king of Judah, in last week's lesson in this one. He began to reign in his seventh year and reigned forty years, doing right in the sight of the Lord, while Jehoiada, the priest, instructed him (verses 1-3), but he did not destroy idolatry in the land. Our last good king in Judah was Jehoshaphat, who was succeeded by his son Jehoram, his firstborn, who married a daughter of Ahab and did evil in the sight of the Lord and put to death his six brothers. He reigned only eight years and died a fearful death, as the prophet Elijah sent him word that he would. It is written of him that he departed without being desired (II Chron. xxi).

Jehoahaz (or Ahaziah), his youngest son, succeeded him, all his older brothers having been slain by the Syrians. He reigned only one year, and his mother, Athaliah, was his counselor to do wickedly (11 Chron. xxii, 1-4). He was slain by Jehu, and when his mother knew that he was dead she at once proceeded to destroy all the seed royal of the house of Judah, but Jehosheba (or Jehoshabeath), the wife after reading the above letter. It proves, of Jehoiada, the priest, and sister of beyond the shadow of a doubt, that at Ahaziah, rescued the infant Joash and last there is a cure for Constipation and hid him and his nurse in the house of the Lord six years while Athaliah "Fruit-a-tives" is Nature's cure for reigned over the land (II Kings xi, 1-3; these diseases, being made of fruit juices II Chron. xxii, 10-12).

Last week's lesson told us how, in his seventh year, Jehoiada, the priest, arranged to have him brought forth, anointed, crowned and proclaimed king, and made a covenant between the Lord and the king and the people that they io, who takes the part of public should be the Lord's people (xi, 12, 17). prosecutor, and advances arguments They broke down the house of Baal to oppose the admission of the canand his altars and images, slew the didate. Then the candidate must priest of Baal, and also the wicked in the presence of the members, unqueen mother Athaliah. So the people dertake the Tirata, a kind of duel rejoiced and the city was quiet (xi, General y the Tirata is perfunctory, in which case it is called "of the We must not confuse our good King

Joash of Judah with another Joash, king of Israel, who began to reign over the ten tribes in the thirty-seventh year of the king of Judah's reign and who departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, the son of Nabat, who made Israel to sin (II Kings xiii, 10-13). We have a key to the heart of today's lesson in the expression, "The house of the Lord," which occurs in our lesson verses just twelve times, if we in-Inasmuch as the king spent the first

When Cyrus, king of Persia, made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom that the Jews might return from Babylon he said that it was to build the house of the Lord God of Israel in Jerusalem (Ezrafund for the purchase of a banquet. 1, 1-4). When Israel was numbered it was the law that every one, rich and poor, should give a half shekel as atonement money as a ransom for his soul, and this money was to be used in the service of the Lord (Ex. xxx, 11-16). To Hon. Borden This is probably a part of the money referred to in verse 4 with which they were to repair the hou : of the Lord, for the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God and had bestowed the dedicated things upon Baalam.
