Days When Dollars Do Double duty

Secrets of a Successful Business

Six months of such spirited and satisfactory selling were never known hereabout before. What's the witchery in this Wakely & Ford business? What's the magic in all of their modern merchandising? Simply this:

This organization is broadly planned. It's a liberal partnership affair that comprises all the men and women of Lindsay and its vicinity, and Wakely & Ford. They seek the newest, the worthiest, the most tasteful goods of all kinds, and then so buy them that we can pass them over to you at less than you obtain the same goods for elsewhere. That's the secret of the popularity of this business always. Brag ! call it so if you please. But the proof of every statement made over or under our signature is here. No where else in this section to-day will be found a wholly new stock of all desirable goods. No where are your daily or occasional needs to be supplied at such substantial savings.

Saturday night will close our 7th Months' Business in Lindsay. We intend to close the month in a blaze of glory so far as exceptionally bright alluring bargains are concerned. Come Friday, come Saturday, and come expecting to be agreeably surprised at the economies here, there and everywhere about the store presented.
