It's a Matter of Money

Which often blinds a man to the importance of wearing business garments that are made to measure. He imagines that they cost more than factory ones. This is a matter of self-deception entirely, as clothes made by a first class tailor wear longer, keep the shape and good looks longer and are better lined and finished. Put this statement to the test.

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

(From our own correspondent.)

JANETVILLE
Janetville, May 12.—Mr. Clifford Henders, who resides in the Northwest, but who has been enjoying an extended visit with many friends in Cartwright, spent last Sunday with Mrs. W. G. Bradburn, Mill-st.

A very severe electrical storm passed over this vicinity last Thursday evening, but fortunately doing no harm.

Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather many of our prosperous farmers, have almost completed their spring seeding.

Mr. J. H. Wilson, of Port Hope, passed through our village on Wednesday morning, on his way to Lindsay. His many friends will be glad to hear of his increasing success as an auctioneer in that town and vicinity.

Miss Peters, having resigned her position as assistant teacher in our Public school, owing to illness, left on Thursday morning for her home near Cobourg.

Mrs. Wm. Magill, accompanied by Mrs. Andrew Magill, visited at the home of their friend, Mrs. William Headlip last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Magill were in Lindsay last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Nugent and Master Herman spent Sunday with Mount Horeb friends.

The Epworth League last Friday evening was well attended, many of the new officers being present. Miss Ena Bradburn, being first vice-president, was responsible for the evening's program. A discourse was given on the "Pilgrim Progress" series—The House of the Interpreter. In which Miss Bradburn showed clearly that "we are all pilgrims seeking for a better country."

A Bargain Department

This is a new department—to be brief, it is a system of clearing out old lines and sizes, also special lines of footwear that we may pick up from time to time.

The system of displaying these bargains enables you to make a selection at a glance.

All kinds of men's, women's and children's footwear are represented—nothing wrong with the quality but they're just broken sizes.

Call and see our new BARGAIN DEPARTMENT

Call often and you'll always find something new on display.
