 By the Rev. GEORGE FREEMAN,

"In all this did not Job sin with his lips."—Job ii, 15.

That is, Job might have sinned in his heart, but up to this point no word of his lips had transgressed the law of his God, or of his own good name. Some of us have reasons to be thankful for moments when the doubtful thoughts which are in each of us remain dumb. What a mercy is it that no man habitually utters all that he thinks, or all that he feels, and we ought to be as thankful for the sins that we are saved from as for the mercy that covers a multitude of transgressions. The sin in the heart we mourn and ought to repent of, but while it does not come to utterance, it remains between God and us, and we are spared the responsibility of injuring others by sinful words.

There is many a man who says,
 "Well, I don't know that I am getting on very fast, or making much progress, or have as very much to cheer me." Why, my dear friend, if you only knew what you have been saved from you would cheer up for the rest of your life. We are not only saved to get to Heaven by and by, where we may walk the golden pavements with throngs of beautiful angels, but every day brings us blessings, and not the least of these is that we are saved from things that are near to us.

EVERY DAY RESURRECTIONS.
 Why, we are saved from death every night. Do you know, we are told that if a man or a woman, or a child takes a natural and undisturbed and long sleep, such as we take every night, we are in the best health, and that the period we are said to be as near dead as ever we shall get without dying; therefore, every morning is a resurrection. Is that not something to be thankful for?

To be thankful for the things that I have been saved from not doing is also a duty, as well as being thankful for the mercy that has forgiven sins I have committed. Job would surely be thankful that he sinned not with his lips; we may be thankful, too, that when he did speak he had so much to say on a subject that concerns us, and said so much to solve a great problem for us concerning man suffering and pain and distress.

I have several reasons to give you why there must be suffering or pain in this world. The first is: It must be a necessity as far as God is concerned. It may help some suffering one if you are led to see the truth of that. Let me put it in some figure if I can. Men and women must endure suffering if God is to reveal himself to them as their Creator, as their Benefactor, as their Ruler. That is to say, God could not have enabled us to rejoice in this beautiful sunshine to-day if he had not before given us a darkness of night. We could not have had the one without the other, and if you and I did not have pain, we should be lumps of wood and bits of chalk, instead of men and women.
 It is a necessity to our very nature, because the law of the whole thing is this—to the measure of a man's power to endure pain, to that measure he can endure joy and happiness.
 Patience is the path of progress through it all. It was Job's way, and it must be ours.

 What you want when buying a

 BRASS CYLINDERS with threads, not bolts which rust and fall off, and IRON RODS, which do not rust or taint the water.

We are also placing a larger
