WORK AT BRICK YARDS.
The employees at Mr. Sam. Fox's brick yard are very busy these days. Thursday they started to make tile and brick, and as there are numerous orders to fill, it is expected that the season will be a busy one. It takes as a rule about a month to turn the tile, etc., out ready for the market.

OBITUARY

JOHN PRENTICE, SR.

On April 23rd, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Minden township, Mr. John Prentice, sr., passed away.

Mr. Prentice was born in Carluke, Lanarkshire, Scotland, Aug. 26, 1856, where he married and came to Canada, residing first in the township of Ancaster, county of Wentworth, near Hamilton. In 1878 he moved to Haliburton, where he continued to reside until his death.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters and seven sons, as follows: Mrs. Parker, of Renfrew; Mrs. Bradley, of Snowdon township; Alex. Prentice, of Greswold, Man.; Mr. Angus Prentice, Toronto; Mr. Lee Prentice, of Ashland, Wis.; and Messrs. John, William, Thomas and Duncan, all of Haliburton county. Mrs. Alexander Prentice, Mrs. Andrew Parker, of Toronto, sister of Mrs. Prentice, sr., and Mrs. Chas. Hammill, of Fergus, joined the family in their hour of bereavement.

MRS. DONALD GILLESPIE.

The death of Mrs. D. Gillespie, aged 84 years, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Woodcock, in the township of Somerville on Sunday, April 18, 1909, removes a respected lady; mother of Messrs. John and Donald Gillespie, of Lutherworth, also Angus and Duncan, who are now at Slate River, Thunder Bay district. Mr. Geo. Woodcock, above referred to, and Mrs. Isaac Belfry, of Prince Albert, Sask., are the only surviving daughters.—Minden Echo.

THOS. A. BEST.

Sadness has come to another home by the very sudden death of Mr. Thomas A. Best, of Minden, on Saturday, April 24, 1909. With the exception of a heart weakness which he had for several years, and a few days' illness two weeks ago, he was in his usual health up to a few minutes of the time of his death. Sitting in a rocking chair in his very comfortable home near Minden Mills, talking quite cheerily to some friends who had called upon him, he was suddenly stricken, and in a few minutes had breathed his last.

He settled in the township of Snowdon some twenty-five years ago, but finally settled at Minden Mills.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church and one of its congregational managers. He is survived by a sorrowing widow, two sons and one daughter. The sons are Arthur, who has been out west for years, and Louis, of Minden Mills, with whom his mother will now reside. The only daughter is Mrs. Chas. Kirkwood, of Minden township.

Mr. Best was a son of Mr. Hamilton Best, of Emily, and Messrs. James Henry Best, Josiah Best, and Wm. Best, of Emily, also David Best, of Eldon, are brothers. Mrs. Isiah Thornton, formerly of Omemee, but now of Colbourne, is a sister.

MR. JAS. WARRIAN.

Mr. James Warrian, aged 89 years 3 days, died quite suddenly at Blairhampton on Tuesday, morning, April 27, 1909. During last summer while at the residence of his son, Mr. W. H. Warrian, Haliburton, he was very ill for several weeks, but had improved in health and was visiting friends at Blairhampton where he was afflicted by paralysis and only lived a few hours thereafter. The funeral took place to Twelve Mile Lake cemetery.—Minden Echo.

LATE MRS. TAYLOR.

Kirkfield, May 4.—The sad death of the late Mrs. John Taylor, of Victoria Road, occurred at her home on Thursday, April 29, 1909. The deceased was about eighty years of age. She had been ill for some time, suffering from dropsy. The funeral procession passed through our town on Saturday, May 1, and proceeded to Lake View cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hill, of Victoria Road.

LATE JAMES COOK

The funeral of the late James Cook took place on Monday, April 26, to the Riverside cemetery. It was conducted by the Rev. C. H. Marsh, assisted by Rev. C. Bilkie. The deceased was one of the old residents of Lindsay. He came to this country in the summer of 1853, accompanied by his sister and his first cousin. He made his home with his aunt, Mrs. Gannon, who lived for several years on the site on which the Lindsay post office now stands. The deceased worked in the saw mills of Lang, McDiarmid & Welsh for some year, but was a weaver and brewer by trade.

James Cook was born in Westport county Mayo, Ireland, in 1819. He was the son of John Cook, sergeant of the North British Fusiliers, the famous 21st, which fought under Wellington in the Peninsular War, and helped to conquer Bonepart at the battle of Waterloo.

He is survived by two brothers, John, of Cameron, and William, of Bay City, Michigan; also by one sister, Mrs. Cameron, who is still in Ireland. Three sisters, Elizabeth, of Lindsay; Mrs. Wm. Fenner, of Owen Sound, and Mrs. James McNabb, of Cameron, are dead. He was a life-long member of the Church of England, and a staunch Conservative.

MISS DOLLY CARMICHAEL.

Sadowa, May 4.—The many friends here of Miss Dolly Carmichael, of Sebright, were shocked on Sunday to hear of her sudden demise. Heart failure after an attack of tonsillitis being the cause of her death at the early age of 21 years. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of the community. The blow is a heavy one, as an elder brother was accidentally killed in a dynamite explosion north of Nipegon last week. The remains were laid to rest in Sebright cemetery on Thursday.

MRS. GILES.

The death occurred Sunday afternoon in the Ross Memorial Hospital, of Mrs. Giles, of Cambay, aged 42 years.

The deceased had been in the hospital for the past week and a half. She was operated on by Dr. Bruce, of Toronto, a week ago Saturday, and every hope was held out for her recovery until yesterday, when she passed quietly away.

The late Mrs. Giles leaves to mourn her loss two small children, her husband having predeceased her some time ago. The funeral will be held from her late home near Cambay station to-morrow (Tuesday) afternoon.

LATE WM. ADAMS.

The remains of the late William Adams, who passed away on Friday morning, were laid to rest Saturday afternoon in the Riverside cemetery.

The funeral took place from the residence of Mr. D. Adams, son of the deceased, and many old friends of the departed followed the body to the grave.

The pall-bearers were the six sons of the deceased, their names being: George, J. E., Delbert, Frank, of Lindsay, William, of Toronto, and R. T. Adams, of Millbrook.

Rev. Mr. Wilson, pastor of the Cambridge-st. Methodist church, conducted the services at the house and at the grave.

and the two of them have lived happily together for sixty years. Mr. Walter Arksey is the only surviving son. In religion the deceased was a member of the Church of England, and in politics a Reformer.

MRS. CHARLES NEIL.

The death occurred this morning at 10 o'clock, of Mrs. Charles Neil, beloved wife of Mr. Charles Neil, section foreman, Adelaide-st., south. The deceased had been ill for the past year and passed quietly away this morning. The late Mrs. Neil leaves to mourn her loss besides a loving husband, two girls, Myrtle and Jean, and three boys, Myrtle, Lawrence and Allister. The deceased was very popular and well-known in Lindsay and vicinity, and a very large circle of friends will regret to hear of her death. She was in her forty-first year. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock and proceed to Riverside cemetery for interment.

MRS. WM. HILL.
MR. OLIVER GLASPELL.

Powles' Corners, May 4.—Once again that grim and insatiable spectre, Death, has removed from our midst two citizens of sterling worth.—Mrs. Wm. Hill, and Mr' Oliver Glaspell.

Mrs. Hill (nee Susanna Martineau) passed in the Great Beyond on Wednesday, April 28, almost without warning. Mrs. Hill and family had returned to our vicinity last autumn from Penetanguishene, and in the few months of their sojourn among us they had secured many friends. The remains of Mrs. Hill were interred in Eden cemetery on Saturday last. The mourning family have the sympathy of the whole neighborhood.

Mr. Glaspell had been ailing for some time and finally succumbed on Saturday, May 1. Mr. Glaspell was widely known in this township as he spent several years as assessor of this municipality. Last January he was elected to the council of Fenelon. Mr. Glaspell's death comes as a blow to his many friends, and we are all one in our sympathy to the bereaved family.

It is not often that two deaths occur in as sparsely a settled district as this, and we wish to call to our friends' minds the comforting words of the poet, when he penned: These severe afflictions, Not from the ground arise, But oftentimes celestial benedictions Assume this dark disguise.

JOHN TWEEDIE.

John Tweedie, uncle of Mrs. R. J. Yarnold, of town, passed away on Friday, April 30, in Whitty. The funeral was held on Monday and Mrs. Yarnold was present.

The Whitty Chronicle says of the deceased:

The death occurred on Friday last of Mr. John Tweedie, an esteemed farmer of Whitty township, at the age of 73 years. Mr. Tweedie had been in poor health for some years, but it was pneumonia that eventually brought him under. For several weeks he had been very low, and death was expected.

Mr. Tweedie died at Broadfield, the name given to the family homestead. He was an unmarried man, one of the four sons of the late James Tweedie, a Scotchman who located in Whitty three-quarters of a century ago. The object of this note was born in this township, and had spent all his life here. He was widely known, and it is doubtful if there was another farmer in the district who had made himself more useful to his neighbors and the township than he did. For this reason he will be greatly missed, and for this reason also there was a very large concourse at the funeral.

Mr. Tweedie had served in the township council, being deputy-reeve for at least one year. He had also, years ago, been a member of the board of trustees of his school section. In his day he was an excellent marksman with a rifle. In his chosen occupation of farmer he had prospered, and with his two living brothers had made of Broadfield a very fine farm.

In politics Mr. Tweedie was a strong Liberal. In religion he was a Presbyterian, and Dr. Abraham conducted the religious exercises at the funeral. Interment was made in Union cemetery on Monday. The pall-bearers were all friends of long standing—Messrs. Alex. Robb, J. E. Farewell, Wm. Calverley, Wm. Hood, Chas. Smith, Jas. Lynde.

LEFT FOR THE WEST.

Mr. W. McIntyre, of Cambay, left the other day for Edmonton, where he will join his brother, Mr. John McIntyre.

WHY LIQUID CATARRH REMEDIES FAIL.

They go direct to the stomach, have very little effect on the linings of the nose and throat, and entirely fail to cure. Only by cleansing the air passages by relieving the inflammation and killing the germs is cure possible. No combination of anti-septics is so successful as Catarrh-zone. In breathing it, you send the richest pine balsams right to the seat of the disease. Irritating phlegm is cleared out, hoarseness, coughing and hacking are cured. For a permanent cure for catarrh, nothing equals Catarrh-zone, 25c. and $1 at all dealers.

FANNING'S SALE.

The sale at Fanning's repository on Saturday was largely attended as usual. The horses and cattle sold realized good prices, ten horses out of fourteen being sold. Among the purchasers and consigners present were: P. McNabb, Argyle, who purchased a handsome bay mare for $175; T. Broad, Sonya; T. Murphy, Kirkfield; C. Daniels, Cambay; J. Johnson, Lindsay; Francis Scully and Lorne Scully, Downeyville; Mr. Keelar, Manilla; J. Kearns, Lindsay; Wm. McCausland, Lindsay; Jas. Fleury, Lindsay, J. W. Elliott, Lindsay, etc. Don't forget the coming sale on May 15. Everybody come.

FINDS HIS WORK A PLEASURE NOW

Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured the Postmaster's Kidney Disease

ALBERTA MAN TELLS HOW HIS TROUBLES VANISHED WHEN HE USED THE OLD RELIABLE KIDNEY REMEDY.

Scona, Alta., May 7.—(Special).—"I can now do all my work without pain and with pleasure." Those are the words of Postmaster Andrew B. Nelson of this place. As all the postmaster's friends know, he has been troubled with kidney disease for several years past, and has been doing everything in his power to find a cure for it. He has found the cure. It is Dodd's Kidney Pills. Yes, I tried all kinds of medicines for my kidney trouble," the postmaster joyfully states. "None of them seemed to do me any good till I commenced to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Two boxes of them cured me completely. I highly recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney disease. I would not be without them."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure all diseases of the kidneys, from backache to bright's disease. They also cure all disordered kidneys failing to strain the impurities out of the blood. That's why they cure dropsy, rheumatism, and heart disease. If you haven't tried them yourself ask your neighbors about them.
