Lesson V.—Second Quarter, For April 30, 1911.

INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

11-Memory Verses, Chapter Iv, 10 11-Golden Text, Matt. xxviii, 19. Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M.

The committee calls this a foreign missionary lesson, and it is certainly a grand missionary story, reaching on even to the kingdom when it shall be fully seen that "salvation is of the 9). With this saying of Jonah I have in my mind the words of the Lord Jesus to the woman of Samaria, "Salvation is of the Jews" (John vi, 12), Putting the two together we have the great truth that salvation is of the Lord through the Jews. all individuals and also of nations. All the redeemed in heaven and on earth owe their redemption to the blood of a Jew, and the nations as such will not be saved till the glory of the Lord is risen upon Israel. Then they shall come to her light and kings to the brightness of her rising (Isa. lx, 1-3; lxii, 1-3; xxvii, 6; Jer. iii, 17;

We have in our lesson the only instance, as far as I know, of a whole city penitent. But when Israel shall have had her resurrection from the dead and a nation of Pauls shall go forth into all the world witnessing as tions shall turn to the Lord in true penitence and "All kings shall fall down before Him, all nations shall serve Him" (Ps. lxxii, 11).

The Lord Jesus spoke of the experience of Jonah in the belly of the fish, his preaching and the repentance of Nineveh, and those who question the truth of the story of Jonah question the veracity of Jesus Christ. It is the work of the devil to question the word of God or the love of God (Matt. xii, patents, $4.50; strong bakers', $4.60; of God or the love of God straight rollers, $4 to $4.25; in bags, $1.75 39-41; xvi, 4; Gen. iii, 1-5). Could there by a more vivid picture of the churches' indifference to the command of Christ in our Golden Text than that of Jonah on this ship? The only man who knew the true God is fast asleep, while the heathen sailors are diligently calling upon their gods. They only found out who he was and why he was there by questioning him. In a certain place we read that Jesus could not be hid (Mark vii, 24), but some who bear the name of Christian seem to hide Him quite successfully. Contrast II Cor. iv, 10, 11; ii, 14.) Think of Samson and his fatal sleep. I'eter, James and John asleep in the presence of great privilege and also of great suffering and consider if you need the question of chapter i, 6 and if so what will your answer be? As to the great fish prepared by the Lord to take care of Jonah I often wonder why people have been so long looking for fishes of the same kind, for the record does not say that the Lord made two great tishes to propa-

For aught we know the fish may have died when it finished its ministry to Jonah, as probably did the little fish that brought the coin to Simon Peter. The winds of i, 4; iv, 8, were special the gourd and the worm of iv. 6, 7, special preparations for special ministry. I have long rejoiced in the truth of Eph. ii, 10, and firmly believe that all the good works of all the Lord's people are prepared beforehand for them to walk in. It is helpful to say concerning all things, pleasant or unpleasant, "prepared for me by in-With all Jonah's peculiarities he seems to have been a man full of the word of God, for his prayer in chapter ii is almost wholly Scripture. In the margin of my Bible I note in his prayer nine quotations from or references to the Psalms, besides some from other parts of Scripture. When he did finally start for Nineveh the word of the Lord to him was, "Preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee" (iii, 2). Compare Jer. i, 7; Ezek. ii, 7; iii, 11; II Tim. iv, 2; Acts viii, 4, 25, and note that our Lord Himself said only what the Father told Him to say (John xii,- 49; xiv, 10; viii, 28).
