Mr. Geo Suggitt of Blackstock and son of Mr. Rich. Suggitt of this place has leased Mr. Wm. Stewarts farm and intends removing here at once.
Mr. Wm. Graham, the hustling traveller for a Peterboro firm is now enjoying a well earned holiday under the parental roof.
A very disgraceful affair occurred in our town on Wednesday last. It seems that there had been considerable friction between two of our young men for some time past which they decided to settle on the market square. Things looked serious for a short time, when our Chief of Police, Mr. A. Swain, appeared on the scene and ended the last round in short order. The boys are too much disfigured to appear in public for some time yet. It has been hinted that the trouble arose over love affairs.
Mr. Joblin of Caesarea was the guest of Mr. Wm. H. Swain on Sunday.

Mr. Walter Tiers spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. Sam Pogue visiting friends.
Miss Edith Pogue called on her friend Miss Gertrude Tiers of this place recently.
Mrs. Jos. Littleton of Bay City is visiting her brother Mr. McGee.
Mr. Thos Kittle, who has been ill with pleurisy, is able to be out again.
What is wrong with our town, the boys are all leaving it. One left recently and some say has went to Orillia.
Our concert on Wednesday night proved a failure in point of attendance owing to the condition of the roads. We are going to have one at Christmas.
Now the small boy who lives in the country near a sugar bush begins to think of and long for the sap to run. Memories of the "boiling down" and "sugaring off" come even to the grown ups.
It would be a wise plan if some of our young folks would carry with them an umbrella and a waterproof in order to ward off the rain on a Sunday evening.

A sad accident occurred at North Bay last week when Mr. Walter Day, taking place about two hours after the accident happened. The body was brought to Norland, to the home of his mother and was accompanied by his two brothers, Messrs Herbert and George Day. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. H. E. Curtis, at 2.30 on Sunday, in the Methodist church. Deceased was 22 years of age, and his sad death is lamented by his many friends, as he was universally loved and respected.
The C. E. meeting on Friday evening conducted by the ladies of the league, was in every way a success. The singing, instrumental music and recitations were good, and the address given by Mrs. Curtis was enjoyed by all, while the refreshments served at the close were a surprise fully appreciated by everyone.
The pie social at Argue's was attended by many from here who report it a success.
Mrs. H. Pearson has returned from Oakwood where she has been spending the winter.
Mr. Wm. Boardway is slowly recovering from his illness.
Mrs. R. Day, who has been seriously ill is better.
Mr. Jno Harshaw of Victoria Road visited Norland last week.
Mr. Thos. Bell had a very successful wood bee on Friday.

Mr. John Flett and Miss Lena Southam were tied up in matrimony on Wednesday, March 25th, by the Rev. Mr. Horton of Bobcaygeon. The young couple have the best wishes of their many friends for a happy and successful voyage through life.
With sorrow we report that diphtheria has broken out at Mr. John Campbell's and also at Mr. Thomas Smith's. The latter case is almost recovered. Both houses are yet placarded and every means used for safe isolation.
Mr. Wm. Prior, our esteemed postmaster, has accepted a situation with the New Williams' Co. and we predict great success awaits him as Will can sell sewing machines where other agents have failed.

Mr. John Armstrong held a wood-bee last Wednesday and had some good work done by the boys who know how to handle the saw and the axe. At night they enjoyed themselves immensely in the grand right and left.
Mr. S. S. Lamb is home from Western Canada for a short visit.
Two weddings of recent date and two more to follow is pretty good for this little burg.

One evening last week was the scene of a very pleasant gathering at the residence of Mr. Simons. Shortly after twilight the house was filled with friends and neighbors who desired to show respect to the family who were about to move from our midst. About eight o'clock the jolly crowd fell into line and an interesting program was opened by Miss Campbell the lady teacher reading an interesting address. Suitable presents were also given Mr. and Mrs. Simons and family.
