A Trial Treatment of Cuticura Soap and Ointment Free to Skin Sufferers

If you, or someone dear to you, are suffering the itching, burning, sleep-destroying torments of eczema or other cruel skin eruption, with its embarrassing, unsightly disfigurement; if you have tried all manner of treatment, no matter how harsh, to no avail, and have all but given up hope of cure, write to-day for a liberal sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Thousands of skin-tortured sufferers, from infancy to age, have found that the first warm bath with Cuticura Soap and gentle application of Cuticura Ointment bring instant relief, permit rest and sleep, and prove the first steps in a speedy and successful treatment. pared by Rev. D. M. Stearns. We have our choice today of the regular lesson in order or a special lesson on the Holy Spirit from Acts fl, 1-11; but, inasmuch as only by the Spirit can the teaching of the regular lesson on almsgiving, prayer and fasting be put in practice, we will take the regular portion with a look at the whole chapter, as we do not seem to have the rest of the chapter in any subsequent lesson. The heart of the whole Bible seems to be "the kingdom of God and His righteousness" (verse 33). The Lord Jesus came to set up this kingdom on the earth, but as they rejected it and Him it will not be set up till He shall come again in glory. Meanwhileall who become children of God by receiving Jesus Christ and joint heirs with Him should walk worthy of His kingdom and glory while they wait for i (1 Thess. ii, 12). Their motto should ever and always be, "First the kingdom of God." Then there would be no anxious thought about aught else, for everything to be seen of men (Matt. xxiii, 5). It was even so in the days of the prophets, and a special feature of the last days of this age will be a turning away from the truth and a form of godliness without any power (Isa. xxix, 13; Ezek. xxxiii, 31; II Tim. iii. 1-5; iv. 3, 4). In each of the three para graphs of our lesson there is a contrast between a present reward or approval of men and a future reward from God Himself, spoken of in verse 20 as "treasure in heaven." We cannot serve God and Mammon or God and the

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. vi, 1-18. Memory Verses, 7, 8-Golden Text, Matt, vi, R. V .- Commentary Pre-

ago hundreds of thousands of cattle He gives the assurance that all will be provided by our Father, who knoweth all our need (verses 31, 32). Whether it be the service or prayer or fasting of the daily life, there is one principle to govern all. It must be unto the Father, who seeth in secret, who looketh upon the heart and to whom all things are naked and open. "Not as pleasing men, but God who trieth our hearts" (1 Thess. ii, 4), is a principal always to be observed. In contrast to that the most religious people of our Lord's time did | tirely banish coughs, catarrh devil, for the friendship of this world is enmity with God, and that which is Land that was formerly occupied by highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God (verse 24; etc Luke xvi, 15; Jas. iv, 4). There was only one who always and in all things pleased the Father, but He desires to live His life in us and will if we yield fully to Him (John vili, 29; II Cor. iv. 10. 11). He was manifestly approved of God by the miracles and wonders and sights which God did by Him (Acts ii. show ourselves approved unto God. workmen that need not be ashamed (II. Tim. ii, 15). This can be done only as we are Spirit filled like the disciples on the day of Pentecost, and like them we must be willing to be misunderstood and even counted drunken or beside ourselves for His sake. The old their own garden produce, there are word to Abraham is always helpful, "Walk before Me and be thou sincere" (Gen. xvii, 1, margin), and also the oft repeated words in Leviticus, "unto the Lord" and "before the Lord." Concerning giving to any good work, the motive of the donor is everything. If the gift is wholly and only "unto the Lord." desiring only His approval, then It it does not matter if people do know of it. It should be the love of Christ constraining, and according to II Sam. xxiv, 24, I will not offer unto the Lord of that which doth cost me nothing. and also according to I Chron. xxix, 14,

"All things come of thee, and thine own do we give thee." Concerning prayer, it is real access to God by Jesus Christ, remembering I John v, 14, 15, "This is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will He heareth us, and if we know that He bear us, whatever we on the beatitudes, the late Dr. Saphir said of it: "It is a model prayer and as such commends itself to the most superficial glance-approves itself at once to the conscience of man. The simplicity it seems adapted purposely for the weakness of the inexperienced and ignorant, and yet none can say that he is familiar with the heights and depths which it reveals and with the treasures of wisdom it contains." In verses 14, 15, of our lesson note that "Very well then, you will have to communion with God as our Father depends upon our forgiving others as He forgave us. This, like all the discourse, is not a condition of salvation, but another word for His disciples. As to fasting, the best comment I know is Isa. Ivill. 3-11, remembering that, like giving and praying, it must be from the the heart unto the Lord. The forty day fasts of Moses and Elijah and the Lord Jesus were peculiar and unique, but the record of fastings in the Acts of his the apostles is for our example, and our Lord spoke of the power of prayer and fasting in Matt. xvii, 21.
