

"I had been given up to die by three of our best doctors,

I could not stand it to be on my feet and I was so swelled in the abdomen I could hardly breathe.

But thanks to Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and Nervine I am able to be about the streets, a walking advertisement of the curative qualities of your remedies, although I am 70 years old."

JOHN R. COCHRAN, Lewistown, Ill.

Better than any statement we could make regarding the value of

FORCE OF THE COLLISION. TITANIC EQUAL TO 70 LOCOMOTIVES IN COLLISION.

Montreal, April 17. - The force with which the Titanic struck the iceberg, figured out on the basis of a 46,000 ton vessel, and a speed of 21 knots, is equivalent to the impact of seventy-two locomotives, going in one direction, hitting some 200 inch gms. of steel simultaneously, 500-lb. projectiles.

The energy would raise the whole ship herself 35 feet.

A Mother's Cares Destructive to Health

ANÆMIA, BAD BLOOD, HEAD-ACHES AND LASSITUDE VERY COMMON.

Mrs. Wilkinson's Letter Gives Advice That Every Mother Can Well Follow.

From her home in Newton where she resides with her large family, Mrs. Wilkinson writes: "For years I was pale, anæmic and lacking in vitality, and was a constant sufferer from indigestion, and the distress and pain it caused me, coupled with ever increasing anæmia, made me weaker day by day.

Constant headaches, specks before the eyes and attacks of dizziness made me feel as if life were not worth living. My constitution was completely undermined and the constant pallor and dullness in my eyes showed what a sick woman I was. I began to take Dr. Hamilton's Pills and the improvement, although slow, was sure.

"I gradually got back my strength, and my appetite grew much stronger, and I enjoyed my meals thoroughly. I felt happier and more contented and the sickly pallor of my face was replaced by a bright, rosy color, which proved that a strong medicine was at work. In a few months Dr. Hamilton's Pills brought me from a condition of deadly pallor to robust health."

You can obtain the same results by using Dr. Hamilton's Pills—beware of the substituter who offers you anything except Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c per box, or five boxes for one dollar, at all dealers or The Catarrh-olize Company, Kingston, Ontario.

Setting the Thames on Fire.

We used to be taught that it would require a very clever fellow to set the Thames on fire. We are now beginning to learn, says Country Life, that under certain conditions there is danger of this occurring from the act of a very stupid and careless fellow.

The public mind has probably been rather confused than illuminated by the opposite opinions expressed by the Government and by the port authority as to the advisability and safety of allowing large storages of petrol on the river breast of, or above, London.

The risk of extensive conflagration in consequence of a burning mass of oil being carried down on the Tames is one that we all can appreciate, even without the disastrous object-lesson lately given at Manchester.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson IV.—Second Quarter, For April 28, 1912.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. v. 1-12. Memory Verses, 2-6—Golden Text, Matt. v. 8—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The lesson today and the portion from Luke vi suggested to be read with this and which will be our lesson next week look somewhat like the same discourse; but, while the subject matter is similar, the words were spoken on two different occasions. This is seen by comparing Matt. v. 1, and Luke vi. 17. In the former we read that "He went up into a mountain and when He was set His disciples came unto Him," and in the latter, "He came down with them and stood in the plain."

Both John the Baptist and Jesus had been preaching, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matt. iii. 2; lv. 17), and Jesus had been through all Galilee preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing all manner of sickness and disease (lv. 23). In Matt. v to vi we have the principles of the kingdom which was then at hand, which was postponed because they rejected it and Him (Luke xii. 11, 12), but which He will set up on the earth at His coming again in glory.

The teaching of these chapters does not set before us a life to be lived to procure salvation, but a life that can be lived only by saved people, for it is written, "His disciples came unto Him, and He opened His mouth and taught them" (verses 1, 2), so that those who say that His sermons only them and the gospel enough for them do not know what they are saying, for His first utterance condemns all pride and self-sufficiency, just as the first of the Ten Commandments lays all low in the dust and brings in the whole world guilty before God (Rom. iii. 19). There is a wonderful analogy between these beatitudes of our lesson and the petitions of the prayer in chapter vi. 9-13, commonly known as the Lord's Prayer, more correctly the disciples' prayer, an epitome of all true prayer. Only such as are saved, who have become children of God by receiving Jesus Christ as their Saviour (John i. 12), can truly say "Our Father who art in heaven." John viii. 44, applies to all others. Only the poor in spirit can say "hallowed be Thy name," for all others prefer to magnify their own name. All who mourn because of the Bridegroom's absence and sigh and cry because of the abundance of the disciples' prayer, an epitome of all true prayer. Only such as are saved, who have become children of God by receiving Jesus Christ as their Saviour (John i. 12), can truly say "Our Father who art in heaven." John viii. 44, applies to all others.
