

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

Fenelon Falls

Mr. A. Gould wheeled out to Cambridge on Saturday evening, to spend a few days with his many friends there.

Mrs. Pearson returned on Friday, from spending the winter with her brother, Mr. Wm. Graham, at Smithtown.

Mr. Henry, Graham of Kinnoult spent Monday at the Falls.

Mrs. Fitzroy is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. Sandford.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin of Cambridge spent Saturday and Sunday the guests of Mrs. Stacey.

Miss McArthur went to Lindsay on Monday, to spend a few days with friends in town.

The Alexandria came up last Friday, and was delayed for some little time in the lower lock, on account of some refuse, which prevented the gate from closing.

The Rathburn mill is now in full running order. The new roof of galvanized iron, put on by Mr. J. Heard's workmen, is finished, and is a fine piece of work.

An empire night was given in the Methodist church last Thursday evening. The meeting was a very interesting affair and well attended.

Mr. J. Heard's men are now putting a metal roof on Mr. W. Northey's new restaurant. This establishment, when finished, will be one of the finest in this part of the county.

The order of Chosen Friends seem to be prospering here. About 20 new members were received last Friday night, and nearly as many more on Tuesday evening.

The E. L. of C. E. held their monthly meeting at the residence of Mr. H. Puley, on Tuesday evening. After the regular meeting a most enjoyable social evening was spent, by the large number present.

There was no service in St. James last Sunday, as no supply was sent to fill the pulpit.

The many old friends of Mr. C. Curtis, Sr., were heard with deep regret of his death on Sunday evening. The deceased was very well and favorably known and leaves a large family to mourn his loss.

Dr. Neelands and Irvine, dentists, Lindsay, will visit Cobocok, Paterson's hotel, on Friday, June 12th. Keep the date in mind.

The weather is considered too dry for vegetation to progress well. The saw mill is running at full blast, and Bryans' timber is fast being converted into lumber.

The sudden death of Mrs. Wm. Robinson cast a gloom over the vicinity. She was 46 years of age and a member of the Anglican church. The large funeral on Monday shows the respect and sympathy felt by the public.

gave her numerous friends a call during the past week.

Mr. H. Eyres had the misfortune to lose a fine brood mare.
