PAGE ELGE

loronto Incorporated 1855

rember, 1911, Being Business rease for Year-$608,050 ease for Year -$853.050 ace for Year-$4,140,944

A. C HODGETTS MANAGER

40000000000000 ase for Year-$6,753 267

Increase-$5,003,662

nine"

Quinine

NG CORDWOOD

oom. Call and get priceso er Lumber (o.,

TERM

PHONE 77

pril 9th mer ie to our for conness College of Toronta. Gerard St. A. H. resident. The State of the S

DE IS JUSTIFIED

living taxes strength se, regularity and all physical power is body nourishment. In olic preparations should be ality by building, healing on the Great Hereafter of New York, on

Society of New York and ig. Everything was free lecture which was of an which as he remarked ater all must go.

mess is usually d by the accution of waste r and impurities the body.

ndian

the bowels, the s, the lungs and res of the skin ow off these ties. Thus they t or cure dis-

Sc. a box.

THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1912.

"I find a White Bronze Monument in Simpson. faylor County W. Va., that is over thirty years old and as nice and perfect as the day it was set" C. B. Nay, Fairmount, W. Va.

Slate, sandstone. brownstor e and marble have till proved failures. Granite is going way. No Stone can conpare

White Bronz

Durability, Actistic Effects

Arthur Graham E LEETWOOD P.O.

GUN REPAIRING All makes of Guns repaired, Stocks made for Guns. Skates Sharpened and Repaired, Saws Gummed and Sett, Horse Clippers Sharpened equal to new, Locks Fitted with Keys, Cream Seperators Repaired, General Machine Repairs at

Geo. W. Shephard's William St. North Next Post Building, Lindsay

"Prism Brand" McLENNAN & Co.

PIAN: ORGANS

I have the agency for the well known and tried makes.

I will be glad of an opportunity of talking with you about any instrument on the market and am satisfied my prices and terms will please the most ex

MADDITA

P. O. Box 217

LINDS A Propital and seven arrested.

POULTRY WANTED

We pay 9e lb. cash for old hens weighing 5 lbs., under 5 lbs. according to quality, delivered to 40 Queen St. East Ward

BUTTER WANTED

Highest prices paid for un salted butter put up in lb prints

FURS Highest prices paid for all

A. APPLEBAUM

85 KentSt. Phone 337-

THOSE SLIPPERY SPOTS.

-Mr. R. L. Irwin left to-day for lish this in the papers:"-Mrs. WILLIAM Port Huron, after visiting his aunt, S. Bourque, Fox Creek, N. B. Mrs. A. C. Clarke, north Ops. The silver jubilee of Bishop Dowl- In the Pinkham Laboratory at 1 ing (R. C.), of Hamilton, will be Mass., are files containing hundreds of celebrated thortly.

The absence of Al Bridwell, who ing health in which many openly inte-is at home nursing an injured foot, has caused Manager Kling, of the Boston Nationals, to shift his pin Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, many field in the practise games at Aug-acres adjoining the willage Glenarm, being the property of th tate Donald Spence. For further particulars apply to Mrs. Bonald Spence, Glenarm, P.O.

TO RENT - THE EAST HALF OF lot 4, in the 6th con. of the Township of Ops, containing 100 acres. Land in good state of cultivation, Good house with stone cellar, good barn with stone foundation and other outb uildings. Small orchard Ploughing almost finished. For further particulars apply S. E. Roddy, Reaboro, Ont.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 28, 1912.-By Thos. Cashore, auctioneer. Sale of farm stock and implements, the property of Hugh McKinnon, lot 22, con: 4, Fenelcu. Sale at one o'clock sharp.

WANTED TO RENT - ADVERTIS er wants to rent a good farm. Ad dress Box 26, Warder, Lindsay, giving full particulars. WANTED - LADIES TO DO PLAIN and light sewing at home, whole or spare time; good pay; work sent any distance; charges paid.

National Manufacturing Co., Mon-

Send stamp for full particulars.

REPRESENTATIVES WANTED IN each locality to mail circulars for cut-rate grocery mail order house Few hours spare time will easily earn $20 weekly. Anvone can do the work. Outfit furnished free. Dominion Grocery Co., Windsor, HOUSEKEEPER WANTED FOR family of three. Good home for the right person. Apply Box 28 Warder.

OR SALE .- PURE-BRED STOCK two bulls, one is 3 months' old and the other 11 months' old by Lord Strathcona. Apply to W. I. Reid, lot 12, con. 9, Ops, Reaboro P.O.

FOR SALE A CYPHYRS MODEL

TEACHER WANTED - FOR S. S. No. 8. Somerville to commence after Easter, 2nd class Normal profess. Protestant, Salary $500 to $600 per annum. Apply to S. Suddaby, Sec., Burnt River.

HOUSE FOR SALE BY TENDER -Mrs. Aley White will offer for sale by tender, her residence, 27 Victoria-ave., north. Tenders will be received until Tuesday, April 3rd. Highest or any tender not necessarally accepted. Box 168, Lindsay.

FARM TO RENT - 100 ACRES situated two miles from Lindsay and one mile from school. is a large brick house, and barns on the premises. ploughing done. Address Patrick H. O'Connor, Lindsay P. O.

PHURSDAY, APRIL 11 By Elias Bowes, auctioneer, Sale of farm stock and implements, the pro-perty of Wm. Moore, lot 1, con. 4, Eldon . Sale at one o'clock pm.

TUESDAY, APRIL 16. - BY GEO. McFadyen; doto 12, con. 8, Eldon, Sale at 1 o'clock pan I do

One has to give the people much credit for honesty that it sometimes difficult to explain all the ounicting testimony St. Thomas assessors report population of 16,453, or 1,000 more

WOMAN'S MOST

Known All Over The World

-Known Only For The

Good It Has Done.

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or received so many genuine testimonials, as has Lydia E

In nearly every community you will find women who have been restored to health by this famous medicine. Almost every woman you meet knows of the great good it has been doing among suffering women for the past 30 years.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

SUCCESSFUL

than shown by the Dominion census Knives were freely used when Rus-William St. sians and Galicians fought in a Win-nipeg hotel. Three are in the hos-tonight-as a newspaper reporter, him his chance to come."

"I gave him good advice," said I. taughing-"all about his future and ambition and things like that. I hope he'll take it."

Did he thank you prettily?" the genie's present to him in Aladdin's cave. I changed with him for the ope I had. But this is much prettier

"Where do you find that?" I asked ruby, emeraid, sapphire, topaz." I felt my cheeks burn when she gave me this explanation.

looking forward to the pink will in th de rate success, but ft als seem a nothing went wrong so far as the wed-le pink after the gorgeousness of the ding party was concerned, but with me things began to go very wrong several

Across the Water.

By C. N. Q A M WILLIAMSON. Copyright 19" by McChure, Phil-

11. - & Co.

Everybody exclaimed and laughed at their surprise at such an unexpected transformation. Now was the time for unmasking, of course, and there were shrieks of surprise and amusement as people discovered who their companions really were. For a minute-I'm sure it couldn't have been more-I forgot Mr. Brett to stare at the great glittering ice ship. When I turned to speak to him he was gone. And whether he vanished on purpose because he didn't want to unmask in a company of strange people or whether he was separated from me by the sudden press of the crowd I don't know. I suppose I shall never know. I only immediately surrounded by other men, saying nice things about my costume. wanting me to have supper with them and asking me for dances afterward. The rest of the night went by with a wild rush. We didn't stop dancing till 4, we young people, and I believe the older ones played bridge. We had second supper served upstairs toward dawn, and when the last people went know that I lost him and that I was "Well, deab," said Sally cozily when every one had gone and she had come into my room to help me undress, "had you a good time?" "Splendid!" said I, sighing with joy. "I'm dancing still-in my head. My away it was broad and glorious day

"Katherine doesn't call it a ball. But that's a detail. Had you any pro-"Oh, Sally, how came you to think of such a thing? But isn't it too extraordinary? I had three."

"Why extraordinary?" "Because I hardly knew the men!" "Americans make up their minds quickly about what they want." "So Mr. P- So I've been told." "Accept any one?"

"Not I." "Didn't even give them a wee mite of hope?" "Dear me, no."

"Poor Potter-for one." "Sally, I do wish he wouldn't-do that sort of thing, since you speak of it. It makes it so embarrassing. And somehow I don't feel be really means it. I've always the impression thatthat he does it because he thinks he

"He'd like to marry you, Betty. There's no doubt of that, and one can't blame him for it."

"Well, if he keeps on I shall be driven away," I said, "although they don't want me to go home yet forfor several reasons. I don't want to go either. I'm having a wonderful experience. But"- "Haven't you met any man you could imagine yourself caring for, deah? Or perhaps you don't fancy Americans."

all great fun. And one-one man I've met I think superior to any other I ever knew. But, then, I've known so few and I don't know him well. needn't look at me like that. It isn't a romance, you dear. I'm most unlikely to know him any better ever. He isn't like the rest. He isn't like anybody else I ever saw."

"Now," said Sally coaxingly, "you might tell me if he's one of the three

Why. Sally, I don't mind telling you me not to mention this to Carolyn and I know you have. But that doesn't ship and whom we met afterward accidentally in the park. He is rather wonderful considering his station, isn't he?" stores or post free free

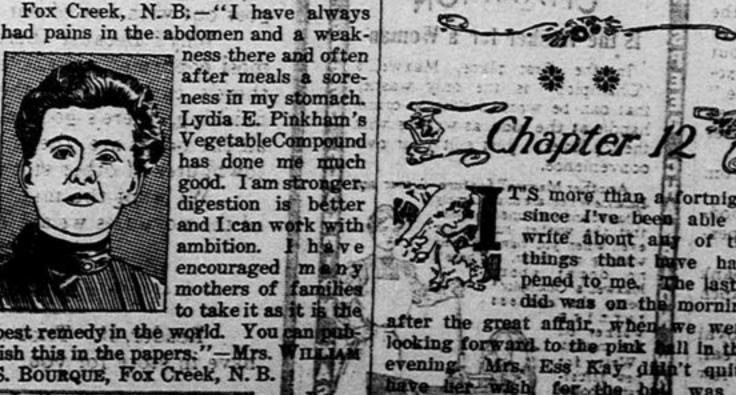

"He'd be rather wonderful in any station. That's my theory about him. "I think it's mine too. He was here hinted, though he didn't exactly say he was in so many words. Did he talk

"Yes," said Sally. "Indirectly I got

"He'll probably try all be knows.

"D-E-A-R-E-S-T, Dearest," spelled out as she held the third finger of my right hand, on which I'd slipped

"Don't you know? Why, the stones

I wonder if Mr. Brett knew!

washed out if it hadn't been for or called him back to England, and he wanted to take his bride with him Before I stopped to think I'd promised Carolyn to be one of her bridesmaids, but five minutes later I would almost have liked to change my mine because of Potter. He was asked to be an usher. (I didn't know at the time what that meant, but I had vague impression it was something of importance at American weddings.) So that I was sure to see a lot of him if I were bridesmaid, and in any case I was beginning to feel he might make it too awkward for me to visit much longer with Mrs. Ess Kay.

However, when on second thought I tried to get out of my promise by hinting that I might have to go home, Carolyn seemed ready to cry and said that if I threw her over it would spoil everything. The wedding would be in ten days, and surely I hadn't been thinking of going back to England as soon as that? It was quite true, I hadn't. And more than that, I knew I shouldn't be welcome at home. I made up my mind to get through somehow and told Carolyn I had only been joking. She had always wanted to be man ride at Grace church in New York, bat New York is no place for August weddings, if an August wedding you must have; so Carolyn's invitations, which appeared almost immediately after the engagement was announced, told daughter's marriage in the drawing Mohansleigh said that, as he was aw room of the Chateau de Plaisance.

when I go home I don't think I'd bet- a pretty idea for everything they carhunsleigh's wedding, or some of the bridegroom. But as Sally had told me old fashioned people mightn't anderstand. I should hate them to get the idea just because of the drawing room Mohunsleigh need have com that poor Carolyn was morganatic or

She seemed ecstatically happy, more bride and groom stood under a bell of than I could imagine any girl being if white coses about as large as Big Bon she had to marry Mohunsleigh, who, I enjoyed it all immensely, for although a dear good fellow when you was my first time as bridesmaid, an know him, isn't a bit romantic. But I had a lovely freck and hat (copie he suddenly blossomed out into all sorts of pleasant American ways, sent I wanted the bill-I found Sally has Caro flowers and things every day. though I fancy he couldn't afford it: | tion, but it only lasted two hour gave her a lovely solitaire diamond After the bride and groom had gon ring, which I'm sure he couldn't, and with showers of rice and satin slip a "guard," an heirloom in his family. If would have been shocking, Carelyn the ushers and bridesmaids and a few

said, for her to be seen anywhere after young people, who were intimate the invitations were out, though I can't | friends of Carolyn's. think why, as she didn't seem at all rather the contrary, and asked me hun would have to do when she was lots of things to keep her busy in doors, trying on such frocks as she could get made in a hurry and writ ing letters to every girl she knew an nouncing her engagement.

The funniest things about the whole affair were-for me-the ushers, the rehearsals for the wedding and having a. married woman as a sort of head bridesmaid. Carolyn's best girl chum was married herself in the spring, so "Oh, I do!" I exclaimed. "They're she had to be what they call a matron

It seemed horribly irreverent to rehearse for the ceremony, but nobody else thought so except Mohunsleigh and me, and Mohunsleigh said in confidence that be'd found out the bridegroom was a mere lay figure at a wedding-anyhow in America-and he intended to let Caro do exactly as she liked until after they were married. Then she might have to find out that once in awhile it would be just as well if she did what he liked. But he asked | whenever Potter talked about love. her stepmother, so I didn't. And in spite of my objection the rehearsals were interesting. I felt as if I oughtn't to laugh and joke but the others all did tremendously, so I did, too, in the Mohunsleigh was disappointed cause that Californian friend of his (whom he would have visited if if adn't been for falling in love unexpectedly and getting married) couldn't come and be his best man. He urged him, but something interfered, Mohunsleigh didn't tell us what, and Mr. Jameson B. Harborough wasn't even uble to come to the wedding. I was disappointed, too, as Mohunsleigh had told us such romantic things about his friend that we all wanted to see him. Mr. Harborough had been a sailor and a cowboy and had left everything to fight in the Spanish war, where he'd done brave and splendid things, and might have stayed in the army after ward as a captain if he had liked. But be preferred to go back to his old, free life and was still a poor young man until two or three years ago, when few savings turned out to have gold in it-quantities of gold, gold enough to make a famous mine and give Mr. Harborough a great fortune. Sall ionaire too. It seemed that cousins out and flattered in San Francisco and other places since he'd become rich. He hated it so much that he'd gone knew a good deal about the new mi abroad and stopped a long time, wandering about in strange eastern countries making friends with Bedoning and people like that who love horses in love with some girl who would only Jameson B. Harborough, though everyto others beside Mohnnsleigh and me der wish for the bed was a With the exception of this are but With the exception of this one hitch days before Caro and Mohumsleich were married. There was a funs of some sort between Sally and Mrs. Ess. Kay, and Sally came to me, very much upset, to say that the would have t eave the Moorings immediately, she , I believe he would have liked to box couldn't stand it twenty-four hours onger, even for my sake. She had unised to visit a friend in Chicago | "I thought English girls were brough sooner or later so she would go up to be sensible," said he, "and amia-straight to her, and if anything too ble." eady to sail for home, I had better run out there-the friend would be de desperate. "You've no right to keep the address, and I told her I would a bit of good, for if you stand there write often, but of course I didn't much as if the wedding had not been

Poor old Mohunsleigh-who knows bears than etiquette in America society-was coached by Potter, an he night before the wedding re carsal reluctantly gave an elabora linner to his best man tun officer tan's regiment who happened to turn p) and the six ushers. The same is arolyn had her matron of honor at be bridesmaids to lunch, and we di ave fun talking over things. I shou ave thought a luncheon with all gil ad no men might have been a litt me, and perhaps it would in En and, but in America girls are not I shy. They say just as funny thing men, and take the most beautif ins to amuse each other, so that it possible to be bored, and for hours end you forget there is such a crea e as man.

At home Mohunsleigh would have ad to give us things, of course, but in America it appears that the bridegroom takes presents to the best man and the ushers, so it was from Carolyn that i got a duck of a brooch, like an Amer every one that Mr. and Mrs. Pitchley | ican flag, with stripes of diamonds and begged them to be present at their rubies and the blue part sapplifes fully hard up, it was bad luck for him I didn't know that you could be mar- to have to provide each of the bride ried in a drawing room, but it seems maids with bouquets and chiffon muffs. you can, quite properly. However, and be could not see at all that it was ter say much about that part of Mo- ried in their hands to come from the that Carolyn's father had seitled ten million dollars on her, I don't thin Although it was in a house, the wed > from an old picture) for which whi paid. There was a crush at the recep pers, we stayed and had a dance-just ding was very picturesque, and the

It was then that my greatest trou ashamed of marrying Mohunsleigh, but bles began. On a prefense of show ing some wedding presents which I dreds of questions about what she said I hadn't seen because they were countess. Fortunately, though, she had Potter got me alone and proposed This time be didn't hugh an me uncomfortable, but was very ser out he stood in front of the wouldn't let me pass, and his chin and eyes looked so borribly determined that he was more like Mrs. Ess Kay

"My dear little ladyship," he said "you're not going to get away unti you've given me my answer." "But I have given it," said I.

"I don't call what you've given me an answer, because, you see, I wint you so much, and f've made up my mind so hard and fast to have you that I shan't take 'no' for an answer' "I don't see how you can help it, as it's the only one I have to give, and I've told you that two dezen times at least," I said, beginning to feel irritable, as I always have from the first the bright lexicon of my youth. Look bere, dear girl, you don't quite realize perhaps what a good time I'd give you if you married me. I've got as much money as my sister has, and I'd do just is you liked about staying in the army You could have a house in New York and a whole, real live castle in your own country if you liked. I wouldn't are a rap how much you spent on clothes, and there isn't a woman in America who's got better jewels than you should have. I'd see to that. Besides, you could do what you choose for your own people. I couldn't stint ou. I want to be friends with them never talked like this to you before. but you see what I mean. And now, isn't what I've said any inducement?" "I wouldn't need any such inducements if I loved you," I answered, "but I don't and can't, and somehow I never have been able to believe that you real-

"If that's the trouble you ean make your mind easy. I want you badly." "Then I'm sorry, for I simply can't marry you. I should be miserable and

"I'll risk that. You're too much of an English rosebud to understand anything about love. What you must do is to trust others who know what you ought to want better than you do yourself-your mother, for instance. You'd like to please her and your sister and brother, wouldn't you? Well, they all want you to say yes to me."

"How do you know?" I broke out "I do know. You can ask Kath if it "I don't want to talk to ber about it."

"You needn't if you'll only be a good girl and do what everybody expects

Mrs. Simpson, of Lindssy, town this week the guest

Pheephanol patron service the bod answered rudely, for I was getting till we're both in our second childgood I won't change my mind. You ought to know that now, Mr. Parker. Please let me go." He didn't move.

"If you don't I'll scream at the top nore about the matthers of polar of my lungs," I said. And he mu give seen that I meant it, for he flung pen the door with a slam, and wept past him with my nose in the air, trying to look like mother.

I didn't see him again till it was ime to go home. Then he drove back with Mrs. Ess Kay and me to the Moorings in the shut up motor car and didn't open his mouth once on the way, which was wonderful for him and seemed somehow ominous. I had been too angry and excited after that scene of ours to feel unbappy or to worry much about what might come next, but that drive, short as it was, with Potter freezingly silent and Mrs. Ess Kay alarmingly polite. made me feel that the end had come I was sure she had been told by her brother what an obstituate, ungrately glet I was, and I had a guilty sinking of the heart as if I really had bee There was no Sally to prote throat as I said good tight and to my own room. I hadn't been there long when the which mother gives wir ound cout in some

Thinks it her duty to hence Desc

(To be continued.)

tenary committee at Montreal, it was decided to invite the Prince of Wales to unveil the monument in 1914.

Building Blocks Silo Blocks Field Blocks Fence Posts Culvert Tile

Everything made of best Cement.

. With crushed stone and sand and cement scientifically mixed in proper proportions. · Everything machine made and steam-cured at and and

NATIONAL CONCRETE MFG. COMPANY See our Agent M. Myles, across from Bank of Montreal

Best Place in Canada for Superior Busicess or Shorthand

Education is the Great and Popular ELLIOTT Dusiness College Toronto, Ont. Graduates readily of tain good positions and the demand fally three times our supply. This college is open all year. Students have lately taken positions at $50, $60, $75 and $100 per month Enter now. Catalogue free.

Jor. Yonge and Alexander Sts.

Seems To Be Habitual With Many People.

Some are seldom, if ever, free from it, suffering continually and wondering why they can get no relief. Headaches are generally caused by some derangement of the stomach or bowels, or both. Burdock Blood Bitters removes acidity the stomach, improves digestion, regulates the constipated bowels, and pro motes a periect circulation of pure blood to all portions of the body, thereby curing the headaches by removing the cause. Mrs. L. Maguire, Kinmount, Ont., writes: "I am writing you a few lines to tell you what your Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I used to be greatly troubled with headaches, but after using two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters I was completely cured. This was two years ago and I have had no return of headache since."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited,

HOMESEI KERS

VERY LOW RATES AND SPECIAL TRAINS FOR HOMESEEKERS Those taking advantage of the Homeseekers' Excursions should bear in mind the many exclusive features offered by the Canadian Pacific Railway in connection with a trip to the West. It is the only all-Canadian route. Only line operating through trains in Western Canada No change of depots. Only line operating through Standard and Tourist sleepers to Winnipeg and Vancouver. All equipment is owned and operated by Canadian Pacific Railway, affording the highest form of efficiency. Dining car service unsurpassed. Homeseekers' rates will be in effect April 2, 16, 30, May 14, 28, June 11, 25, July 9, 23, Aug. -6, At a meeting of the Cartier Cen- | 20, Sept. 3, 17, and round trip second class tickets will be Canadian Pacific Railway from tario points at very low rates, example Winnipeg and return $34 Edmonton and return $42, and other points in proportion. Return limit

60 days. For the accommodat:on of Canadian Pacific. Railway passengers a special train will leave Toronto 2.00 p.m. on above dates, comprised Tourist and Colonist Sleepers. Colonist Sleepers may be occupied free of charge. Passengers, however, must provide their own Tourist Sleeping cars will be operated through to Edmonton via Saskatoon, also through to Winnipeg and Calgary. A moderate charge made for berths in Tourist cars. Both Tourist and Colonist are provided with cooking ranges. which trainmen have instructions to keep in condition, Full particulars from any Canadian Pacific Railway agent. Ask for copy of Homeseekers Booklet. T. C. Matchett, uptown agent, Lindsay.

HE LIKES IT. Mr. R. McEachern, of Whitechurch, Ont., writes The Daily Warder under date of March 24, 1912, in which be "Please find enclosed subscription, to your vahiable paper. * The Watchman-Warder is one * of the things we cannot do * without. You are certainly * giving big value for the mo-This is a sample of the many letters which are continually * coming to this office expressive * of the standing of The Warder in the different districts where it is circulated.

Is Your New Spring Suit to Be Made to Order?

The man who insists on being personally tailored will find much to interest him in our splendid showing of

Spring Suitings and Overcoatings Now on Display

Come in and enjoy the satisfaction that comes of early selection.

W. G. Blair & Son Ladies' and Gentlemen's Tailor

Have You $500 or more to Invest at 6% Interest?

If you would like to invest $500.00 or more in a non-speculative security paying a high interest, send us your name and address. We offer you a selection of the best mortgages to be had an Baskatchewan imroved farms. Each mortgage earnes with it our absolute, binding guar-ntee that the principal and interest will be paid. Where will you find nother 6 per cent. legal investment for "Trust" funds with no chance of loss? We even collect and remit the payments without charge. Send for our booklet "A Safe Investment." Read it and then you'll know more about this large organization of experienced investors.

NATIONAL FINANCE COLTD.

26 WELLINGTON STREET EAST, TORONTO Head Office: Vandaries, B.C. SUBSCRIRED CAPITAL, $1,000,000.00 PATO FF CAPITAL, $501,647.00 SURPLUS AND RESERVA, AVA $260,000.00

Morse's oot Pills,