KING ALFONSO WAS ATTACKED

Madrid, April 13.—For the third time in his reign King Alfonso narrowly escaped to-day the victim of an anarchist attempt against his life. Three shots were fired at the king in the streets of the capital by a native of Barcelona, Rafael Sanchez, who was immediately overpowered.

King Alfonso owed his life to his own courage, quickness and skilled horsemanship. Accompanied by his staff he was riding along the Calle de Alcalá on the way back from the ceremony of swearing in the recruits when a man sprang from the sidewalk and seized the bridle of the king's horse with one hand, pointing a revolver point-blank with the other.

The king took in the situation at a glance. With lightning rapidity he dug his spurs into the horse, which reared violently. His quickness saved his life. The bullet, instead of burying itself in the king's breast, struck the horse on the neck, but so close was it to the king's left hand glove was blackened by the powder discharge.

Before the assailant was able to pull the trigger again a secret service man sprang upon him. The two men fell to the ground locked in each other's arms, struggling furiously.

The assassin managed to free his revolver arm and fired two more shots in rapid succession, but the officer knocked his arm aside and the bullets flew harmlessly through the air.

At the sound of the first shot the king's forced their horses on the sidewalk and made a ring around the assassin, who fought long and fiercely in the grip of four policemen, before he was overpowered and handcuffed.

King Alfonso, as soon as he saw that the man had been secured, raised himself in the stirrups, turned to the crowd, gave a military salute and shouted in ringing voice: "Long live Spain!"

W. I. MEETING

WEST OPS WOMEN HELD GOOD MEETING.

The West Ops Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon, April 9th, at the house of Miss Minnie Evers, with fifty-two ladies present.

Mrs. Geo. Clarke reported that the deputation that awaited on the Ops council in regard to the weeds along the roads, had been favorably received and promised that the matter would be given their attention.

It was decided by the Institute to hold a garden party in June or July and a plan for it was appointed to make plans for it.

Mr. W. Hunter, of the Dept. of Agriculture, gave an excellent talk on poultry. He told of the up-to-date poultry houses in use at Guelph, the bred-to-lay, strain of Plymouth Rocks that were gaining renown in Canada, the proper feeding of young chicks and the low until they are marketed, and also of several of the prevalent diseases of fowl and the methods of eradication. At the close of his talk he answered many questions that were asked by the members to the satisfaction of all present.

Mrs. J. A. White read a paper that she had prepared on the preparation of eggs for invalids. After a selection on the gramophone the meeting was brought to a close by singing the national anthem.

A social half hour was spent over the refreshments, which were served by seven of the members, who were also members of the town branch, namely, Mrs. W. C. McGregor, Mrs.
R. Corley, Mrs. J. Carey, Mrs. W.
Hungerford, Mrs. R. Moore, Mrs. H.
Skitch and Mrs. M. Williams.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Hedson on Wednesday, May 14, for the election of new officers and to arrange the program for the coming year. All members and those intending to become members are requested to be present.

STATION BURNED

G. T. R. STATION AT SEAGRAVE PREY TO FLAMES.

Fort Perry Star: A couple of nights ago, just after midnight, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Crooks, of Seagrave Station, woke up to find their room full of smoke. In fact, Mrs. Crooks was choking with it. They soon discovered that the station was on fire, and that if they were going to get out with their lives they would have to move quickly. So they hastily picked up a few articles of clothing and dressed themselves as best they could. In the meantime they could hear the fire crackling around them. It is not likely that Mr.
Crooks could tell to-day just how he and his wife got out of that burning building, for he has to go on crutches, and his wife in her half smothered condition would need assistance.

It was a narrow escape, for the building was burned almost to the ground, and so far as can be learned nothing was saved.

About midnight a freight train had come through from Lindsay, and it is thought that some sparks from the engine had lodged on the roof of the station and set fire to it.

When the alarm was given, and some men appeared on the scene, it was easily apparent that the station could not be saved, but it was discovered that the warehouse near by was on fire. There were some milk cans on the platform, and some men took these and filled them with water while others climbed on the roof to pour the water onto the fire. In a short time it was put out, and but little damage was done to the building because of the excellent service of this volunteer fire brigade.

Mr. Crooks became station master at Seagrave on April 1st, 1878, a little more than thirty-five years ago. His friends will be sorry to hear of his loss, which included an artificial limb valued at $100. Fortunately there was $500 insurance on Mr. Crooks' share of the contents of the building.

Woman 91 Says Son 71 Tried to Poison Her

Winsted, Conn., April 12.—Mrs.
Fannie Baker, a widow, ninety-one years old, tottered to the witness stand in New Hartford last week to testify against her son, Edward E.
Baker, seventy-one years old, who had been arrested accused of poisoning his aged parent by placing wood alcohol in her medicine and with assaulting her.

The woman told of being ill after swallowing the medicine. She also said her son kicked her.

Another son, Frank R. Baker, and his wife testified against the prisoner.

Justice R. M. Olmstead held Edward E. Baker in $2,500 bail for trial, and Charles Osborne, of Collinsville, qualified as bondsman.

Mrs. Baker and her son Edward lived together, occupying the same house with Frank, sixty-eight years old, and his wife.

Talking About Hen Fruit!

Mr. J. O'Reilly presented the poultry editor of The Warder with the largest specimen of a hen egg yet seen. The egg was so large that the scribe's desk had no drawer in which it could be placed, and consequently, he put it in his hat and kept the cushion on his head until he found a receptacle in which it could be stored.
It was laid by a Buff Orpington hen, and when Mr. O'Reilly was asked if he had any more like it he said, "Yes, plenty of them. The first specimen of the tape at 1 1/4 inches by 9 inches, and weighed 117 ounces and 1/2."

The scribe had scarcely got his breath when Mr. J. P. Ryley's booming countenance appeared in the sanction, accompanied by Mr. D. C. Trew.
He carried a large egg in his hand, which he received from Mr. T. J.
Cole, of Toronto, and, consequently,
he put it in his hat and kept the
receptacle in which it could be stored.
It was laid by a Buff Orpington hen,
and had the remarkable weight 117 ounces, and measured without stretching the tape 9x12 inches.

The scribe is planning an egg sandwich banquet, to which the entire staff will be invited to join in the great saturnalia.

Known in Lindsay

TORONTO MAN ELECTROCUTED AT OAKVILLE.

Garfield Till, of Toronto, was instantly killed at Oakville Sunday morning, in the cellar of the Murray House. He had gone down to fix a water pipe which was leaking, and in some way which is not yet explained, he was electrocuted by an ordinary electric lamp. His body was discovered by his brother, Lewis Till, the proprietor of the hotel, whose suspicions were aroused by the fumes of burning in the house.

Both brothers were well known to a number of Lindsay and Fenelon Falls citizens. Mr. Lewis Till having made a practice of late years of spending his summer vacation at Fen-elon Falls, the guest of Mr. Cliff Scott.

The cellar was full of smoke, and Garfield Till was lying face down on the floor, with the lamp clamped to his breast.

He leaves a widow and three children, two boys and a girl, the oldest being only seven years old. He garnered Miss Maud Phillips, a daughter of Thomas Phillips, hardware merchant, Orillia.

Wreck Results In 7 Deaths--Many Injured

Montreal, April 13.—Seven persons are dead and fifteen were injured as the result of the derailment of an excursion train this afternoon on the Montreal-Chambly branch of the Central Vermont Railway, about four and a half miles out of St. Lambert.
The train was carrying about 700 passengers who had taken advantage of a free trip by real estate agents to prospective purchasers of lots at Albani subdivision, and was returning to Montreal at a speed between 20 and 30 miles an hour, when from a yet unknown cause the engine and the three first coaches left the rails a few hundred yards the other side of the Sunlight City subdivision, near East Greenfield station. The engine was running tender first.
When the derailment occurred the tender jumped to the right side of the track, turning bottom up, while engine went to the left, falling on its side. The engineer and fireman were both thrown from the cab, the fireman receiving injuries from which he died soon after, while the engineer escaped with some painful bruises.

The three coaches which were derailed remained upright on their trucks, but the telescoping of their ends caused most of the fatalities.

The first coach rested across the track nearly at right angles, its front end being superimposed upon the overturned engine. The second coach stood in an oblique angle across the track, its front end jammed into the rear of the forward coach, while the third coach, to the left of and parallel to the track, was wedged into the side of the second car near its rear end. As the train was crowded to its full capacity, many persons were standing on the platforms, and it was among their number that the victims were chiefly found.

Escaping steam from the boiler of the locomotive filled the derailed coaches with blinding steam, scalding some painfully, and added to the confusion of the surviving passengers and impeded them in their efforts to escape.

—Miss Myrtle Graham, daughter of Mr. Herb. Graham, Ops, was discharged from the Ross Memorial Hospital as cured, after being a patient for about two weeks in the institution. Miss Graham was highly pleased with the treatment received and the general courtesies extended her by the staff while a patient.

Carmangay

the Star Town of Southern Alberta

Why not take the initiative in a good stroke of business by finding out why in only three short years Carmangay has changed from a stretch of prairie into a live town with no less than 53 places of business, a public school, several banks, municipally owned waterworks and electric light plants, mammoth elevators, etc.

Why is it that Carmangay heads the list of shipments of wheat in all Alberta. No less than a million bushels were shipped in 1911—and from the 1912 crop the tremendous increase of half a million bushels! And all this with only a fifth part of the surrounding fertile lands under cultivation!

The forests that grew a million years ago around where the prairie town of Carman-
