CHARGE NOT PROVEN. Fred Bell was acquitted at Kirkfield Thursday of the charge of stealing $45 from A. McEachern, of the same village. Magistrate Moore presided at the police court, which was held in Kirkfield. Mr. L. V. O'Connor appeared for the prosecution and Mr. Geo. A. Jordan for the defence and the argument in the case lasted all afternoon. The accused, and accuser it seems, were in a party that went to Port Perry on April 24, and had a rather jovial time. During the evening McEachern missed a wad of bills amounting to $45 and someone told him that Bell had taken the money. Police court proceedings followed. No evidence was forthcoming to prove positively that the money was stolen and the supposition is that McEachern spent it unknowingly.
