MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH DAVIES SARY OF THEIR MARRIAGE.

On May 2nd, 1857, in the Baptists Cardiff. Glanmorganshire, Wales, Miss Mary A. Francis Mr. Joseph Davies, were united marriage by the Rev. Mr. Tilley. It is a long way from Cardiff to Lindsay, Ontario, and a still longer journey from 1857 to 1967, and one that few couples take. Yet during a long and happy life together both these journeys have been accomplished by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Davies, and it seemed but fitting that note worthy recognition should be made of the fact.

Accordingly on Thursday last Mr. and Mrs. Davies, surrounded by children and grandchildren from far and near, made fitting observation of those, present were :- Mr. and George Davies, East Toronto; and Mrs. Thomas H. RAILWAY BOARD MEET HERE

APPLICATIONS OF G. T. R. RE CROSSING WATCHMEN KENT AND LINDSAY STREETS

The Board of Railway Commissioners held a session in Lindsay Tuesday morning in the Council Chamber. The Board came in their private car attached to No. 21, and Judge Killam, chairman, Commissioners Mills and Bernier were the Commissioners. Secretary Cartwright also came with them. Two applications were before Board as follows :

(1) Application of the Trunk Railway Company of Canada under Section 25, sub-section 4, Railway Act 1903, for an order varying the Order of the Board dated Sept. 4th, 1905, with respect to protection at Kent and Lindsay streets. (2) Application of the G.T.R. Co. for an order respecting signal men at the crossing in Lindsay with the event of their golden wedding. Among Lindsay, Bobcaygeon and Pontypool Mrs. R. R.
