COUNCIL OF THE BOARD OF TRADE MEETS

RAILWAY RULES AND ADVER-TISING COMPETITIONS DIS-CUSSED - FORM OF BILL OF LADING RECOMMENDED.

A meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade was held on Thursday evening of last week, with Mr. John O'Reilly in the chair. The principal matters for discussion were the new railway rules and the advertising competition. The committee appointed to look into the railway rules reported strongly in favor of a simple receipt being taken from the railway. The clauses now on the bill of ladcompany, all conditions being subject ing to the common law of the Dominion The committee reported as follows

On examination we find that some of these clauses are contrary to the Railway Act and otherwise relieve the railways from liabilities that they them are subject to under the common law and statutes as common carriers. which we think is most unjust and certainly was not intended by Parlia-

THE CHOIR CONDUCTOR

is a person of consequence. He sometimes a man of skill, tact, and energy. He has a field for the exercise of a Mozart and the virtues of a Job. A choir conductor is not made he is born, and born again. He is able to administer a rebuke while paying a compliment, although he has failed to solve the problem of how to offend no one. He says the choir is a peculiar people, and has thoughts as to their zeal for good

A choir conductor is suave, polite, amiable, and is never known to lose his temper unless at home. He is the husband of one wife, but the admired of many women. He is taultless in his attire, precise in his movements, and in all respects, he believes a thorough gentleman. His natural attitude towards the minister is that of large minded compassion. He tolerates the preaching, and would be quite ashamed could any one honest-Ly accuse him of remembering any of the sermon. He thinks the prayers should be set to music, and believes the singing of the "Amen" points to that.

Some authorities think that the choir conductor has evolved out the precentor. The subject is difficult, and one on which we dare not dogmatize. In whichever way choir and conductor have come, they here now, and all good people earnestly hope they mean to stay and continue their sacred duties to creasing perfection.
