OMEMEE
The 1st and 12th July are now the best of the day. The Nall recruited about 30 men for the camp. A large number attended the circus at Lindsay and were not so pleased as at Omemee. Nellie Cornell sang acceptably at the Methodist church last Sunday. No one appeared to any better advantage. The great trades procession at Lindsay, Monday, July 2nd, Dominion day, was a success. The north and south will be a great event. $510 in purses for racing in the ring. A concert on last Friday evening was a grand success, and was patronized by the cultured citizens and surrounding country people, notwithstanding the heat at Lindsay and other places. The crowd was large and appreciative. The chorus singing was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

BARBAIN-NORTH VERULAM

torial Hospital Day," July 2nd. Twelve hours of fun without alloy; all clean sport, no fake fixed games. Lindsay, July 2nd.

Mr. Thomas Oliver comes next with a neat drive barn, just finished. It stands on a stone foundation and was built by Mr. Oliver himself, and reflects great credit to the builder.

Mr. E. Tiers is bricking his hand, some residence. Being a very nice site for a house, it will show to good advantage. His better half being on the sick list at present leaves him a busy man.

Cheese-maker Robinson finds his hands full, as well as the vats too full. The whey tank and all is overflowing. The boiler giving out on Friday caused a big loss in milk, as one vat had to be run out. Preparations are being made for an addition to the factory, which will remedy all trouble. The milk drawers have got a hustle on this season, and will not require mention in the instructor's report of late arrivals of milk.

CAMERON
Mr. and Mrs. S. Wilson of Valentia paid our village a visit last week.

Mr. Wesley Anderson had the misfortune to have a cow killed by the train last week.

Our postmaster, Mr. Bryson, is poorly. We hope he may speedily recover and be able to resume his usual duties.

The prizes in the Caledonian games at Lindsay, July 2nd, are worthy of competition; gold chains, medals, silver and chinaware, very finest quality.

Mr. D. Lee is busy digging a cellar for a house he intends building in the near future. John Westaway, too, is erecting a house on his farm east of the village.

Prospects for crops were never better than this season. Everything, unless a few small pieces of fall wheat and some old meadows, has the appearance of being first-class.

The trustees of s. s. No. 6 here, have had a Page wire fence put around the school premises. When the gates are hung and the debris cleared from the yard its appearance will be greatly improved. Mr. Hunter of Lindsay had the contract of fencing.

LORNEVILLE

The crops in this neighborhood are promising an abundant harvest. Thanks to providence by the farmers.

If you never spent a cent on a holiday, do so now; the object is a most worthy one. Open your hearts and your pockets wide. July 2nd at Lindsay.

The Rev. A. E. Duncan will dispense the communion of the Lord's supper in Eldon St. Andrew's church on Sabbath, July 1st, rather than Sabbath 24th inst., as at first expected.

Our Sabbath school picnic to Beaverton on Thursday of last week was a decided success, being well patronized. All came home well pleased with the day's outing. A few took in the excursion by steamer to Barrie on that day, and report a delightful sail on that delightful lake, Simcoe.

Quite a few from our suburbs took in the I.O.O.F. excursion to Muskoka last Wednesday and report a splendid time, all having enjoyed the trip immensely and credit it to the best of the season. The cheapness of it is indicative of the extensive patronage purposed or expected by the committee in charge. Muskoka is noted for its scenery and rightly so.

EAST MANILLA
Mr. E. T. White, B.A., is home for the holidays.

Mr. Thomas Jewell has his barn ready for the frame.

Rev. Mr. McQuade and others. Music will be furnished by Peniel choir. Tea will be served from 5 to 7.30.

A few nights ago Mr. Nelson Barker heard a commotion in his yard, and on getting up to investigate, saw a couple of dogs worrying his sheep. In the morning he found that a fine ewe had been killed by the dogs. It was but a few weeks before that his brother, John Barker, had a sheep killed and another badly torn by some wandering curs. It is a shame that farmers who raise sheep should have them worried in this manner, and those who own dogs which are known to wander around the country at nights, should lock them up, or better still, tie them with a slip knot to the beam of the barn.

MANILLA
Miss Ada Squires is also visiting friends here.

Miss Glendenning of Vroomanton was the guest of her cousin of "Rosebank Farm."

Mr. Ralph DeLury of Toronto University returned to his home last week for the holidays.

Keep the date before you, Monday July 2nd, I.O.O.F. demonstration at Lindsay; great event.

Extensive building operations on the respective farms of Messrs. Thos. Short and Thos. Jewell are unmistakable signs of the "growing time."

Our gardeners, Messrs. Ranous, Bread and Smith, are busy picking and supplying their customers with strawberries. All the available pickers are engaged.

Mrs. Tremble, formerly a resident of this place, but who a few years ago moved away to the state of Ohio, is at present visiting friends and renewing old acquaintances here.

Miss H. Mintern returned on Thursday last, in company with her cousin, Miss Della Mintern of Michigan, at whose home she has been visiting for the past five months.

Mr. D. B. MacQueen and W. L. Coone took advantage of the opening of the "lunge fishing season on Saturday last, but we have seen no tangible proof that the fish took advantage of the chance of being caught.

SONYA
Mrs. Brown of Ashburn is visiting her sister Mrs. Alex. Smith.

Miss K. McPhail spent a few days of last week with her cousin, Mrs. R. Campbell, Lindsay.

Mr. P. Reith, a licentiate of Knox College, preached here on Sunday last with great acceptance.

Extensive preparations are being made for holding a gigantic anniversary in connection with St. Andrew's church on July 1st and 2nd. The managers of the congregation have the matter in charge, which insures that everything will be done possible to make the gathering a grand success.

Mr. John G. Innes, of this place, passed into another state last week by taking to himself a wife in the person of Miss Johnson of Ashburn. A number of near relatives from here attended the ceremony. We wish Mr. Mrs. Innes every prosperity in their married life.

A letter was received here last week from Mr. Alfred Gorst, formerly well known in this locality, from the seat of war in South Africa. Mr. Gorst was in Australia when the call for volunteers was made. He enlisted in the Queensland Mounted Infantry and was soon promoted to the position of sergeant in that corps. Should he be spared to see the end of the conflict he intends visiting Canada again. His old friends will be pleased to see him again.
