OLD L.C.I. BOY. The Rev. P. M. Lamb, who graduated from the University of Toronto in 1908, and since has been pursuing the study of theology at Trinity University, has just completed his course there. He obtained first class standing in every department, and won the college prizes for Greek

Testament and Dogmatics. Mr. Lamb has been appointed by the Bishop to St. Cuthbert's church, Leaside, a flourishing suburb of Toronto. Mr. Lamb is a son of Mrs. M. Lamb, of Russell-st., town.

ROSEDALE. Rosedale, May 9.—The Powles' Corners baseball team which played our school boys on Arbor Day, May 6th, in a field near McCormack's Corner, resulted in a score of 12-12 at the end of the ninth innings, but in the extra innimbs the Cameron Point lads arose to the occasion and won out to the tune of 15-13.

VALENTIA. Valentia, May 9.—The Woman's Institute held a very successful meeting on Thursday last at the home of Mrs. A. E. Swain. An interesting and helpful paper was given by Miss L. Parkin, and the report of the Guelph convention by Mrs. Webster, of Little Britain, Mrs. Birchard of Linden Valley, and Mrs. Webster of Cambray, attended the meeting. Mrs. J. R. Pogue is spending a week under the parental roof, Little Britain. We are glad to hear that Mrs. Sharpe is recovering. Miss E. A. Cornell spent Sunday at Nestleton. Mr. A. P. Mark had a narrow escape from being poisoned on Monday. After handling poison while doctoring a cow for lump jaw he had the misfortune to wash his face, getting some of the poison in his eye. The doctor was immediately summoned and he is now on the way to recovery.

JANETVILLE. Janetville, May 9.—A mare belonging to Mr. Geo. Wilson gave birth last week to a colt which is certainly a freak of nature. While its hind legs are perfect the front legs are entirely wanting, and it possesses no front legs in a shrivelled state or otherwise. Nor is there a formation of any kind on the skin where the front legs should be. The colt though several days old appears to be thriving. Mr. Wilson is feeding it on milk and intends to shortly place it in a sling. We understand that some enterprising investor has already offered Mr. Wilson $200 for it at two months old for museum purposes. Mr. Jas. Armstrong has begun the season's carpentering work with Mr. John Ingram of Lindsay. Sunday evening Rev. Mr. Snowden preached a memorial service for the late King Edward VII., from the text, "Know ye not that a Prince and a great man is fallen this day in Israel." Instead of the anthem by the choir the organist, Mrs. McGill, played the dead march in Saul. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hobbs were in Oshawa over Sunday. The cement walk around the church has not yet been built. The saw mill happened on Saturday with the second break of the season, but is running again this week. The Presbyterian Sunday school opened for the summer months on Sunday. Mr. John McGee takes possession of the elevator on June 1st.

OAKWOOD. Oakwood, May 10.—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Silverwood and family left on Thursday for the Northwest, where they intend to reside in the future. Mrs. McCullough, of Lindsay, spent Sunday with relatives here. Miss Lottie Woolridge returned to her home last week after having spent some months in Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. M. Gilson, of Zion, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Webster on Sunday. Mrs. G. B. Rennie visited friends in Toronto recently. Mr. George Martindale, who has been seriously ill for some time past is, we are pleased to report, rapidly recovering under the skillful treatment of Dr. Hall, of Little Britain. Mr. T. Webster, who has been in poor health for some time, is also improving. Miss Irons, elocutionist, will give her celebrated recital entitled, "Ben Hur," in the Methodist church, on May 20th, under the auspices of the Epworth league. Admission 25c; children 15c. Mr. Hugh King paid Valentia a visit on Sunday. Miss Cory visited her uncle, Mr. Neil McLean, Peniel, last week. The many friends of Miss J. Dundas, formerly of Oakwood, now of Lindsay, will be pleased to learn she is recovering from her recent serious illness.

BURY'S GREEN. Bury's Green, May 9.—It was with deep regret that the people of this vicinity learned of the sad and sudden death of our beloved King, Ed-

Is He a Czar?

Don't fancy that the tailor is a czar whose word is law, not a bit of it. The tailor is very human and as much prone to error as anybody else. Our suits for men this spring are not better than the best tailors can turn out—they're only just as good. Same fine cloths, same modish cut, same careful fit some strengthening of unnoticed parts, upon which a strain falls, same everything but price. These are lower, come in and judge for yourself.

They're Coming!

More, and more men are coming to this store for their outfitting, and our business grows and grows. We do not win and hold out trade by offering impossible bargains every day in the year, but rather by constantly striving to offer our patrons better values and better service than can be obtained elsewhere. Then we are always satisfied with a very modest profit. This square policy pays us and pays our patrons. Just note the splendid values in our 10.00, 12.00 or 15.00 Suits; our $2.50 and $3.00 trousers. Its such splendid offerings as these, together with our fair treatment that keeps more and more buyers coming our way

TO ANNUL MARRIAGE

RECENT MIDLAND ROMANCE AGAIN BEFORE COURTS.

A motion to strike out the statement of claim in the case of Fraser v. Robertson, was made at Toronto before Mr. Justice Riddell. His Lordship enlarged it for one week.

Michael Fraser, is 84 years of age, living at Midland. He is worth some $80,000. Last summer Miss Hannah M. O. Robertson, accompanied by her father, Rev. Wm. Robertson, a Presbyterian minister, got into the house which was guarded by relatives of the old man, and Miss Robertson was married to the old man by her father.

Action is now being taken by Catharine McCormick, as next friend, and Fraser to have his marriage annulled.
