girl's Social Club and some intimate friends, the guests numbering thirty. The evening was spent in games and music, a phonograph adding very much to the enjoyment of the evening. After a very dainty luncheon was served the guests dispersed to their homes, all agreeing that they had spent a most enjoyable evening.

ZION, FENELON.

Zion, Fenelon, March 18.—Mr. Wm. Parkin, who visited his father in Uxbridge for a few days, returned here on Monday. Another very welcome bride arrived in our neighborhood on Wednesday last. We all join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Worsley (nee Miss Kathleen Howie, of Cameron) much prosperity and happiness. On account of the bad condition of the roads just a small crowd attended the church re-opening at Zion last Sunday and Monday. On Sunday Rev. Mr. Robin, of Little Britain, preached two excellent sermons morning and evening, which everybody present enjoyed. On Monday evening Mr. Robin delivered a splendid lecture on "Wheelbarrow." Mrs. Gilbert and Mr. Tamin, of Cambrey, gave two splendid selections. The choir furnished excellent music. Miss D. Brown also sang well. A splendid supper was served in the basement from 5 to 8.

CAMBREY

Cambrey, March 17.—Master Russell Black, visited his sister, Mrs. T. Douglas, last week. Miss Maggie Bragg has been very ill with pneumonia but we are glad to hear that she is recovering. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. James attended the funeral of Mrs. A. Russell, in Lindsay last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest White, spent last Tuesday at the home of Mr. Stroud, Fenelon Falls. Mrs. Ed. Burton spent a few days in Cambrey. Mr. J. T. Clark attended the Farmers' Institute meeting at Hartley on Wednesday.

THE CROWN PRINCE

King George was in his 68th year. Crown Prince Constantine, who has been in active command of the Greek troops throughout the hostilities in the eastern part of Turkey in Europe, and who was at the head of the army which recently captured the Turkish fortress of Janina with its garrison of 32,000 men, will be the successor of his father. He is married to Princess Sophia, a sister of the German Emperor William II. A DEMOCRATIC MONARCH. King George took great interest in the organization of the defensive forces of the country, and with the assistance of the Crown Prince, brought the army to the state of efficiency which enabled it to overcome the Turkish resistance at the beginning of the war. VISIT TO SALONIKA. When King George arrived in Salonika on November 12, with Prince Constantine and Prince George, he was warmly greeted by the Greek metropolitan and senior officers of the army. All the houses were decorated with the Greek flag, and thousands of people assembled to cheer him. Since the occupation of Salonika by the Greeks there has been some friction between them and their Bulgarian allies, but it was thought that this would eventually be overcome during the negotiations for the partition of Turkish territory.

OBITUARY.

LATE W. HEBBURN

A respected resident of Fenelon township joined the great majority on Tuesday, March 18th, in the person of W. Hebburn, whose death took place after an extended illness. Anemia was the disease from which he suffered. Mr. Hebburn was born in the Township of Ope, and became a resident of Fenelon township, where he followed the occupation of farming for the past 24 years. His wife, who was Elizabeth Henry, of Cambridge, predeceased him five years ago. For the past four years, he having retired from agricultural pursuits, lived with his son-in-law, Mr. William Cook, from which place the funeral will be held on Thursday, March 20th, at 12 o'clock, and proceed to Riverside cemetery. In religion Mr. Hebburn was a member of the English church, and a Conservative in politics. He is survived by three sons and two daughters. The sons are: William, in Manitoba; Charles, of Fenelon Falls, and Samuel, of Manvers. Several brothers of the deceased are residents of Lindsay. Mr. Hebburn was in his sixty-fifth year.

Woodville Pioneer Died on Tuesday

Mr. John C. Gilchrist, a pioneer resident of Woodville, died yesterday at the age of eighty-one. Mr. Gilchrist had formerly been a merchant in the village and later had charge of the telephone office and institute. He was born in Islay, Scotland, coming to Canada in early life. He was prominent in the Presbyterian Church, and for many years an elder. Mr. Gilchrist lost his wife many years ago, and a son, William, was killed during the Red River rebellion. Four daughters survive—Mrs. Gilchrist, of Vancouver; Mrs. McKinnon, of Sault Ste. Marie; Mrs. Wilson, of Trenton; and Miss Lily, at home. The funeral takes place Friday.

There was desperate fighting in Mexico. All women are snuck up-judging by the number of pins they use. Should more original ideas strike some men it would give them headache. The Keystorm, which sank at Brockville last October, after striking a shoal in a fog, cannot be raised.

You can live comfortably without being extravagant. Extravagance is not comfort. More investigation at the start will mean less disappointment in the end. It's awfully hard for a man to keep his dead past buried.
