PRETTY APRIL WEDDINGS

DEYMAN-LAMONTE.
A pretty but quiet house wedding was solemnized on April 12 at eight o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Lamonte, corner of Lindsay and Russell-sts., when their daughter Miss Sarah Edith Lamonte became the wife of Mr. Cleveland Hendrick Deyman, a popular young Grand Trunk despatcher at the Lindsay depot, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Deyman, of Cobocok. The interesting and impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Marsh, rector of St. Paul's church, in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and plants for the occasion. After the ceremony the happy young couple left on the Grand Trunk noon train for London and points west, the bride wearing a pretty and becoming suit of grey with hat to match. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Deyman will reside in their new residence on Peel-st.

EGGLESTONE-WINDRIM.
Omeme, April 12.—The home of Mr. George Windrim was the scene of a hymeneal event on Wednesday last week, when his daughter Miss Windrim was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Foster Egglestone, an enterprising and popular young gentleman of Mount Pleasant. The esteem and popularity of the bride was evidenced by the number of beautiful presents she received. Mr. and Mrs. Egglestone will reside at Ida. Congratulations.

KINGHORN-WALLACE.
A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wallace, 12 Colborne-st., Lindsay, on Tuesday morning, April 12th, when their daughter Cora Helen was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Mr. J. Burpee Kinghorn, of Montreal. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Canon Marsh. The happy couple left by C.P.R. for Toronto, and will in future reside in Montreal.

HORTON-WATSON.
Kinmount, April 11.—Last Thursday afternoon a pleasing event took place in the northern part of our village, when Miss Maude Watson, of Lutterworth, was married to Mr. George Horton of this place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Lawrence. George is receiving the congratulations of his friends and they are many. Your correspondent wishes the young couple many years of wedded life.

LAMB-NICHOLSON.
A very pretty, but quiet wedding was solemnized at Owen Sound last week when Miss Minnie Nicholson was united in marriage to Mr. Arch Lamb, of Bury's Green. On the return of the young couple to Bury's Green Friday night last a reception was tendered them by their many friends, about forty-five guests being present.

HORE-HILL.
Pleasant Point, April 11. — A pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hill, Bobcaygeon, on the 6th inst., when their daughter, Myrtle Telena, was united in marriage to Mr. Walter E. Hore, of Pleasant Point. Rev. Mr. Foley assisted by Rev. Mr. Smith, performed the ceremony in the presence of 75 guests. After congratulations were extended all sat down to a dainty supper, and the remainder of the evening was spent in various amusements. We wish the young couple every success.

CRABTREE-TETRO.

THEY ACTUALLY CURE RHEUMATISM

Gin Pills Prove It
It is one thing to claim to cure Rheumatism. It is quite another to do it. Gin Pills bear out every claim we make for they are not a "favorite prescription" or a "marvellous discovery" or a "wonderful secret preparation."
They are simply a common-sense, scientific combination of medicines that have proved their value in Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, and Disorders of the Liver.
Ogden, N. S., July 1st, 1909.
"I have been troubled with Rheumatism so bad that I could not work. A doctor tended me and advised me to go to the hospital but all of no good until a friend told me to try Gin Pills. I did so and after using a few boxes, I am perfectly cured. I am recommending Gin Pills."
D. J. LAWLER.
There is no reason why Mr. Lawler's case should be any different from yours. He took Gin Pills and cured himself of Rheumatism. Why don't you take them and cure yourself?
We will let you test them free. A sample of Gin Pills will be sent you, absolutely free, if you write the National Drug & Chem. Co. Limited Dept. B., Toronto.

was solemnized at St. Mary's church Monday morning by Archdeacon Casey, when Miss Mary Tetro was united in wedlock to Alexander Crabtree, both of Lindsay.

MARK-TAMLIN.
A quiet wedding was solemnized on April 12 at the Cambridge-st. Methodist church parsonage by Rev. J. P. Wilson, B.A., when Miss Elizabeth T. Tamlin, daughter of Mr. Jos. Tamlin, of Cambridge, became the wife of Mr. Neil J. Mark, of Cameron. The bride was attended by Miss F. McFadyen, as bridesmaid, while Mr. Percy Mark, brother of the groom, ably supported the groom.

TIMS-BENSON.
A very pretty and fashionable April wedding was solemnized on April 12 at the hour of 8.30 o'clock in St. Mary's R. C. church, when Miss Theresa Imogene Benson, daughter of the late Edward Benson, was united in the holy wedlock bonds to Mr. Henry Stanfield Tims, of Chatham, son of Mr. J. W. Tims, of Montreal, and formerly of Lindsay.

Precisely at the hour mentioned above the bridal party entered the stately edifice to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, which was played in excellent manner on the pipe organ by the church organist, Miss Brady. The guests were ushered to their seats by Messrs. Chas. Squiers and Milburn Sylvester, and shortly afterwards the pretty but impressive ceremony was performed by Venerable Archdeacon Casey.

The attractive young bride was attired in a pretty semi-Empress dress of pearl white Duchess satin, daintily trimmed with yoke of Irish lace and seed pearls, wearing the conventional tulle veil with wreath of orange blossoms. She was attended by Miss Alda Sylvester as bridesmaid, who was very becomingly gowned in a white lingerie dress over pale pink satin, wearing a large black hat with plumes and carrying a sheath bouquet of pink roses and ferns. Miss Edith Speir acted as maid of honor, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. F. Drummond Allison, of Trenton.

After the tying of the nuptial knot the happy young couple repaired to the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Blanchard, Ridout-st., where a dainty wedding collation was served, the house being nicely decorated with ferns, palms and white carnations. The bride's table was also tastefully decorated with white carnations and ferns, and the wedding cake was surrounded with white tulle with sprays of lily of the valley.

After the reception, which was attended by only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties, Mr. and Mrs. Tims left on the morning train for New York, and on their return will take up residence in Chatham.

The bride wore a travelling suit of tea leaf green, made with Russian blouse, braided, with touches of Persian trimming. She also wore a beautiful turban hat to match with crown of violets and feathery mount, caught with gold ornament. The groom's gift to the bride was a valuable gold chain and pendant.

Amongst the numerous and costly gifts is a very handsome Gergard-Heintzman piano, the gift of the groom's father.

Interesting Debate at Epworth League

At the meeting of the Cambridge-st. Methodist Epworth League Monday a very interesting debate, a pleasing instrumental duet and a much appreciated vocal solo, made up an attractive program. The debate on "Resolved that the country boy is at a greater disadvantage in the city than the city boy in the country" proved very interesting, the negative side winning out. Messrs. W. J. Carlyle and Dr. Hart upheld the affirmative side while Dr. Nesbitt and Harry Brown championed the negative side. Miss B. Armstrong, Miss Ada Richardson and Mr. B. Robson acted in the capacity of judges.

ATTEND DRAINAGE DISPUTE.
Mr. R. J. McLaughlin, K.C., acting solicitor for the County Council, Judge Harding, the county's appointee as one of the arbitrators, and Miss Ethel Smith, official stenographer, left this morning for Brechin, where the drainage dispute between Victoria and Ontario counties will be settled by arbitration.

Around the rink at night.
But, when summer flowers have faded,
And wintry winds blow high,
We hope again to greet you,
So just for now, good-bye.

A Minden hockey enthusiast has penned the following:
We like to play lawn tennis
We love canoeing fine,
But we like to skate far better
In the good old winter time.

No more we see our caretaker,
Light his torches bright,
And place them all at intervals

No more we hear the joyous shouts,
Or watch the young folks skate;
No more we linger at the gate,
Until 'tis rather late.

We can only sit and ponder
Of the happy evenings spent,
Remembering the whispered words,
As around the curves we went.
