SIGN YOUR NAME.
Correspondents will kindly bear in mind that no anonymous letters will receive publication. They must bear the signature of the writer, not necessarily for publication, but simply that we may know by whom they are sent.

NO SMOKING IN ZION.
John Alexander Howie headed tobacco, and when he founded Zion City an ordinance was passed which forbade smoking within the city limits.

A CANTATA.
A first-class cantata will be given in Fenelon Falls Methodist church on Thursday, May 1st, by the choir, assisted by Mrs. W. E. Reesor, soprano; Mrs. G. F. Blackwell, contralto; Mr. B. Parrish, tenor; Mr. M. Moynes, bass; and Mrs. Dr. Irvine, elocutionist, all of Lindsay, under the leadership of Mr. C. C. Forsyth.

PURE WATER FOR CAMPS.
The staff of the Central Laboratory of Hygiene, Ottawa, are now engaged in making a careful examination of all waters that are proposed as supplies for the various militia camps of instruction throughout Canada.

HIS FIRST CASE.
Minden Echo - Magistrate Delamore heard his first case in Haliburton Monday night. It was a two-fold case against James Gilmour, one for threatening to shoot Elizabeth Gilmour, a distant relation, and another for using obscene language towards the same person.

BANDMASTER REMEMBERED.
The departure of Mr. Dan Jamieson, of Woodville, for the north-west was last Wednesday made the occasion by the Woodville band to recognize the long services of Mr. Jamieson in connection with the band and as a citizen of Woodville in the form of a presentation of a handsome club bag and address which was feelingly responded to by Mr. Jamieson.

FAMOUS WOMAN DOCTOR.
Mrs. Emma Stevenson, of Carmel, who has become famous because of the curative powers of her medicines, is still doing business. Her recent action of the Inspector for the Ontario College of Physicians and Surgeons which brought her before two courts, where she was fined nearly $200, Mrs. Stevenson is in the city delivering medicine and calling on patients.

AGAINST "CALL" SYSTEM.
Bruce Presbytery is in favor of an itinerant system.
HAMILTON, April 30.-The Synod of London and Hamilton yesterday endorsed a strong resolution forwarded from the Bruce Presbytery requesting the General Assembly to change the present system of calling ministers in favor of an itinerant system.

MOVEL TO KENT-ST.
Mr. John L. Hughes, with an eye to increased business has moved his shoe repairing shop on William-st. to Kent-st., and now occupies the stand immediately west of P. J. Campbell's meat store. Mr. Hughes has also a store on Lindsay-st., in the Tanney block, where he conducts a thriving business. He repairs for three or four dealers in town, as well as looking after the town and country trade, and needless to say is exceedingly busy. In fact, he could employ more skilled men if they were available.

JEWELL.-At Lorneville, April 24, 1913, to Mr. and Mrs. Archie Jewell, a son.

Ridout-St. Drain Clogged, and By a Man

John Ward, who bears the appellation of the "White Indian," was discovered in a drain on Ridout-st. on Monday afternoon, covered with grime and muck. John was not there for the purpose of assisting in enlarging the water course, but fell in way up to the top, so he managed to get out by the side of the drain, and was taken to the hospital.

When a sea captain marries a widow he becomes second mate. Carelessness is nearly always the most costly item in an expense account.

St. Thomas Y.M.C.A. raised more than $67,000 in its campaign for $50,000 for a new building. Some men look for trouble in order that they may be prepared to dodge. Probably the hardest thing for a girl to do when she is being kissed by a young man is to make him believe that it is her first experience.

Fred Ball, 35 years old, was killed at the Maple Leaf Milling Co., Port Colborne, by being caught in the machinery.

NEW CHURCH.
PENEL CONGREGATION TO ERECT NEW EDIFICE.
Peniel, April 28.-Judge McIntyre, of Whitley, called on friends in this vicinity this week.

Master Howard Gilson, who has been quite ill, has recovered. Rev. Moore, of Whitley, preached here on Sunday last to a large and appreciative congregation. The Sunday school and church services are being held in Black's school house. Recently a meeting of the trustee board of the church was held at which Mr. Taylor, contractor, was present and he is engaged to draw a plan for our new church. Rev. Lambert, of Oakwood, accompanied him. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Webster, of Oakwood, visited at Mr. John Tretheway's.

Mr. Campbell, of Woodville, paid a few business calls in this neighborhood recently. Mr. and Mrs. Herb Black were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Squiers. Miss May McIntyre has returned from visiting Lindsay friends.

Mr. Morrow, of Woodville, called on his friends on Sunday. Mrs. Maybee, of Cannington, and Mrs. Mallett visited at Mr. John McKague's and with other friends here.

Miss Olive Wright is spending a few weeks in Cannington. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hardy, of
